

RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., SEPT. 4, 1867.

SHARWOOD ON LEGAL TENDERS.

Extract from His Opinion in the Case of Borie vs. Trott.

"On the whole, then, I am of opinion that the provision of the act of Congress of February 25th, 1862, declaring the notes issued in pursuance of that act to be lawful money, and a legal tender, is unconstitutional."

"This renders it unnecessary that I should consider the other question which has been made, as to the effect of the special agreement to pay in lawful silver money of the United States. I am in favor of entering judgment for the plaintiff, but as a majority of the court are of a different opinion, judgment for the defendant."—Copied from the Philadelphia Age of February 23, 1864, where the opinion is published in full.

It may also be found in the Legal Intelligencer of March 18, 1864, page 92.

In the same copy of the Age is a carefully prepared eulogy of the Judge and this opinion, in which is the following:

"Judge Sharwood reasons upon and decides the case, as if he were some lofty spirit sitting far above and out of the contentions and strifes of the world."

Will not the holders of greenbacks and Government bonds consider the judge as quite too elevated and ethereal for such earthly honors as a seat on the Supreme Bench.

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC. This medicine is invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, and is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before will be easily digested. Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the seaweed Tonic and three or four boxes of the Mandrake Pills will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal office in Philadelphia every week. Send me your papers of each place, or his pamphlet on consumption for his days of visitation. Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp. Sold by all druggists and dealers, retail $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen.
