TO MY HUSBAND.

How calm and beautful the night, How sweet the moonbeams play ! And yet, 'tis but a weary close, Of a long and lonely day. And though the rippling wave is bright With many a gleaming star,

It hath no power to soothe to-night, For thou, love, art afar.

Tis but this morn we said good-by, I scarce concealed my tears, Yet, looking back, it almost seems The hours have grown to years; For when I m lingering by thy side, So sweet the moments fly, I searcely deem an hour is past, When all the day's gone by !

Yes, thou art absent-weary thought ! Yet seemest present still ; And every passing footstep makes My pulses wildly thrill. I hear thy voice in every sound, Thy blue eyes on me shine, I feel thy breathing on my cheek, Thine arms around me twine. O love ! O life ! O all that makes This world a heaven to me! Haste back to ber who hath no thought But how to live for thee.

Come to our own beloved home, Where never enters strife, And crown with joy unspeakable, Thy loving little wife.

Annoying and Fashionable Accident-A Young Lady Falls Through a Buggy.

One of the annoying, yet ludicrous accidents, which will happen in the best of families, occured on Sunday, not over a thousand miles from the city. A dry goods clerk had an engagement to take his lady love a buggy riding. Early in the morning he appeared before her father's door with one of those spider-like vehicles which are probably constructed with a view of ascertaining how light a buggy can be made, and at the same time be serviceable.

As the young centleman drove up, his lady love Salve according to directions and has not been cured Address, D. S. DUNHAM & CO., Wil liamsport, Pa. Dec. 5th, 1866.-1y. was standing on the top step of the front door, with her venerable father, who had his gold spees elevated on his forehead in MANHOOD : HOW LOST, HOW RE-STORED. Just Published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure order to get a distant view of his future son-in-law. Adonis jumped out of the buggy prepared to assist the young lady in, but she suddenly took one of those strange (without medicine) of Spermatorrhea, or seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impoten freaks to which the dear sex are all subject. The buggy was standing about four feet from the steps and considerably below the cy, Mental and physical incapacity. Impediments to marriage, etc.; also consumption epilepsy, and fits induced by self indulgence or sexual steps upon which stood the young lady. She probably wanted to convince her lover that she was not clumsy if she was fat, and thought this would be a good time to show him her agility. Be that as it may, she gave a jump and landed in the centre of the buggy. If she had stopped there all would have been well, but alas! the thin boards of the bottom of the buggy, unable to stand the pressure, gave way, and the young lady continued her descent. There was a piercing scream; a plunging horse with a young man holding to him, a bundle of muslin in the buggy and two little gaiter boots pointing to within six inches of the ground under it. Pater familias rushed to the rescue and detached the horse from the buggy. He then got up on one side, young man on the other, and they attempted to raise young lady up. "O, stop, stop! you are killing me." she cried. The boards had broken in the centre, and the long sharp splinters extended downwards, and when they attempted to raise the young lady out of her predicaments these sharp splinters would catch in her le-pshaw! Did you ever see a wire mouse trap? If not, go and get one, stick your finger through the entrance tunnel and try to pull it out. You will theu unwas in on Sunday morning. The old man comprehended the situation in a moment. He told the young man to get down and break the splinters off. The young lady screamed, "O, dont !" and he wouldn't. At this stage of proceedings a practical neighbor came up with a hatchet, and the young lady was soon extricated from her unpleasant situation, and disappeared behind the front door.
