A Word to Voters.

It would be a fearful, and, perhaps, a tatal error, to ignore at the coming elections, the grave issues recently raised by Andrew Johnson and his Democratic advisers. The highest interests of the country demand that predominant question, whether reconstruction shall be completed in accordance with the wishes of the loyal people of the United States, or the will of traitors, after all, prevail; whether the loyal commanders, or a treacherous Executive shall be sustained by a popular verdict at the ballot-box. The construction placed upon the Republican divisions in Maine and California should admonish every patriot that this is no time to turn aside from the true path of duty, on account of personal dislike of particular nominees, or diverse sentiments on side issues. Let every eye be turned to the imperilled banner of the Republic, and every soul nerved with the resolve to press on steadily until the nation is fully and finally rescued from the machinations of its inveterate enemies.

Where He Belongs.

The Democracy are vigorously attempting to disown Andrew Johnson, whose antics before high Heaven are now too great for explanation or defence, but it will not do. He belongs to them by virtue of his wrongdoing. Every man who commits a crime against the country is by that act a brevet Democrat. The responsibility of this fact cannot be evaded. The men who assassinated the President, who murdered provost marshals, who fled to Canada, who robbed

The Soldiers Declare for Themselves

On Saturday evening a convention of all the Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic was held in Philadelphia, and an authoritative exposition set forth which side the soldiers stand on in the battle about to be fought. They uttered no half-and-half expressions of their views; they did not tamper or tack and veer. They gave a bugle note which will ring through the ranks of all our gallant volunteers, and find a response in no exaggeration in the assertion that the the vote of Pennsylvania should be polled the hearts of those who loyally fought for purpose of Mr. Johnson is to efface the at the coming election, on the leading and that Union again in danger. The following resolution declares where they can be found :

> ture in the political history of the nation, any lack of sympathy with the party which espouses the principles to the success of which we have declared our devotion, any and ruin. We are assured on the best ausupineness on the part of individuals, any aid rendered to the party by whom those principles have been bitterly opposed, whether on the ground of personal feeling, or from other cause, or any failing to do all that may be in our power to aid in perfecting the triumph of the political party which represents us, would be alike inimical to the solemn declaration of our Order, in Convention assembled, and subversive of the great end to effect which we were called into existence: therefore, "Be it declared, as the sense of this Convention, that it is the solemn duty of every comrade of the Grand Army, of every true hearted soldier and of every other loyal voter, to devote every energy to securing such a triumph for each and every candidate of the Union Republican party as will prove to the nation that her sons who defended her in arms are ever ready, at the expense of personal considerations, to prove their continued loyalty to the cause of right. Thus the attempt of the Democracy to swallow up the soldiers, and delude them into giving their support to their party ticket, checkmated by the soldiers' exposition of the views of those who have served their country in the field. For the expression of soldiers' views, we prefer that the soldiers should speak for themselves.

disloyal, unscrupulous Democratic party, in this State, speaks as follows of Judge der to determine which is most likely to be Williams. "Happily for our cause, our friends in Pennsylvania have a noble standard-bearer in the conflict. Hon, Henry W. Williams has been long an ornament to the bar and bench of the city of Pittsburg, and the county of which it is the centre. Every patriot and lover of his country For more than a quarter of a century he should vote for Henry W. Williams, thereby has in that moral, industrious and patriotic community, which is the pride of Pennsylvania, and which also gave Edwin M. Stanton to the nation, illustrated in his life all the virtues of the Christian and the patriot. There was never a doubt as to his position on the great questions of the war. There stands on the record no decision of his as a Judge, and no action of his as a citizen, which can be possibly construed into a discouragement or an obstruction to our holy war against slavery and for the nation's life. His learning will lend a lustre to the bench to which we hope to see him elevated : his experience as judge of a district court for so many years will inspire confidence in the community at large ; his whole life is a guarantee of unsullied purity and devotion to the side of justice. Work then, friends of the great Keystone State, and of the Republic, for the man and for the great cause he worthily represents, lest after so many years of struggle and sacrifice you be found at last yielding to the enemy in the er die than run?" Cabinet, what with fire and sword he was unable to wrest from you in the field."

Shall Andrew Johnson be Indorsed. The question before the country and the one to be decided at the election is, Shall Andrew Johnson be indorsed ? Many times during the war the quest on before the country was, shall the war be prosecuted until the rebellion is put down? Happily at all times the answer was speedy, right and emphatic. At no time during the war was there more depending on the answer to the question then pending than there is on the question now put to the people. There is verdict of the war and destroy its dearbought fruits. And no man can be so blind or so obtuse as not to know that a reverse "Whereas, At the present critical june- to the Republican party at this time will be regarded by him as an indorsement by the people. Let that happen, and no man will have a right to expect anything but anarchy thority, that at no time within the last five years has Gen. Grant been exercised with such grave apprehensions as at the present moment. He sees at the head of the Goverument a desperate man, determined to defy Congress, law and public opinion. Could he know that the people, realizing the danger, would rise and crush him, those apprehensions would be dispelled. The country was slow to believe that Jefferson Davis and his fellow conspirators realy meant rebellion; and the danger now is that too little heed will be given to the warnings against the conspiracy in which Andrew Johnson, Jere. Black, Vallandigham, and their followers are engaged. Congress, the Representative of the people, must be sustained, or the hundreds of thousands of lives, and the thousands of millions of money which it cost to put down the rebellion will have been spent in vain. Shall Andrew Johnson be indorsed? No! Then go to the polls on the Second Tuesday of October, and cast your vote for Hon. Henry W. Williams, for Supreme Judge as the most effectual mode of expressing your condemnation of the usurpations of Mr. Johnson.

Strong vs. Sharswood

Our readers need not be told that as a jurist Judge Strong has no superior in this State. Such is the position unreservedly all claimed and had the moral support of the Democratic party. Had there been no disloyal, unscrupulous Democratic party. assigned to him by the bar of our Commoncorrect. We prefer to stand by Judge Strong and the constitutionality of our currenev. "Capture the nation's forts, fire on the nation's flag, make war on the nation's goverament, shoot down the nation's soldiers, and then swear you won't do so any more, and you are an honest loyal citizen." says Andrew Johnson. Any murderer on the gal lows with a rope around his neck, would swear, if allowed to run at liberty, that he would shed no more blood.

these crimes would never have been committed. Had there been no Jeremiah S. Black, no Woods, no Coxes and Vallandighams, there would have been no Andrew Johnson. The Presidential monstrosity is only the ulcer of the disease of Democracy. showing his disapproval of the course of Andrew Johnson and his Copperhead allies.

Rebels and Cops rejoicing.

The Democratic presses of the north are jubilant over the reduced Republican majorities in Maine and Vermont, but the rampant rebel journals of the South are perfectly wild with joy over what they fancy to be signs of downfall of our noble organisation. Already in anticipation they affect to see what they term the "dawn of a brighter day"-a day when the black and brutal banner of the stars and bars will be triumphant in spite of the mighty struggles of a patriotic people. This lesson should not be lost upon the voters of Pennsylvania. Again must the victories won on the battle field be cemented at the polls if we wish to conquer and maintain a substantial and enduring peace. To accomplish this much desired end-peace-cast your votes for Henry W. Williams on the second Tuesday of October next.

The Road to Peace.

A Southern correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, a Democratic journal, says that "if the politicians will only let the South quietly reconstruct their soil, the crops, instead of being worth four hundred million of dollars per annum, will in a short time be worth a thousand millions! The negroes certainly have a greater incentive to work now than when they were slaves." He adds : "What we want, above all things, 18 peace. Political anarchy is ruinous." The true and only road to peace is to be found in a faithful execution of the laws of Congress. In opposing and obstructing these measures, the Democracy are now, as before the war, endeavoring to lure on the South to terrible disaster. Pennsylvanians can do much towards the peace refered to above by electing Hon. Henry. W. Wilhams to the Supreme Bench.

State Debt reduced nearly Two Million ! Gov. Geary issued a proclamation Monday, Sept. 16th, as required by law. setting forth that the sum of one million seven hundred and ninety-four thousand six hundred and forty-four dollars and fifty cents, ($1,794,644,50) of the principal debt of the Commonwealth was paid, canceled, extinguished, and finally discharged during the year ending September 2, 1867. Tax-payers will please take notice that this heavy reduction has been accomplished under Republican rule.

Copperhead Know Nothingism.

If one thing is meaner than another in the way the Democrats oppose Judge Williams, it is the fling that he was born in Connecticut. If he were a native of the bogs of Ireland, or some unpronouncable place of the Continent of Europe, and knew as little of our system of government as thousands of the Democratic party; or, better yet, were he tresh from the South and still wore the rebel gray, we presume there would be no objection to Judge Williams. This new phase of Know Nothingism is noticeable in all the Copperhead papers. Will they tell us what there is in Judge Williams, resulting from his birth place, that constitutes a valid reason why he should not be elected? Is he not a good citizen-an upright Judge-a lover of his country-a friend of his species-and is there among us another, wherever born, of whom this can be said with more emphasis than of Judge Williams? It is an insult to the intelligence of the people to ply them with stuff like that which the papers of that party are continually printing about his birth place. It is discreditable to it self, and worthy only of the contempts which, with men of the least intelligence, it will be received.

One Vote.

Three of the five Judges of our Supreme Court have decided that the Legal Tender Act is Constitutional. The other two, (Cops.,) have given a contrary opinion. Judge Sharswood is on the record with his Copperhead friends. It is easy to have this opinion of the Supreme Court reversed. You have only to elect Judge Sharswood. Then our currency will be worthless.

Two Yankees took lodgings for about ten lays at a tavern in Lancaster county, and fared sumptuously, drinking two or three bottles of wine daily. The last day, and be-fore they had paid their bill, a dispute arose about the speed of their horses. They at last settled upon a race. The landlord was appointed Judge, each being rider of his own horse. When they were mounted, the judge like those of the Olympic games, gave, the word-one, two three, and go. Off they went, and have neither been seen or heard of since ; leaving the landlord fully compensated by having had the honor to be Judge.

A good story is told of a Nantucketer who sold a horse to a c-valry officer, warranted him a good war horse. The soldier came back afterwards in a towering passion and said that he had been swindled. "As how?" said the Nantucketer. "Why, ther's nota bit of 'go' in him, and you warranted him a good war horse." "Yes, I did and by George he is a good war worse-he'd soon-

Henry Ward Beecher says of the variety department of newspapers, that "it is worth more than all the small fry of correspondents, with an editor thrown in to boot. Like a caravan, it stretches along its columns with packages and parcels, spices and genius, bits of fragrance, of cunningly wrought metals, gathered from the Orient, and from the whole world besides.

An amusing incident occurred in Albany recently. While a gang of telegraph men were stringing wire from a reel in a wagon, the horse being driven along slowly, a countryman rushed up to the driver, and in the innocence of his heart informed him that he was losing his load, that his wire was scattered all along the road behind him.

During the war a lady was distributing to the occupants of the ward of a hospital and was excessively shocked to hear one poor fellow laugh at her. She stopped to "Why, reprove the wretched patient. ma'am," said he, "you have given me a tract on the sin of dancing, when I have got both legs shot off.

A fellow contemplated in utter wonderment the magnitudinous dimensions of a bystander's feet, and in a tone of astonishment said, as he surveyed the man's proportions : "You'd have been a tall man, if they hadn't bent you so far up.'

Father, what does the printer live on?" "Why, my child?" "O, because you said you hadn't paid for your paper for three years." Exit father with a flea in his ear.

Is there any word which contains all the vowels? Unquestionably.
