CLEARFIELD, PA., AUGUST 28, 1867.

SHARSWOOD ON LEGAL TENDERS. Extract from His Opinion in the Case of Borie va. Trott.

"On the whole, then, I am of opinion that the provision of the act of Congress of February 25th, 1862, declaring the notes is-sued in pursuance of that act to be lawful money, and a legal tender, is unconstitu-

"This renders it unnecessary that I should consider the other question which has been made, as to the effect of the special agreement to pay in lawful silver money of the United States. I am in favor of entering judgment for the plaintiff, but as a majority of the court are of a different opinion, judgment for the defendant."—Copied from the Philadelphia Age of February 23, 1864, where the opinion is published in full.

It may also be found in the Legal Intelligencer of March 18, 1864, page 92.

In the same copy of the Age is a carefully prepared eulogy of the Judge and this opinion, in which is the following:

"Judge Sharswood reasons upon and decides the case as if he were some lofty spirit sitting far above and out of the contentions and strifes of the world.'

Will not the holders of greenbacks and Government bonds consider the judge as quite too elevated and etherial for such earthly honors as a seat on the Supreme

A young lady refused to go into the Waterville Arsenal the other day, because she had heard that some of the muskets were without breeches. She viewed the arsenal from a distance.
