Are you Assessed?

Republicans, are you assessed ? Remember that in less than two weeks the election will take place, and that Saturday, September 28th, is the last day on which assessments can be legally made. Examine the Assessor's lists, then, at once, and if your name is not there, have it placed there. Don't trust this matter to others. See to it yourself, and then you are sure it is done. Don't neglect this all-important duty !

A GOOD HIT.-An editor who seems to have lost his temper, gets off the following well merited hit :- "Those fellows who don't take their home paper, watch them; they are always on the alert on publication day. and when the papers come around to your place of business, are the first to snatch it up; failing in this, they read it over your ·houlders, too impatient to demean themselves in a respectful manner. Spot these fellows. They are the small-souled, stingy handful, who go through the world on other folks' money."

THE "KEYSTONE STORE."-The adveround in another column of to-day's paper.

FINE GRAPES. -- We are indebted to our At the public House of Milo Hoyt, for the Borfriend, Isaac Johnson, of this place, tors some delicious grapes. The present consisted of a single bunch, weighing over one pound, and was the finest specimen of the Concord grape we ever saw.

MARRIED :

On Thursday, Sept. 12th, 1867, by Rev. W. M. Burchfield, Mr. ALBION R. LAW-RENCE, and Mrs. LIDIA ROOT. On Wednesday, Sept. 11th, 1867, by Rev. G. W. Dunlap, Mr. JOHN W. WAPLE and Miss CLARISSA PETERS.

DIED :

At the residence of James B. Graham, Esq., on Saturday evening, Sept. 21st, 1867, WILLIAM ALEXANDER, Esq., aged about 88 years. The deceased was one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Clearfield borough. His death is deeply mourned by his numerous relatives, and many warm personal friends. His remains were interred in the cemetery, on the hill, on Monday last, whither they were followed by a large concourse of people. Peace to his remains.

DIED-in Curwensville, on Sunday morning, September 15th, after a short but severe illness, Mrs. ISABELLA TEN EYCK, wife of L. W. Ten Eyck, in the 31st year of her age. The funeral took place from the residence of her husband, at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, and was attended by a very large concourse of friends and relations. The ladies forming the "Social circle," of which she was an honored member, and the Good Templars turned out in a body to pay the last tribute of respect dey as it is adapted especially to their wants, in the way of fashions, reading, etc. Price when living. The deceased leaves a hus band and five children to mourn her loss. Those who were present and witnessed the heartfelt anguish of the bereaved ones, when her body was deposited in the last resting place for the dead, can well appreciate their worth to them when living. Her funeral was one long to be remembered, and it is to be hoped that many a heart read a lesson from the solemn and imposing ceremony. The deceased was more than an ordinary woman. In all the relations of life she bore her part with a firmness and energy of character worthy of the cause. As a wife, she was truly a "help mate;" kind kind and affectionate, she was the idol of her husband's heart, and the admiration of all who knew her. As a mother, she was gentle and forbearing, and never tired in the discharge of her duty toward her little ones. Benevolent and charitable, her hand was always engaged in doing good ! Hers was a heart that responded to every appeal, and often times even beyond her means. With an abhorrence of vice, in every form, her voice was always heard counciling for good. No one knew her but to respect her; no one will remember her but in kindness. To her family her loss will be irreparable. It is a consolation, however, to know that their loss is her gain. The writer of this feeble trib use to her memory had the privilege of knowing something of the state of her mind for some time previous to her death, and has the consolation of knowing that her love for her Redeemer was the uppermost tisement of the "Keystone Store," will be thought. She died "not as one without She was not unprepared for the ope.

Words of Advice.

The New York Tribune, in concluding an article on the Pennsylvania election, tenders the following sound advice :

"Until their unexpected success in California, the Democrats had no hope of carrying Pennsylvania; but since that event they have mustered courage and are growing quite confident. It is certain that they poll a heavy vote, and we warn our mends to prepare for a hard fight. They can win by twenty thousand majority if they do their duty; but to do this-in fact to win all-the vote must be got out. So far as the canvass has been tame. Let our friends take pattern by Ohio, and wake up the sluggards. The gain of Pennsylvania would give the Democracy substantial cause for hope in the next Presidential contest; and should it be carried with a half disguised repudiator at the head of the successful ticket, the damage to the public credit would be deplorable. There are not quite two weeks of working time left, but a great deal may be done in that period. While Karthaus. we have no fears of the result, we repeat the suggestion that it will require hard ship of Knox. work and constant vigilence to secure the victory which is clearly our due."

Sheridan captured a cannon for every two days and two rebel flags for every three days of his active service during the war. For this fact the rebels hate Sheridan. this fact the rebels hate Sheridan.
