

THE RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., OCT. 9, 1867.

Clearfield and Clearfield Railroad. Arrives at Philadelphia at 9:20 a.m.

RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Semberow in the Baptist church...

By Rev. Chambers in the Episcopal church, morning and evening. By Rev. Guver in the Methodist church, in the morning.

PINE GROVE ACADEMY.—We direct the attention of our readers to the Advertisement of the above named institution, published in another column. Read it.

FRYK & LANDELL, Fourth and Arch Sts., Philadelphia, are now offering a large stock of Fall Goods to purchasers. This is an old established and reliable dry goods house. Read their advertisement.

SPLENDID HARNESSES.—Among the various articles on exhibition at our Fair, was a set of harness manufactured by Mr. J. Hamilton, of Brookville, which, for beauty of finish, was equal to any of the kind ever exhibited in Clearfield.

APPOINTED.—The President D. F. Etzweiler, Esq., in accordance with a resolution adopted at the Directors Association held in June last, appointed the following committee: Ex-Gov. Bigler, Mr. Wm. Irwin, Sr., and Mr. James B. Graham, for the purpose of ascertaining what action should be taken towards securing the location of a State Normal School at Clearfield...

CAN ANY ONE TELL.—Can any one tell why men who cannot pay small bills, can always find money to buy liquor, and treat when happening among their friends? Can any one tell how young men who dodge their washerwoman and are always behind with their landlord, can play billiards night and day, and are always ready for a game of poker or seven up?

HARDWARE STORE.—One of the most extensive Hardware establishments in Central Pennsylvania is located at Philipsburg, Centre county. Persons in want of Stoves, Rafting Materials, Bar Iron, Nails, Table Cutlery, Locks, Hinges, etc., would do well to call at the Hardware Store of G. H. Zeigler & Co., before making their purchases elsewhere.

GETTING RICH OUT WEST.—James Thompson went from Pennsylvania to Scott county, Iowa, a dozen years ago, worth a few hundred dollars. He now owns forty-four farms, averaging 160 acres each, or in all about 7,000 acres of land, at least half of which is under cultivation...

AN INTERESTING CASE.—Mr. Martin Gates, who resides in Dunbarville, Blair county, was severely wounded, in one of the engagements in front of Petersburg, by a bullet ball, which struck him in the right breast, entered his chest, passing through a portion of the lung, lodged in the muscles of the back, from which it was removed. He was brought home, and kept his bed for several months, but eventually the wound closed up and he got able to attend a grocery store. Some days ago he experienced a sharp pain in his side, and on examination discovered what he supposed to be the protruding end of a rib, fractured by the passage of the ball. In a day or two, however, the matter was explained by his extracting—not a piece of bone—but a large brass button—which, from its flattened shape, had evidently been driven into his body in front of the ball, and remained there fully three years. The button had either been fractured by the ball, or was so much affected by the secretions of that part of the system in which it had lain so long a time that it did not bear much handling, and soon fell to pieces. Mr. Gates has good reason to be rejoiced at his safe delivery from this ugly companion of the rebel bullet.—Standard.
