RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Sombower in the Baptist church in the morning; By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening; By Rev. Guver in the Methodist church, in the afternoon; By Rev. Harrison in the Lutheran church, in the morning; By Rev. Archer in the Court House, morning and evening.

READ the notice headed "Proposals," in another column of this paper.

The Clinton Democrat has been enlarged to an eight column paper, and makes quite a neat appearance.

The Waverly Magazine, Frank Leslie's Illustrated News, Gleason, Harper's Weekly, and other literary Magazines to be had at the Post Office.

The Clinton Republican has been enlarged to an eight column paper. The Republican is a live paper and deserves a liberal support from its party friends.

SCIDEN DEATH.—We are informed that, on July 4th, Mr. Jacob Hubler, of Graham township, suddenly fell dead whilst at work in a field. He was in the 67th year of his age.

FOTNR.—A sheep-bell was found, several days ago, in the corn-field of Jas. L. Leavy, a short distance east of this place. The owner can have the bell by calling at this office and giving a description of it, and paying for this notice.

W. J. GEISSINGER, Special Agent of the North America Life Insurance Company, is now in this place, and will attend to issuing policies when called upon, and give such information as may be required on the subject of Life Insurance. Read the advertisement in another column.

THE SHOW.—Whitby & Co's consolidated shows, menagerie and circus, will give two exhibitions—afternoon and evening—at this place, on Thursday, July 11th. This claims to be the most extensive exhibition in the world, being composed of a most brilliant corps of actors, a large number of rare and curious animals, interesting birds, and large and small reptiles. The whole exhibition promises to be a rare treat.

APPOINTMENTS.—We clip the following paragraph from the Bristol (Tennessee) News, of June 27th: "The Postmaster General has appointed W. R. Wilson, of Baltimore, Route Agent on the Virginia & Tennessee Railroad, vice L. L. Tate, promoted. Mr. Tate has been appointed postal railway clerk, on the line from Washington to Richmond, with an increased salary. We congratulate friend Tate upon his promotion, regretting, however, that it takes him to another field of labor."

HYDROPHOBIA.—An exchange paper says: Now that the "heated term" is near at hand, and an occasional mad dog may be expected, the following cure for hydrophobia will be appropriate. "Spirits of hartshorn is a certain remedy for the bite of a mad dog. The wound should be bathed constantly with it, and three or four doses, diluted, taken inwardly during the day. The hartshorn decomposes chemically the virus insinuated into the wound, and immediately sters and destroys its deleteriousness."

WE HAVE received the new catalogue and circular of the State Normal School at Edinboro. We are glad to see it improves from year to year. Several years ago we said we thought it one of the best schools in the State, and we think it has since steadily increased its reputation and efficiency. In all points which make a first class school it is unsurpassed. All persons who intend to teach should send for its circular. Address the principal, Prof. J. A. Cooper, Edinboro, Erie co., Pa.—Erie Daily Dispatch.

THE CANADA THISTLE.—In some sections of the country this "pest" has become so formidable that several of the State Legislatures have lately enacted laws to facilitate its destruction and eradication. In our own Legislature, it will be remembered, some five years ago, there was a similar law passed against this vilest of all encumbrances of a farm—mortgages scarcely excepted. This law provides, in effect, that:

"Hereafter any individual or corporation owning the Canada Thistle to ripen seed on his or their premises, shall be liable to a fine of ten dollars upon each complaint that is properly established; and any one who may fear the spread of the Canada Thistle upon his premises from the lands of his careless or thoughtless neighbor, may, after five days' notice, enter upon any lands where the weed is found growing, cut it, and recover full costs for the labor and trouble."

This is to the point, and in order that farmers may know it, the newspapers throughout the State should republish the law or this article. If the people of Pennsylvania could see to what a formidable extent this pest has taken possession of several of the interior counties of New York, say Schoharie for instance, they would fly to arms against it as they would against an invading army.

Gen. Custer has been heard from. His reported death is not true.

A COLD BLOODED MURDER.—The Indiana Register gives the following account of the murder of John Bowers, of that county, on July 1st:

"One of the most cold-blooded murders which we have been called on to record, was committed on Monday morning, July 1st, at about 8 o'clock, in Canoe tp., this county, in the vicinity of Washington, and near the Jefferson county line. The murderer, Nicholas Van Devinder, is a man of 59 years of age, tall, straight and stalwart, and has always borne a blameless reputation, so far as we can learn. John Bowers, the murdered man, was a son-in-law of Van Devinder, aged some 30 or 35 years. The circumstances of the murder, as we learn them, are about these: Van Devinder has two daughters, married respectively to John Bowers and Eli Miller. Several years ago he divided his estate, giving to Bowers the homestead farm, horses and farm implements, with the understanding that Bowers was to provide for and keep Van Devinder and his wife. From time to time Mr. Van Devinder continued to give various articles to each of his sons-in-law; and Bowers, becoming somewhat envious, found fault that he did not get all, or nearly all of what the old man had to bestow. This feeling having once possessed Bowers, he began to misuse his father-in-law, exacting from him conditions and acts which the old man could not, and would not submit to. This state of affairs continued for a long time, until Van Devinder felt that he could not stand it any longer, and he resolved to bring it to an end in a summary manner. Accordingly, on Monday morning, as stated, when Bowers and his two boys, the eldest about 11 years old, had gone to the field to plow and work his corn, the old man took his rifle and followed after, and secreted himself behind the fence to await a favorable opportunity. In a short time Bowers passed the point where he was lying, and had got nearly opposite to him, when he took deliberate aim with the rifle and fired, the ball taking effect in the side just about the lower ribs. Bowers moved a few steps and fell dead, without having uttered a cry. The boys, startled by the report of the rifle, saw their father fall, and their grandfather get up and hasten away. The lads raised the alarm as soon as they could realize the condition of affairs. The neighbors gathered to the scene, shocked and horror-stricken. In the meantime Van Devinder packed a few clothes into a pair of saddle bags, and started afoot to flee the vicinity. About noon, Mr. Samuel Neal started in pursuit, and tracked the fugitive to Plumville, a distance of upwards of twenty miles, where he overtook him, and after procuring a warrant, and securing the services of constable Thomas H. Wyncoop, had Van Devinder arrested, and immediately conveyed him to this place and committed him to jail."

Some workmen digging a cellar, in Polk township, Monroe county, Indiana, struck upon a subterranean chamber with a six-foot ceiling, and eighteen by twenty-five feet within the walls, which are solid, neatly-seamed stone work. Ranged in rows, on rudely constructed platforms, were twelve skeletons, each with tomahawk and arrow-head at their sides, ear rings and bracelets of solid silver, lying where they dropped, and piles of what appeared to have been furs in the centre of the platform, each pile crumbling to dust as soon as exposed to the light. A number of tools made of copper, and hardened equal to the best cast steel, were also unearthed, and fresh discoveries are being constantly made.

An individual named John Long applied to the Mayor of Harrisburg, on Saturday, for power to secure possession of his wife. It transpired that Long had been serving the State four years in the Penitentiary for robbery, and his wife hearing that he had died in prison married a second time, and was content to live with her second husband. The Mayor decided that John had disfranchised himself by his four years' service as a felon.

It is said that during the siege of Queretaro the women of the city carried food and drink to the soldiers in the trenches, at the peril of their lives. Many thus fell victims to their conjugal devotion. One was shot through the breast by a bullet, which likewise killed the infant, strapped to her breast. A second had her head taken off by a round shot. A third was killed by a bullet in the plaza.

Another Fenian outbreak in Ireland is anticipated. It is a pity that the brave people of that land will persist in insane attempts to free their country when there can not be the slightest hope for success. Such movements only bring disaster upon themselves and make them even more miserable.

In a report of one of the late speeches of Secretary Seward in Boston he was made to say that when the President has served four years the people "can turn him out and put in a saucer-pan they like better." "Saucer-pan" turned out to be a misprint for "successor."

About forty foreigners and ex-confederates held an informal meeting in Washington on the 7th. They propose to raise a company of one hundred picked men to proceed to Mexico and avenge Maximilian's tragic death.

Five hundred of Maximilian's Legion of Honor arrived on Sunday at Mobile from Vera Cruz. It is said that they will be mustered out of the service in that city.

Miss Craig has sued a Chicago merchant for $100,000 damages for breach of promise. Nobody can say her figure is a poor one.

It is estimated by the Agricultural Department statisticians that the wheat crop will aggregate two billions of bushels.

The Austrian Minister has declared that his government will have Maximilian's body, or declare war upon Mexico.

Indianapolis is the Paradise of bricklayers. They get five dollars and a half per day.

LATEST FASHIONS DEMAND J. W. Bradley's REGISTERED PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (OR DOUBLE SPRING) SKIRT. The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded assemblies, operas, arrangements, railroad cars, church pews, arm chairs, for promenade and house dress, as the skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small space as easily and conveniently as a silk or muslin dress, an invaluable quality in crinolines, not found in any single spring skirt. A lady having enjoyed the pleasure, comfort, and great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic steel spring skirt for a single day, will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For children, misses and young ladies, they are superior to all others. They will not bend or break like the single spring, but will preserve their perfect and graceful shape when three or four ordinary skirts will have been thrown aside as useless. The hoops are covered with double and twisted thread, and the bottom rods are not only double springs, but covered with a silk or muslin dress, preventing them from wearing out when dragging over the steps of stairs. The Duplex Elliptic is a great favorite with all ladies and is universally recommended by the Fashion Magazines as the standard skirt of the fashionable world. To enjoy the following inestimable advantages in crinolines, viz: superior quality, perfect manufacture, stylish shape and finish, flexibility, durability, comfort and economy, enquire for J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic or Double Spring Skirt, and be sure you get the genuine article. CAUTION.—To guard against imposition be particular to notice that skirts offered as "Duplex" have the red ink stamp, viz: "J. W. Bradley's Duplex Elliptic Steel Springs," upon the waistband—none others are genuine. Also notice that every hoop will admit a pin being passed through the centre, thus revealing the two (or double) springs braided together therein, which is the secret of their flexibility and strength, and a combination not to be found in any other skirt. For sale in all stores where first class skirts are sold throughout the United States and elsewhere. Manufactured by the sole owners of the Patent, WESTS, BRADLEY & CARL, 97 Chambers & 79 & 81 Reade Sts., N. Y. May 1st, 1867-3m.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered for several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and all Throat and Lung affections. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Parties wishing the prescription, and general information, will address REV. EDWARD A. WILSON, No. 15, 157 1/2 ly. WILMINGTON, Kings co. N. Y.

A GREAT DISCOVERY.—One of the greatest and most useful discoveries in medical science was made by the celebrated Dr. J. Dumas, of Paris, Chief Physician to the Imperial Infirmary of France, in 1851. Those who have been afflicted with the painful disease known as the Phlegm, and effectually cured by the use of Dr. Dumas' Phlegm Remedy, cannot speak too highly of the benefits conferred upon them by the use of this certain remedy. It has never been known to fail in effecting a permanent cure in a single case. In this respect it surpasses all other medicinal agents. It will do just what it is recommended for, if not the money will be refunded. One or two boxes is sufficient to effect a permanent cure in four or six days, if the directions on the box are followed. Price one and two dollars per box, according to the quantity by Mail or Express to any part of the United States or Canada. Sold by Druggists generally. A liberal discount made to the trade. Address, S. H. HATHAM & CO., Williamsport Pa., sole Proprietors and Manufacturers for the United States and Canada. $500.00 REWARD will be paid in greenbacks to any person who has used Dr. Dumas' Phlegm Remedy according to directions and has not been cured. Address, S. H. HATHAM & CO., Williamsport Pa., Dec. 5th, 1866-ly.
