RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Sembover in the Baptist church in the evening. By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening. By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the morning. By Rev. Archer in the Court House, morning and evening.

Republican Convention

GRAND RALLY! ON WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEP. 25th, AT CLEARFIELD.

In accordance with the annual custom of the Republican party, a Convention will be held at Clearfield, on Wednesday evening, the 25th, inst. A number of distinguished speakers, among them the HON. JOHN SCOTT, of Huntingdon, are expected to be present and address the meeting.

There never was a time in the history of the Government when it was more necessary for its friends to meet and take counsel together. Let all who are in favor of sustaining a loyal Congress—all who are opposed to the wretched policy of Andrew Johnson—all who are willing to follow the lead of GRANT, and SHERIDAN, and SICKLES, the noblest heroes of the war—all who desire to preserve the glorious results for which so many thousands of gallant men fought, and bled, and died, attend and contribute their share to the success of our ticket, and the triumphant election of that upright Judge, the HON. HENRY W. WILLIAMS, to the Supreme Bench. Let every loyal man arouse, shake off his lethargy, and be on the alert, remembering that while those twin demons—alcohol and treason—run riot at the White House, all his dearest rights are in peril. H. B. SWOOP, Chairman of the County Committee.

CHANGE OF FIRM.—W. M. Shaw, having purchased the interest of J. F. Rote, in the Drug store, the business will hereafter be conducted in the name of W. M. & A. I. Shaw. The new firm have made large additions to their stock, and are selling goods at reduced prices. Give them a call.

BAD ON ROACHES.—Take ten cents worth of pulverized Prussian blue, mix it with a little flour and sugar, put the mixture on a piece of paper, and then lay the paper on the floor where the roaches generally run. Try it for a week, and they will disappear. Prussian blue contains the poison that ends their depredations.

STATE FAIR.—The Penn. State Fair will be held at Pittsburg, from the 24th to the 26th of September. The premiums offered are liberal, including every department of industry, and exceed $10,000 in the aggregate. The principal railroads will issue excursion tickets, and return all articles exhibited, freight free, if they are not sold.

BURGLARY.—The store of L. M. Clarke, of Cherry-tree borough, Indiana county, was burglariously entered, on the night of August 26th, by cutting a panel out of the door, and a quantity of dry goods, boots, shoes, etc., stolen therefrom. Some of the stolen goods were afterwards found on the road leading to Indiana. The thieves have not, as yet, been discovered.

FOUND DEAD.—Mr. Samuel Peffley, aged about 60 years, of Karthaus township, was found dead on the road between Karthaus and Snow Shoe, on Friday, August 30th. He was engaged in hauling lime, and it is supposed that he was thrown from the wagon, by the sudden sinking of the wheels into a deep mud hole, and injured to such an extent as to cause immediate death.

CANCELLING STAMPS.—An exchange furnishes this piece of important information: "The only lawful manner of cancelling stamps is to either write or print on the stamp the name or initials of the party using the same, and also the year, month and day of the month. Any other manner of cancelling is illegal and makes the party liable to a fine of $50 for each offense."

PALATABLE, VERY!—The Watchman, of last week, says: "The citizens of Bellefonte should not be surprised if they find wool, hair, bristles, toe-nails, or greenbacks, in their coffee some morning, for the cows wade, the hogs wallow, the geese swim, and the town boys bathe their dirty stinking feet in the spring, from which the town is supplied with water. And we saw an ugly, greasy 'nigger wench' take her 'sun-down' from her woolly head, dip in the spring and drink from it." Rather a dirty mix, surely; but Meek seems to be particularly averse to imbibing of the flavor of a 'nigger wench' which is not always the case with Cops.

CLARION COUNTY.—On Thursday, Aug. 29th, the barn of John M. Kean, of Burrell township, was destroyed by fire, with all its contents—wheat, oats, hay, wagons, gears, etc. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

CENTRE COUNTY.—On Wednesday evening, August 28th, a son of Henry Keene, of Penn township, aged about 13 years, was driving a team of horses toward Millheim, when they took fright and ran away, throwing him from the wagon, which ran over his head, injuring him in such a manner as to cause death in less than an hour.

THE TEACHERS COUNTY INSTITUTE will be held in Curwensville, commencing on Monday, Sept. 23d, 1867, and continue one week. The law makes it a duty for teachers to attend. It is hoped Directors and friends of education generally, will be in attendance. G. W. SNYDER, County Superintendent.

THE ELECTION PROCLAMATION.—In another column will be found the "Election Proclamation" of Sheriff Faust. In our opinion, that officer has omitted one important Act of Assembly in his proclamation—the act disfranchising deserters from the military and naval service of the United States. In other counties, so far as we have noticed, that law is published by the Sheriff. Whether this omission in the publication of the proclamation in this county is a preconcerted political movement, designed to induce deserters living in other counties to emigrate hither and exercise the privilege of voting despite the law, we do not assert; but that such will be the practical result, we have no doubt. The ignoring of one plain law of the State, will lead to the violation of others—in fact, is opening wide the door to, and virtually offering a premium for, all kinds of fraud upon the ballot-box in this county. But, be this as it may, one thing is sure, that our political opponents feel that certain and overwhelming defeat is their doom on the Second Tuesday of October next, and hence they are making every effort to swell their vote to its utmost extent, by fair and foul means, and thus reduce the Republican majority in the State as much as possible. More anon.

MARRIED.—On Sunday, Sept. 1st, 1867, by James Riddle, Esq., Mr. HENRY BENNETT and Miss MARY H. JOHNSON, both of Chest township, Clearfield county.

On August 30th, 1867, at Baulch church, by Rev. D. H. Barron, of Hollidaysburg, Rev. A. H. Holloway, of Danville, N. J., and Miss F. H. McCULLY, daughter of G. W. McCully, of Gaelich township, Clearfield county, Pa.

On Thursday, Sept. 5th, by Rev. W. M. Burchfield, Mr. WM. M. SCHEMING and Miss LIZZIE BLOOM, both of Jordan twp.

ANOTHER BIG "FLOP!" WM. F. JOHNSON, : : : : J. H. BAILEY. Some two months ago it was formally announced that Pennsylvania was "Right side up." Recent events have proven the announcement premature. Another "Flop" recently occurred, and chief among the improved, "interesting, and important" phases presented, is the one portraying the NEW, LARGE, AND COMMODIOUS STORE HOUSE, OF JOHNSON & BAILEY, who have just returned from the East with a large and carefully selected stock of reasonable goods—of greater variety, and of better quality, than have heretofore been offered in this section of the county. Call at the New Store Rooms, and you will find: Dry Goods and Groceries, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes, Hardware, Queens ware, HOLLOW-WARE, Wood and Stone-ware, Drugs, Oils, Paints and Varnishes, Glass, Putty, Ready made Clothing, Clocks, Confectionary, Cheese, Flour, Fish, and Provisions generally. Our stock of Hardware will be sold at a low price, and of the best quality. Our stock of Boots and Shoes is unequalled in quality and low prices.

To the ladies we would say—we intend to make the Fashion and Dress department worthy their patronage. Articles not on hand will be specially ordered, to suit our customers. The striking feature in the "Flop," and the one we would keep before the people is, THE VERY LOW PRICES, at which we are selling. The public are invited to give us a call. Bring on your Produce, your Boards, Shingles, Grain, Pork, Butter, Eggs, Dried Apples, Rags, &c. Our motto, "CASH IS BEST." JOHNSON & BAILEY, Pennsylvania, August 28, 1867.
