Religious.-Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Nixdorff in the Lutheran church

By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian), in the Court House, morning and evening. By Rev. Sembower in the Baptist church in the morning.

By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the evening.

NOTICE.—Several persons promised to bring us potatoes and grain, to pay their accounts. We hope they will bring the articles without further delay.

Snow.-On Tuesday morning, Nov. 12th the ground, in this region, was covered with about one inch of snow-giving all outdoors quite a wintry appearance.

DENTISTRY. -Dr. A. M. Hills, desires us to say, that he will be absent from his office in Clearfield, from the 18th to the 23d of this month; and will be in his office at Philinsburg during those days. [Nov. 6-2t.

Posiponen.-We have been requested to state, that the adjourned Court, announced for the 3d Monday in November, has been postponed to the 4th Monday in December, 23d day. Jurors and others interested will please make a note of this fact.

M. E. CHURCH.-We notice that the brick work and roofing of the new M. E. Church, in this place is completed. The edifice presents a very handsome and formidable appearance, and, when finished, will be one of the largest and best church buildings in Central Pennsylvania.

ARREST OF A MURDERER. - We see it stated that W. D. Graves, the alleged accomplice of Chase in the murder of Mrs M'Donald, in Jefferson county, was arrested at Grand Rapids, Michigan, about the 28th of October, and is now awaiting a requisition for his removal to Jefferson county. He was arrested by Sheriffs Baily and Walker, of Kent and Newaygo counties, Michigan, who had a desperate fight to secure him.

A GOOD ONE. -On Sabbath evening aweek, during his sermon, Rev. Nixdorff quoted the following memorable (german) words of Dr. Martin Luther: "Hier stehe | washer-woman. mir: Amen f' upon hearing which a young replied that he felt just as Lazarus did when he gentleman suggested, "He quotes latin bad, don't he?" Upon being informed that it was german instead of latin, he exhibited shirts budges and bults. Cool costume for Nosome surprise to the no little amusement of MONTGOMERY COUNTY. - A singular case of accidental poisoning occurred recently in Marlborough township. A little boy of eleven years, named Edward Heller, son of Jesse Heller, noticed the birds eating some berries which grew on the bushes near the house, and it occurred to him to kill the birds by putting poison on the berries. Accordingly he procured some arsenic which was kept in the house of his guardian, with whom he lived, and smeared a lot of berries with it as they hung upon the bushes. On the following day the boy passed along that way and noticed some of the berries lying on the ground, and thoughtlessly picked them up and ate them. He was taken sick, and, notwithstanding proper medical attendance, died in two days after eating the berries.

How to KEEP CABBAGE. - An exchange gives the following plan for preserving cabbage during the winter: "Select a dry part depth to receive the cabbage roots and stalk up to the head-into the trench transplant the cabbage heads up of course-fill in dirt carefully about them up to the head-plant four short posts, two of them being higher than the others to give a pitch to the roof nail shingles lath or strips of old boards from one post to another, and another board half way up-lay upon this a number of bean poles, and upon these throw straw, corn-fodder, or bean haulm, protecting also the sides-and your cabbage will keep in good condition until May. Where there is a fence, only two posts will be necessarythat being employed as the apox of the cover or roof. 13 who indulge in Halloween sports: "The observance of Halloween in the borough of Cambridge in the borough of Cambri Cambria, adjoining Johnstown, on Thursday evening. Oct. 31st, was attended with a tragical denouement. We understand the facts to be these: As a party of boys, who were observing Halloween in the way now most popular with boys, were passing the residence of Cyrus Thompson, a shot was ared from a gun in the hands of said Thomp-800, as alleged, taking effect in the body of a son of Daniel Mc'Donald, aged fourteen Jears, and causing his death at four o'clock, on this (Friday) morning, The ball struck the boy in the back and lodged in his abdomen. Thompson at once seized his gun, as we hear, and fled. He has not been taken. Coroner Rutledge held an inquest."
