AN OLD MAN'S DREAM.

Oh, for one hour of youthful joy! Give back my twentieth spring I'd rather laugh a bright-haired boy Than reign a grey-haired king.

Off with the wrinkled spoils of age; Away with learning's crown; Tear out life's wisdom-written page, And dash its trophies down.

One moment let my life-blood stream From boyhood's fount of flame! Give me one giddy, reeling dream Of life, all love and fame!

My listening angel heard the prayer, And calmly smiling said. "If I but touch thy silvered hair,

Thy hasty wish had sped. "But is there nothing in my track . To bid the fondly stay, While the swift seasons hurry back To find the wished for day?"

Ah truest soul of woman kind! Without thee what were life? One bliss I cannot leave behind-I'll take-my precious wife!

The angel took a sapphire pen, And wrote in rainbow dew: "The man would be a boy again, And be a husband, too!

"Is there another pet unsaid Before the change appears? Remember all their gifts have fled With those desolving years!'

Why, yes, I would one favor more-My fond paternal joys-I could not bear to leave them all; I'll take my girls and boys.

The smiling angel dropped his pen-"Why, this will never do; The man would be a boy again, And be a father, too!

And so I laughed-my laughter woke The household with its noise. I wrote my dream when morning broke, To please the grey-haired boys.
