RELIGIOUS. - Divine services will be held gext Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Sembower in the Baptist church By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening.

By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the afternoon. By Rev. Archer in the Court House, morning and evening.

NOTICE.-Dr. A. M. Hills desires us to say to his patrons that he will be absent from his office during the month of Sept.

Lost-on Friday evening last, a ladies small white lava breast-pin, set in gold. The finder will be suitably rewarded upon leaving the pin at this office. A SERMON to young men will be preached in the Court House on Sunday evening next. September 8th. The community generally, and young men especially, are invited to There are only three hundred thousand ARM BROKE -On Saturday last, August 31st. Westley Miller, of Bradford township, had had his right arm broke by being accidentally kicked by a horse which he was driving in a wagon.

TURNED UP .- We are told that Mr. Le Roy, who was missing and supposed to be drowned in the Moshamon creek, an account of which we gave last week, has turned up at Lock Haven, alive and wellhe having wandered away from Philipsburg | Southern press. when under a temporary mental abstraction, at the time he was missing.

ACADEMY COMMENCEMENT.-The next session of this institution will open on Monday next, September 9th. We hope that all will avail themselves of this opportunity education. Rev. Harrison is one of the best teachers in the State, and will render entire satisf ction to patrons.

WASHING MADE EASY .- On Tuesday ast we witnessed the operation of washing lothes in an "Improved Swinging Wash Tub." The advantages claimed in washwoman can wash about as many clothes in with open arms invites, and bids you come. five minutes with it, as she can in an hour O, let us tread the narrow path, while light in the usual way. 2d, That there is less wear and tear on the clothes than on a common board. 3d. That it will wash cleaner than can be done by hand. David B. Ream has purchased the right to make and sell these machines in Clearfield county, and will be in Clearfield during the coming Court week, when all will be afforded an opportunity of examining the "tub" and witnessing its operations. Township rights can be had upon application.

THE EXECUTION OF CHASE. - Charles chase, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Elizabeth M'Donald, in Jefferson county, was executed at Brookville, on Wednesday, August 28th. Before leaving the cell he expressed himself happy, and ready to suffer for his crimes and to atone to the offended law for the terrible deed for which he stood convicted-relying on the merits of a Divine Saviour for everlasting life and peace. The parting between Chase and his relatives is described as heart-rending, after which he was led forth to the place of exeention. On taking a seat on the scaffold, he said:

"Gentlemen, I have a few words to say to you. I am uneducated, and I wish to correct a wrong impression that is existing in the minds of some of the people of this place. They say the religion I have now was forced upon me, but it was not. The young lady who came to my cell has saved me from hell, and if it had not been for her I would have been lost. I am innocent of the crime which is alleged I committed, and I die an innocent man; if I am not, I hope to be damned. The next time a stranger comes to your town give him a chance for his life and do not seek after his life. I had good instruction until I was about fourteen years of age. You think, gentlemen, this is hard, but look at what our poor soldiers endured. I die forgiving all against whom have any enmity with, and have prayed for them. Gentlemen, I want your prayers en my behalf, and I hope to meet you all in Heaven. Again, gentlemen, I say I am in-nocent of the murder for which I am about to suffer." ARTHORY

At 1:15 Chase arose and took down the noose from its support on one of the uprights of the scaffold, tried it a little, and then knelt in prayer with his confessor, Father J. Coke, of the Catholic Church. After prayer was ended, he stepped on the drop. The noose was then placed over him, a black cap drawn over his face, the fatal spring touched, and the victim fell to the ground—the noose not having been properly adjusted. At 2:18 the drop again fell, this time successfully, and in a few minutes the body hung motionless - his neck being broken in the fall. After being suspended half an hour, the body was taken down and placed in a coffin, and delivered to his relatives for interment. His body was buried near where his father resides, in Decatur township, this county. The same that friend in the country sent Mr. J. S. Nixon. of Chambersburg, fifteen snake eggs, which were thrown into an open box under the counter in his store, and were forgotten for some days, when, attention being called to them, Mr. Nixon found the eggs beginning to open, and during the day nine copperhead snakes, about six inches in length, came out of some of the eggs. True to the instincts of nature, as soon as their heads appeared outside of the shell, they stuck out their fangs and showed fight.

The Seventh Jubilee of the Reformation will be observed in the Lutheran and several other Protestant Churches, on the 31st of October next. Preparations for a great celebration are already being made in many places. It is an event worthy the observation of all Protestants. These three handred and fifty years of liberal progressive Christianity in the world have wrought wonders. Let glorious old Martin Luther be remembered for his courage in nailing the ninety-five Theses on the door of the castle church ot Whittemberg on the 31st of October, 1517.

The managing agent of the Grand Masonic Gift Concert Lottery of New York has been arrested on a charge of keeping a lottery office. The order, in its National Council recently held, denounced the use of any such measures to pecuniarily aid any Lodge, and the breaking up of the scheme will give satisfaction to the Masons throughout the country.

The public will be pained to learn of the escape of Duncan, the Commissary to the monster Wirz, of Andersonville prison. He succeeded in making his way out of Fort Pulaski, where he was serving a term of fifteen years imprisonment, and has gone to Europe. Justice is sorely cheated of its dues in this instance.

It is unmanly, it is little less than mean, for the Democrats to be fishing for help from the seceded States, when they failed to give them even the help they promised in their secession. This is the view of the case, at least, which is taken by some of the more rebellious and "honorable" of the

So long as Sheridan remains in power, he does his duty. He has removed a number of civil officers in Galveston for disloyalty. If Mr. Johnson would let him alone Texas would soon be wholly governed by men who are true to the Union.
