RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows:
By Rev. Sewmower in the Baptist church in the morning;
By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening.
By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the afternoon.
By Rev. Harrison in the Lutheran church, in the morning.
By Rev. Archer in the Court House, morning and evening.

DR. MARQUAM'S card appears in our advertising columns this week.

LIME.—By reference to our advertising columns, the reader will find the card of Shortidge & Co., proprietors of the Bellefonte Lime Kiln.

ICE CREAM.—An ice-cream festival will come off at Mrs. S. J. Row's, on Saturday evening next, June 29th,—the proceeds to be applied to the repairing of the Lutheran Church edifice.

LADY'S FRIEND.—The July number of this valuable ladies' magazine is out, and embraces all its former beautiful and interesting features. Deacon and Peterson, publishers, Philadelphia.

WOOL CARDING.—F. K. & J. R. Arnold having purchased an interest in the Union Mills, at Rockton, are prepared to card wool, manufacture cloth, etc., on short notice. Read the advertisement.

FUN! FUN!—The Giles Brothers, of Pittsburg, will give one of their grand and popular Ethiopian Concerts, in the Court House, in this place, on July 4th, 1867. For further particulars see bills.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—This valuable monthly for July, is before us. It contains the usual variety of interesting literary matter, and the embellishments are equal to any heretofore published. Price, $3 a year.

TALL RYE.—One day last week, Mr. Geo. Tate, of Lawrence township, left at our office a stalk of rye, which measures 8 feet 11 inches in length. George says there is "more of the same sort" in the field. Who can beat it?

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.—The 4th of July occurring on Thursday next, we have concluded not to issue a Journal on the 3d, so as to enable our hands to enjoy a holiday. To be compelled to work every day throughout the whole year is a rather burdensome task, and calculated to impair the health of the individual who does so; and hence, we have thought it but fit to give our employees a week of recreation. We feel confident that our readers will agree with us in this proposition, and excuse us from issuing a paper next week.

LEG BROKEN.—Mr. Gideon D. Goodfellow, of Lawrence township, on Monday, June 24th, met with a serious and painful accident, under the following circumstances: Mr. Milton McBride, of the same township, was engaged in putting the bed on a wagon to which were attached two horses. The horses becoming suddenly frightened, ran away, and as they were about to turn the corner into second street, at Mr. Wrigley's, Mr. Goodfellow attempted to catch the runaway team. As Mr. G. sprang at the horses, the wagon struck a heavy post standing at the corner, which caused the near horse to fall, and in the fall the horse's foot struck Mr. G. about six inches below the knee and broke the bones of square. After the fracture was reduced, Mr. Goodfellow was conveyed to his home, and is getting along as well as could be expected, considering the nature of the injuries.

Temperance Convention.
In accordance with the call for a county Temperance Convention, a large number of citizens, from various parts of the county, met in the Baptist Church, on Tuesday afternoon, June 25th. Rev. A. H. Sewmower, on behalf of the Committee appointed by the State Temperance Union, for Clearfield county, stated the object in calling the Convention, to be, for the formation of a county Temperance Union. After the usual preliminaries, the organization was effected by electing the following named gentlemen as the officers of the Union for the ensuing year: President—John F. Weaver; Vice Presidents—G. P. Guelich, W. Radebaugh, A. H. Sewmower, Alex. Murray, A. M. Hills; Treasurer—James B. Graham; Secretary—George W. Rheine; Corresponding Secretary—Isiah G. Barger.
A resolution was then adopted calling on all the friends of Temperance to organize, in each township, auxiliary societies, and to send delegates and statistics to the regular meetings of the county Union, whenever held. The Convention then agreed to hold its first Annual Union, on the first Monday evening of the September court.

The conviction of Fenians as "traitors" still proceeds with great regularity in the courts of the British Government—the government which sheltered Mason and Slidell, winked at the fitting out of pirate cruisers on our commerce, sympathized so ostentatiously and offensively with Davis, and now endorses the policy of Johnson and the Democracy. Let Irishmen think of this next October.

A judge in Missouri lately entered a plea for divorce, sat on his own case, heard the pleading, and entered a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony. That beats Chicago,

Court Proceedings.

Below we give the proceedings of June term of our Courts, in brief, which will be read with interest.

OVER AND TERMINER.

Com. vs. Franklin Groe.—Larceny, felony. True bill. Cause tried. Verdict, not guilty. The defendant in this cause was charged with feloniously taking fourteen sticks of timber.

Com. vs. Henry Groe.—Larceny, felony. True bill. The District Attorney entered a nolle prosequi, in this case, afterwards.

Com. vs. David Crowell.—Larceny, felony. Cause tried. Verdict, not guilty.

Com. vs. David Crowell.—Perjury, misdemeanor. True bill. Cause tried. Verdict, guilty in manner and form as indicted; whereupon the bail delivered the prisoner, and the Court ordered him into the custody of the Sheriff. Motion for a new trial and in arrest of judgment filed.

Com. vs. Charles Nunemaker.—Larceny. True bill. Plead guilty, and the Court sentenced the prisoner to pay costs of prosecution, a fine of $1, and undergo an imprisonment of solitary confinement and at hard labor for a period of one year and eight months in the Western Penitentiary.

Com. vs. John Cannon.—Rape. True bill. Cause tried. Verdict, not guilty. The defendant in this trial was arrested on the oath of a girl, aged about fifteen years, for violating her person near the public road, a short distance north of this place.

QUARTER SESSIONS.

Com. vs. Wm. Ardrey, James Ardrey, and Wm. Patterson.—Riot. Cause tried. Verdict, guilty in manner and form as set forth in the first count of the indictment. Sentence: the defendants to pay costs of prosecution, and each to pay a fine of $10, and to remain in custody of the Sheriff until sentence is complied with. The above defendants, it seems, in a riotous and boisterous manner deterred several persons from going to the polls and voting at the last October election, and hence the prosecution.

Com. vs. Adam Moyer.—Larceny. True bill. Nolle prosequi entered.

Com. vs. Thomas Ralston.—Larceny. True bill. Nolle prosequi entered.

Com. vs. John Barber.—Larceny of a horse. Cause tried. Verdict, guilty in manner and form as indicted. Sentence: to pay costs of prosecution, a fine of $5, and undergo an imprisonment of solitary confinement and at hard labor for a period of four years in the Western Penitentiary.

Com. vs. James Lee.—Larceny. Bill ignored, and prisoner discharged.

Com. vs. David Henderson.—Burglary. Bill ignored and, prisoner discharged. This defendant was arrested on suspicion of being the person who broke into Mrs. Welsh's store, and stole therefrom about $300 worth of goods.

Com. vs. Charles Kauffman.—Obtaining money under false pretenses. True bill. Cause tried. Verdict, guilty in manner and form as indicted. Sentence: to pay costs of prosecution, a fine of $5, and undergo an imprisonment of solitary confinement and at hard labor for a period of one year in the Western Penitentiary.

This defendant had insinuated himself into the good graces of a young lady, and obtained her consent of marriage, and under pretense of purchasing her wedding clothes, he induced her to place $20 in his possession for that purpose, but the goods were never produced. Upon the trial it appeared that he had a wife living near Hollidaysburg, after having taken an oath before Father Tracy, the Catholic priest, in this place, that he was a single man. A report is also current, since the trial, that, but a short time ago, he was married to a young lady in Jefferson county. If so, he deserves a much greater punishment than that imposed upon him by Judge Linn.

Com. vs. James Huff and Wm. Fisher.—Assault and battery. Bill ignored, and the prosecutor, George B. Logan, directed to pay the costs of suit.

Com. vs. A. S. Dickinson.—Assault and battery. Bill ignored, and the prosecutor, John Leonard, directed to pay the costs of suit.

Com. vs. John Appleton.—Malicious mischief. True bill. Cause tried. Verdict, guilty. Sentence: to pay costs of prosecution, a fine of $5, and give bail to keep the peace for one year.

Com. vs. John Holt.—Larceny. True bill. Plead guilty, and directed to be taken to the House of Refuge.

Com. vs. James A. Bloom and Mary A. Bloom.—Assault and Battery. Bill ignored, and the prosecutor, Margaret Robins, directed to pay costs of suit.

Com. vs. G. W. Robins, Lewis Robins, and Margaret Robins.—Malicious mischief. Bill ignored, and the prosecutor, James A. Bloom, directed to pay costs of suit.

Com. vs. Frank Sandford.—Larceny. True bill. Plead guilty, and sentenced to pay costs of prosecution, a fine of $5, and undergo an imprisonment of one year and eight months in the Western Penitentiary. He confessed to having taken $30 from Thomas White, of Karthaus township, but said he had intended to return the amount as soon as able. He was from the State of New York.

Com. vs. Peter Moyer.—Assault and battery. Bill ignored, and the prosecutor, Henry Groe, directed to pay costs of suit.

Com. vs. John Wilson.—Assault and battery, with intent to kill. True bill. Cause tried. Verdict, guilty in manner and form as indicted. Sentence: to pay costs of prosecution, a fine of $5, and undergo an imprisonment of eight months in the county jail. The parties in this trial were negroes, between whom a fight occurred, a short time ago, during which the defendant cut Ed. Williams, the prosecutor, on the head and arm with a razor. The Court, after hearing the prisoners' statement, made the sentence as light as possible, under the verdict.

Com. vs. Noah Farwell.—Bill ignored, and prisoner discharged.

ROAD MATTERS.

Petitions.—For a road from Germain School House, in Morris township, to Moshannon creek, near the mouth of Black Moshannon. Viewers: George Hoover, J. N. Fulmer, James Hughes.

To vacate and supply a road from Becaria Mills, to Abraham Matthew's, in Becaria township. Viewers: H. B. Wright, Wm. Cree, G. G. Dewitt.

Confirmed Absolutely.—To vacate road from Coal Run to Pike, near Rockton.

Confirmed N. S.—A private road from C. F. Heichel's to road leading to C. & F. Schnarr's Mill, in Karthaus township.

A road from Dressler's Saw-mill to intersect road leading from Huston to Rockton, in Union township.

A road from Robert Litz's farm to intersect road leading to Clearfield borough.

A road from near Merrell's field to Catholic Cemetery in Lawrence township.

A road from Moshannon creek to intersect the Goss settlement road, and to vacate the roads from Phillipsburg bridge to Levers' farm and Stone Quarry near Steiner's Mill.

Continued.—The petition for a road from Henderson's store to Lingle's coal mines, in Decatur township.

Not Granted.—The road from J. S. Oswald's to public road near W. Zeigler's in Brady township.

Supervisors.—The Court appointed Lemuel Beyers, Joseph L. Neff, and Matthew Irwin, supervisors of Burnside township.

Correspondence.

CLARION, Pa., June 24th, 1867.
S. J. Row: Editor "Raftsman's Journal."—Allow me, through the columns of your paper, to say a few words on the subject of "The Junior Sons of America."

Now, to those who intentionally endeavor to prevent young men from joining our order, we would say, meditate upon your action. Do you wish your son to have a perfect knowledge of the system of a Republican form of Government? Is it against your desire that he should have a feeling of patriotism enkindled within him? Are you opposed to his gaining a knowledge of the social and moral rules by which an intelligent people are governed? Our object is, "the training of young men to those habits of well regulated freedom that will add dignity to that model of true nobility, the American man." We have been stigmatized as a political order, but we hurl the falsehood back to their teeth. We are an order of American youths, not partisans. Questions of a political nature are forbidden to be brought before the Camp. Does this, then, seem political? The Clearfield Republican, of June 20th, in a miniature editorial, makes assertions, as false in their origin, as they are base and slanderous of our order. The editor of that organ is either ignorant concerning the object of the Junior Sons, or basely tampers with facts. The order was organized December 10th, 1847, and has been in existence almost 20 years. When was the Know Nothing order organized? Seven years after. Is this order, then, a mere rebash of the Know Nothing's, when we date back seven years before they came into existence? We are organizing everywhere; not only in Democratic countries. The Editor should know facts before he brands any order; and such are facts which I have stated. All we ask is, "that truth from error you discern."

Respectfully,
M. OF F. & C. W. C. No. 77, P. O. J. S. of A.

When the Supreme Court, in the Maryland case, decided that Congress had constitutional authority to create a National Bank, President Jackson, and the whole Democratic party after him, derided the idea that the decision bound the coordinate departments of the government. The Democratic rule was that the Supreme Court could only bind parties before its litigants. Now, the Democrats seek to elevate the President into an Autocrat, whose rescript can abrogate a law passed by the chambers.

Senator Henderson, of Missouri, has been on an excursion to the plains out West, and taken especial care to investigate the Indian outrages. He says that the troubles have not been half so serious as reported, and attributes the difficulties to the dealings of unprincipled traders. Mr. Henderson is chairman of the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, and his statement will have some weight in putting poor "Lo" right on the record.

An Illinois farmer recently went to Indiana, commenced proceedings for a divorce, and returning home lived with his wife as usual. In due time, he received a copy of the decree in divorce, which he put in his pocket for future use. But the wife soon heard of it from another source, and leaving him procured a copy of the Indiana record, and sued her husband for alimony.

Why is the fact of your having some weighty matter in the hands of a lawyer like traveling in the backwoods? Because you are a long time coming to a settlement.

The Winsted (Ct.) Herald says the latest style of bonnets "have a downward slope that reminds one of a vicious cow with a board across her eyes."

The Union men carried Greenville, Tenn., Andy Johnson's own home, at an election last week.

The mortgage stamps on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad, cost $9,000.
