CLEARFIELD, PA., NOV. 13, 1867.

FINISH THY WORK.

Finish thy work—the time is short—
The sun is in the west;
The night is coming down; till then
Think not of rest.

Yes, finish thy work, then rest;
Till then, rest never.
The rest prepared for thee by God,
Is rest forever.

Finish thy work, then wipe thy brow;
Ungird thee from thy toil;
Take breath, and from each weary limb
Shake off the soil.

Finish thy work, then sit thee down
On some celestial hill,
And of thy strength-reviving air
Take thou thy fill.

Finish thy work, then go in peace,
Life's battle fought and won;
Hear from the Throne the Master's voice,
"Well done! well done!"

Finish thy work, then take thy harp;
Give praise to God above;
Sing a new song of mighty joy
And endless love.

Give thanks to him who held thee up
In all thy path below.
Who made thee faithful unto death,
And crowns thee now.

CLERICAL WIT.—"I fear," said a country curate to his flock, "when I explained to you, in my last charity sermon, that philanthropy was the love of our species, you must have misunderstood me to say species, which may account for the smallness of the collection. You will prove, I hope by your present contribution, that you are no longer laboring under the same mistake."

A dandy, strutting about a tavern, took a pair of green spectacles which lay on the table, put them on his nose, and turning to the looking-glass, said: "Landlord, how do these become me? Don't you think they improve my looks?" "I think they do," replied the landlord, "they hide a part of your face."

A clerk in a post office heard a tap at the window of the ladies department, when he should have been there but a man by the name of Drake. "Mr. Drake," said the clerk, "will you please to go to the other side; this department is for ducks."

The Speaker of the House of Representatives at Liberia is a colored man who received an education in New Hampshire some twenty years ago. He is worth millions.

What is more beautiful and poetical than the child's idea of ice—"Water gone to sleep."

Economy joined to industry and sobriety, is a better outfit for business than a dower.
