CLEARFIELD, PA., AUG. 28, 1867. REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET. FOR SUPREME JUDGE, Hon. HENRY W. WILLIAMS,

OF PITTSBURG.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET. FOR ASSEMBLY, Capt. JAMES M. WELCH, of Pike. YOR SHERIPP, SANSOM B. LINGLE, of Goshen. FOR TREASURER. AETHUR BELL, of Bell. FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY, JOHN H. FULFORD, of Clearfield. FOR COMMISSIONER DAVID DRESSLER, of Union. FOR JURY COMMISSIONER. JAMES GLENN, of Ferguson. FOR AUDITOR, JAMES IRWIN. Sr., of Lawrence. FOR CORONER, WILLIAM R. BROWN, of Clearfield.

Sharswood and Calhoun.

We have been looking over that interesting volume called "The Ecaminer and Journal of Political Economy, Devoted to the Advancment of the Cause of State Rights and Free Trade.'

This, it will be remembered, says the Press, is the book from which the Union Republican State Committee recently copied sundry proceedings of a State-rights meeting, including part of George Sharswood's oration and some of the toasts given on the occasion. This meeting was held in the Commissioners' Hall, in the Northern Liberties, Philadelphia, the next year after the attempted nullification by South Carolina. Andrew Jackson was then President, and it was essentially an anti-Jackson meeting, as the following toasts drank on the occasion will show :

"The Executive and his servile retainers touch but a bristle of the royal prerogative. Lat that is alleged of the death and starvation them learn by the signs of the times that the people know their rights, and knowing will defend them."

The Danger of the Hour.

Repudiation is the coming danger of the hour. Right and left the Democracy are showing their hand. Under the pretence of immediate payment by a flood of greenbacks or of taxation by inimical State Governments, they are all over the country laying violent hands on the credit of the nation and sapping its foundations. The most direct manner in which repudiation can now be effected is through the courts by a series of hostile decisions against the national currency and securities. Nothing can be done brough Congress and the State Legislatures as long as they are controlled by large Union majorities. But to the courts we must look. They must be guarded with watchful fidelity. The best safeguard is to fill them with lawyers who honestly and conscientiously believe that our Government currency is constitutional. A lawyer who honestly and conscientiously believes our notes or bonds, or any of them, to be unconstitutional, is at least a questionable candi date at such a crisis. Credit is a flower of tco tender bloom to be tampered with. We can afford to run no risks in this matter, and we cannot too easily take alarm.

OPINION OF GEN. POPE .- The letter of General Pope to General Grant, describing the progress of reconstruction in Georgia, Alabama, and Florida, says: The party which is in accord with the Northern Democracy "are bitterly opposed to reconstruction under the acts of Congress; opposed 'in fact to any reconstruction whatever except such as would leave them in precisely the same political condition as if there 'had been no rebellion and no war.' Their only reliance for this restoration is a revulsion in Northern sentiment, and to the efforts of their allies in the loyal States they look for a return of the period when they can rule the nation they struggled so desperately to ruin, when they can command the armies they strove in vain to conquer, when they can control the great national interests they endeavored to destroy, and guide the destinies of the Republic which withstood their vindictive assaults.

The Baltimore American says: The ans nouncement that the committee has discovered something which implicates the Rebel of Maryland in the assassination conspiracy, has produced quite a sensation in this community, and those who sympathized with treason already wriggle and squirm. But for our part the news only proclaims that there is tangible proof of what we always believed. Ever since we read the evidence taken in the trial of the assassins we have thought that there were large numbers of men in this State who have a share in Booth's evil speculation.

A Republican Congressional committee is now sitting to investigate the horrors of Andersonville, Libby, Belle Isle, Millen, and the other rebel prison pens, and to prove and publish to the world the habitual violation of the laws of nations practiced by the rebel government. At the same time the Democratic papers of Pennsylvania are laboring to show that these murder pens were rather pleasant kind of places; that no one

Sharswood vs. Jackson.

In his famous proclamation against the South Carolina Nullifiers in December, 1832, General Jackson said :

"I consider, then, the power to annul law of the United States, assumed by one State, incompatible with the existence of the Union, contradicted expressly by the letter of the Constitution, unauthorized by its spirit, inconsistent with every principle on which it was founded, and destructive of the great object for which it was formed." This was in 1832. Many yet living remember how the country rocked with excitement and trembled with alarm at the audacious pretensions and the treasonable measures of John C. Calhoun and his followers; and they remember how all parties exulted when Jackson crushed that incipient treason under his heel. Democrats and Whigs clasped hands and united their voices in support of the brave old man and his proclamtion.

But there was, even in Pennsylvania, a small band of politicians who drew their inspiration, not from Jefferson or Jackson, but from John C. Calhoun, and of this small band was Judge Sharswood, now a candidate for the Supreme Judgship. After nullification was crushed he remained the same, and in an oration delivered in April, 1834, he re-affirmed the cardinal doctrine of nullification, sccession and rebellion in the following emphatic terms :

'We come back to our starting place, and finding nothing in the Constitution establishing any final judge of the enumerated powers, prohibitions, and reserved rights, it must rest upon the admitted principles of general law, in cases of compact between parties having no common superior. Each State has the right to judge for itself of the compact, and to choose for itself the most proper and efficient remedies."

Is it safe at a time like this to entrust supreme judicial powers to a man who entertains such opinions as these? We grant that he may hold them honestly and sincerely; but the more honestly and sincerely they are entertained the more dangerous they are. Jackson was honest and sincere in his opposition to such views, and his honesty, more than anything else, gave him power to put those down who attempted in 1832 to carry them into practice; and had Jackson been where Buchanan was in 1860 we should have had no rebellion.

GRANT ON STANTON. - The journals which, in refering to the recent change in the War Department, in one breath laud General Grant and in the next denounce Edwin M. Stanton, should remember that in the letter in which the former announced to the latter his acceptance of the position occured the following paragraph;

In notifying you of my acceptance, 1 cannot let the opportunity pass without expressing to you my appreciation of the zeal patriotism, firmness, and ability with which you have discharged the duties of Secretary of War.

This was an emphatic blow at Old Hickory and his friends, but not more so than the ninth regular toast on the occasion, which was as follows:

"The Proclamation-it bears no semblance to the Creed of Jefferson.

This referred to the celebrated proclamation of President Jackson, in which he warned the nullifiers to desist from their treasonable practices, to abandon their State-rights heresies, and to submit to the laws of the United States.

George Sharswood figured largely at this meeting. As "the orator of the day," he delivered a lengthy eulogy on the Virginia and Kentucky resolutions of 1798 and 1799. He was one of the vice presidents of the meeting, and he was also one of the committee on invited guests. In this latter capacity he invited John C. Calhoun to be present on the occasion. This distinguished free trader and nullifier could not attend, but sent a letter of regret, enclosing a sentiment glorifying "the Virginia and Kentucky resolutions as the rock of our political salvations."

THE TENNESSEE ELECTION. -Full returns shows that the Republicans have not only elected all their eight members of Congress, but every State Senator and Representative in the Legislature but three, while Governor Brownlow's majority is nearly or quite 50,-000. The Republicans not only had a majority of some 35,000 of the colored vote, but they had not less than 15,000 majority of the white vote. In East Tennessee, which was loyal to the Union all through the war, and where there is a comparatively small refuse to recognize or praise Andrew Johncolored population, the vote was well nigh unanimous for the Republicans. For instance, in Cumberland county, the Knoxville Whig states that there were but five colored votes altogether, yet the vote stood, for Brownlow 250, for Ethridge (Democratic), 4: and it is substantially the same in all that loyal region of the State. The Whig exultingly remarks that never was a party so overwhelmingly defeated as the Conservatives since the formation of parties at the crossing of the Red Sea!

FOREST COUNTY .- The Republicans of Forest county have nominated the following ing ticket: For Assembly (subject to decision of conferees,) F. E. Allison; Associate Judge, John A. Dale ; Commissioner, Wm Fleming; District Attorney, W. E. Lathy; Auditor, H. H. Stowe; Coroner, Dr. W. F. Hunter.

Arthur Wellesley conquered the most formidable enemy that Great Britain ever cn. countered, and a grateful Government made him a duke, gave him a splendid fortune and covered him with honors all the rest of his life. Phil. Sheridan beat the most dangerous enemy of the American Republic, and his Government disgraces him in the hour of his triumph, andstrikes off the laurels in the first blush of victory. Shall republics always be ungrateful?

The other day, as a bank messenger was passing through Pine street, New York, with a bag of coin upon his shoulder, some scamp cut the bag open behind, letting the gold fall in profusion to the pavement. Copperhead county nominating conventions, as usual in their strongholds throughout Pennsylvania, are repudiating the sol dier; and what is singular, the same bodies son. They only want to use him, not praise him, for mercenary purposes.

MORE REMOVALS. - By late advices from Washington, we learn that Gen. Sickles has been removed from the Carolina districts, and Gen. Canby appointed in his place. Gen. Hancock has been ordered to the Fifth district, and Gen. Sheridan to Kansas. The correspondence between Gen. Grant and the President, relating to the removal of Gen. Sheridan has been published, in which Grant strongly protests against the change. We will give the correspondence next week.

A FIGHT WITH INDIANS.-Capt. Ames, with 125 men, had a severe fight with 800 Indians, at their village on Republican river. The fight lasted three hours, when Captain Ames was compelled to retreat and leave his dead in the hands of the enemy. Three of Capt. Ames' men were killed, twentyfive wounded, and thirty horses were lost. The Indian loss was heavy. Reinforcements have been sent forward, and another desperate battle is expected.

CABINET CHANGES.-Every member of the Cabinet, except Stanbery, has intimated his willingness to the President to resign. and will formally write out their resignations. if solicited. It is said the resignations of Seward, Browning, Welles, and Randall will be accepted by the President, while he will retain M'Culloch and Stanbery in the Cabinet.

There are again symptoms of an imminent insurrection in various parts of Spain, and the Government therefore has declared a state of siege in every Province. The Despotism of the Queen has collected a vast amount of explosive material, and it is not probable that the explosion can be staved off much longer.

The new submarine cable from Key West to Havana, just laid a day or two, signalizes its opening by the transmission of the news from Mexico of the election of Juarez and a Liberal Congress.
