RELIGIOUS. - Divine services will be held pext Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Nixdorff in the Lutheran church morning and evening.

By Rev. Archer in the Court House, morning and evening. By Rev. Sembower in the Baptist church in the evening. By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the morning. THE RAILROAD. - The work on the railroad to this place, is still progressing rapidly, but whether any part of the track will be

NEW GOODS .- A. K. Wright & Sons, have just received a large stock of Fall and Winter goods, which they are offering to the public at low cash rates. Call and see laid this fall we are not informed.

SCHOOL BOOKS .- Persons in want of the new series of school books, should call on Joseph R. Irwin, in Curwensville who has a good supply on hand. See advertisement in another c olumn.

DENTISTRY. - Dr. A. M. Hills, desires us to say, that he will be absent from his office in Clearfield, from the 18th to the 23d of this month; and will be in his office at Philipsburg during those days. [Nov. 6-2t.

NEW MILLINERY GOODS. - As will be seen by a new advertisement, Mrs. H. D. Welsh at New York. & Co., have just received a new assortment of millinery goods, which they are offering for sale at reasonable prices. Store on Secand street, adjoining First National Bank.

House Burnt.-Week before last, the house of David Goss, of Decatur township, with nearly all its contents, including three hundred bushels of potatoes in the cellar, was destroyed by fire. Loss about $4,000. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

THE PLANING MILL. -The proprietors of the planing mill, in this place, give notice that they have just completed extensive improvements, and purchased a large quantity of lumber, which they will manufacture to order for those desiring anything in their line. For further information consult their advertisement, or call upon them at the mill.

John Middleton, of Clearfield co., on Friday night last, stopped at the "Golden Horse Ho- the damage." tel" in Gaysport, and was found dead in his bed the next morning, (Saturday.) The report is, that his death was "suffocation resulting in Asphyxia, and caused by laying on his face while working in convulsions." So says the Tyrone Bulletin.

EXECUTION OF LENA MILLER. -On Wedne day next the execution of Mrs. Miller will take place. No doubt hundreds of persons will come to town to witness the execution. We would advise everybody to stay at home and attend to their work, as no one will be admitted to the iail vard under any consideration, by the Sheriff, except the jury and a few other witnesses.

THE COURT HOUSE. - We notice that the County Commissioners are having the cut stone set in the ground, preparatory to erecting a new iron fence around the Court House. This will add much to the general appearance of that building, as well as protect it from damage. There is another matter to which the Commissioners should turn their attention-the inside of the Court House. The walls in the halls are being much defaced by knocking off the plastering in places, and covering the remaining portions with obscene peneil sketches and inscriptions. Such an exhibition of obscenity is indicative of low character and vulgar mind in the person writing it, and it is to be hoped that the Commissioners will make an effort to discover the authors thereof and have them punished as their offences deserve.

HARDWARE STORE .- One of the most extensive Hardware establishments in Central Pennsylvania is located at Philipsburg, Centre county. Persons in want of Stoves. Rafting Materials, Bar Iron, Nails, Table Cutlery, Locks, Hinges, etc., would do well to call at the Hardware Store of G. H. Zeigler & Co., before making their purchases elsewhere. The Messrs. Zeigler are accommodating and gentlemonly salesmen, and will do their utmost to cater to the wants of customers. Persons desirous of purchasing hardware of any description, should, by all means, call at Zeigler's, in Philipsburg, who are prepared to sell them all articles in their line at the lowest cash prices. They also keep for sale the celebrated Spear's cook and parlor stoves, which they will furnish to customers below Phil'a retail prices. Give them a call when you go to Philipsburg.

Lieut. Gen. Sherman positively forbids the use of his name as a candidate for the Presidency. He is satisfied with his present command, and has no idea of leaving the army to accept even the Presidency.

Charming—the howls uttered by some young sters on the streets. Fully equal to the music produced by "a pig under a gate." Josh Billings says he don't care how much a man talks if he only says it in a few words. Good idea for those who write to newspapers. A cockney says that the reason Garibaldi is so intent on entering Rome is that he is desirous of getting hold of "eat-he-can." (Vatican.) Some of Josh Billings' ideas are truly poetical, for instance. "The Sun was a goin' to bed, and all the Hevins was a blushin' at the perform The statement of the Commissioners of bound over to keep the peace because he proposed to her too often. Everything seems reversed in Chicago. Proposing too often is not a fault of the men who live nearer the rising sun. A young lawyer in Paris was boasting about his profound Knowledge of French jurisprudence once at the Palais. "As to me." said he, "I always sit astride on the code " "Look out." replied bystander ; "there is always danger to sit astride on an animal one does not know well

Josh Billings, in describing the horse fair of the Billingsville Agricultural Society, says: There were two yoke ov oxen on the ground several yokes ov sheep and a pite ov carrots, and some worsted work, but they didn't seem to at-tract eny aympathy. The Courant was the title of the first daily newspaper printed in the English language, the first number of which appeared in London, the lith of March, 1702. It was a little half sheet, printed on one side only, and consisting of one page of two columns. It continued until 1735, maintaining the foremost place among the many imitations which speedily sprang into existence.
