HARDWARE.—We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Geo. H. Zeigler & Co., of Philipsburg, dealers in all kinds of Hardware, Cutlery, Stoves, etc.

A NEW PAPER.—The Morning Post, is the title of a new penny paper, just started in Philadelphia. It is neatly printed, independent in politics, and ably edited. Any person in want of a good, interesting and lively little daily should subscribe for the Morning Post. Price, $3 per annum. Address "The Morning Post," Phil'a, Pa.

LADY'S FRIEND.—The November number of this popular Ladies' Magazine, is remarkably good. The steel engraving, "Learning to Sew," is a sweet, quiet home picture. The fashion plate is stylish and gay; and the literature excellent. Great inducements in the way of premiums are promised to new subscribers, and our readers should send for sample copies containing these offers. Sample copies 15 cents. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Phil'a.

DEMOREST'S "YOUNG AMERICA."—This lively little publication not only holds its own, but grows better and better all the time. It is full of stories, pictures, toys, puzzles, and good things of every description; and is deservedly a favorite with the juveniles, from the "big brother" to the baby. "Auntie" or "Grandpa" could not do better than send a year's subscription to "Young America," as a "Holiday Gift." Price, $1.50 per annum, with a premium. Address, W. Jennings Demorest, 473 Broadway, New York.

CHEAP MUCILAGE.—An exchange says, for the benefit of those who have occasion to use mucilage we would impart the information that by procuring any of the gums that exude from the peach, plum or cherry trees, and which is found to exist in quantities in almost every garden or orchard, and dissolving it in water will furnish as good mucilage as can be procured in any stationery store or manufactory. Having tried it, says the Telegraph, we speak from experience and recommend all others who may have doubts on the subject to do likewise.

THE DEATH WARRANT.—On Saturday evening Sheriff Faust received the warrant directing the execution of Lena Miller, who was convicted of the murder of her husband, by administering poison. The warrant was read to Mrs. Miller, on Monday morning, a few minutes after 10 o'clock. The prisoner was visibly affected during the reading of the warrant, by Sheriff Faust, but did not speak. The time fixed for the execution, is Wednesday, November 13th, between the hours of 10 a. m., and 2 p. m. It will be observed that the Governor has not adhered to the old custom of having the execution to take place on Friday.

A SAD AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn that on Tuesday morning, October 15th, Mr. A. P. Barger, of Bradford township, this county, met with a most shocking accidental death. It seems that he was about to haul a load of boards to town, and having a few at the house where he lived, he put them on the wagon, and then went on his way to the sawmill to get the balance of the load. As he was driving down the hill towards the mill, after the horses had run some distance, it would seem, Mr. B. was suddenly thrown off the front part of the wagon, and, in the fall, the top part of his boot-leg caught over the stay-chain hook on the front of the axle of the wagon, and in this way was dragged for some distance along the road and under the wagon, and upon the horses reaching the foot of the hill, instead of following the road they turned into the woods, and continued to drag the unfortunate man over stones, stumps and logs, until they became entangled among the trees and were forced to stop. When found, the body of Mr. B. presented a most shocking sight—being cut and bruised and mangled to such an extent, as to appear almost literally torn into shreds. This sad accident has cast a deep gloom over the entire community, as Mr. Barger was one of the most estimable citizens of our county. He was aged about 33 years, and had just sold his farm and other property preparatory to moving to the Shenandoah valley, in Virginia. His unlooked-for and tragic death will be deeply mourned by his wife and young children, and numerous relatives and friends. Truly, "In the midst of life, we are in death." Peace to his remains.

MERCHANT TAILORING.—By reference to our advertising columns, the reader will find that Messrs. Frank & Stoughton have opened a new Merchant Tailoring establishment in Shaw's Row, one door east of the Post-office. Read their advertisement.

OFFICIAL VOTE FOR ASSEMBLY.—Below we give the official vote for Assembly, in this Representative district, for 1876:

Table with columns for Districts (Beccaria, Bell, Bloom, Boggess, Bradford, Brady, Burnsides, Clearfield, Covington, Curwensville, Decatur, Ferguson, Fox, Girard, Goshen, Grahams, Guelich, Huston, Jordan, Karthaus, Knox, Lawrence, Lumber-City, Morris, N. Washington, Osceola, Penn, Pike, Union, Woodward) and candidates (Welch, M'Cullough) with their respective votes.

Majority for M'Cullough, 1,987. *By an oversight no tickets were circulated in Elk county for Mr. Welch.

FRIGHTFUL DEATH OF THREE CHILDREN.—A widow, Mrs. Blakenship, living near Bowling Green, Ky., went to a run to wash, taking with her her entire family, two little sons and a baby daughter, followed by their dog. The dog ran off a short distance into the woods, and began barking furiously. It was thought he had treed some game, and with the mother's consent, the little fellows went to secure it. The game proved to be a large rattlesnake. They were too small to know the nature of the creature, and delighted by its glittering coils, the eldest ran to catch the prize, saying, "I'll get him, brother." The venomous reptile darted, and struck its poisonous fangs again and again into the flesh of the glowing, eager child, and wound its terrible folds about him. The younger brother ran to his rescue, and was also repeatedly bitten. Their screams brought the mother. When she arrived the eldest boy was dead, and the younger one lived but long enough to tell what had happened. The snake had crawled off, and alone in the woods, with the blackened and swollen corpses of her two darlings, the mother, for a time, forgot her infant down by the run. Returning to where she had been washing, she found the corpse of her baby girl in the wash tub. She had toddled to it and fallen in head-first. Who found her, or how she found assistance to bring her desolate home all that was left of her children is not told, but the Bowling Green Democrat, which gives the account, says the poor mother is quite bereft of reason, and that the event has created a profound sympathy in the whole community.

NAPOLEON AND THE CHURCH.—Napoleon is not ready to cut himself loose from the Roman Catholic Church, says a Paris letter: "The Church party is necessary to the Emperor, for after all it is the only true conservative party in France—the only one upon which he can positively rely. All his other supporters are liable to fly off in a tangent, but the clerical party, so long as he holds true to them, will sustain him. And this is why the Emperor was ready to send an expedition to crush out rebellion in Rome. Were Napoleon really the great man which some of his admirers claim him to be, with all the elements of discontent about him, with a people clamoring for liberties which time and again have been promised but never granted them—with a people, the growing importance of whose commercial and industrial interests lead them to wish for peace and quiet, while his uncertain, doubtful policy is constantly keeping them in fear of war—did he possess the greatness and courage and patriotism, which his extreme friends say he does, he would grant France her so much desired internal liberties, and at the next general elections go to the people upon this issue, saying to them, "If you don't want me with these, make some better arrangements for your Government." But his threatened Roman expedition proves that Napoleon has not sufficient faith yet in the people of France, and that he still feels the necessity of the clerical aid and influence to keep him in undisturbed power.

The New Orleans Times relates an incident that illustrates the nervous susceptibility of yellow fever patients. On Saturday night last, Mr. F. was considered by his physicians as out of all danger, and was told that he could have his clothes changed on Sunday morning. At a late hour in the night a gulf steamer announced her arrival, as usual, by firing a gun, and the report gave the patient a nervous shock which caused him to expire in the course of five minutes. "That," said he, "is my death shock." The startling utterance proved prophetic. He turned over and died forthwith.

A GREAT DISCOVERY.—One of the greatest and most useful discoveries in medical science was made by the celebrated Dr. J. Dumars, of Paris, Chief Physician to the Imperial Infirmary of France, in 1861. Those who have been afflicted with the painful disease known as the Piles, and effectually cured by the use of Dr. DUMARS' FRENCH PILE SALVE, cannot speak too highly of the benefits conferred upon them by the use of this certain remedy. It has never been known to fail in effecting a permanent cure in a single case. In this respect it surpasses all other medicines of the kind. It will do just what it is recommended for; if not, the money will be refunded. One or two boxes is sufficient to effect a permanent cure in four or six days, in the directions on the box are followed. Price one and two dollars per box, according to size. Sent by Mail or Express to any part of the United States or Canada, Sold by Druggists generally. A liberal discount made on the trade. Address D. S. DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP. This great medicine cured Dr. J. H. Schenck, the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when it had assumed its most formidable aspect, and when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended. For all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds. Since his recovery he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has a large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few minutes healthy, robust men. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea-Weed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills are generally all required in curing consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck; but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars. Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor—one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health—are on the Government stamp. Sold by all druggists and dealers. Price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. Letters for advice should always be directed to Dr. Schenck's principal office, No. 15 North 6th St., Phil'a, Pa.
