RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows:
By Rev. Nixdorff in the Lutheran church morning and evening.
By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian), in the Court House, morning and evening.
By Rev. Sombower in the Baptist church in the morning.
By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the evening.

THANKSGIVING SERVICES.—There will be Divine Services on Thanksgiving Day, (tomorrow, Thursday), in the Court House, at 11 o'clock, A. M., and in the Lutheran Church at 6 1/2 o'clock in the evening.

A QUESTION ANSWERED.—"Why don't you trade with me?" said a close-fisted tradesman to a friend the other day. The reply was characteristic. "You have never asked me, sir. I have looked all through the papers for an invitation, in the shape of an advertisement, and found none. I never go where I am not invited."

A RICH JOKE.—Recently a would-be sharp young gentleman, went to the country to teach a school. On arriving at his boarding place, the man of the house was in the yard making a hog trough, whom he accosted thus: "Mr. W., haven't you furniture enough yet?" "Oh, yes; I have enough for my own family, but as I expect to board the school-master this winter, and, thinking I might be a little short, I thought I would make this." The young man blushed "mudchly," but had nothing further to add.

CROUP CURED BY SULPHUR.—The Medical Gazette of Paris states that M. Languevin, of Paris, after observing the effect of sulphur on the odium of grape vines, was led to administer it in several cases of croup. He mixes a teaspoonful of sulphur in a glass of water, and gives a teaspoonful of this mixture every hour. The effect is described as wonderful. The disease is cured in two days, the only symptom remaining being a cough arising from the presence of loose pieces of false membrane in the trachea. Mr. L. says he has followed this plan in seven cases, all being severe, especially the last, in which the child was cyanotic, with protruded rolling eyes and noisy respiration.

CHRISTMAS NUMBER OF YOUNG AMERICA.—No wonder the children say, "Hurray for Young America," for it is, without exception, the brightest and jolliest youngster that ever claimed Uncle Sam's paternity. The Number, just received, will be a rich treat for the juveniles, from "Baby," who can appreciate the brilliant colored pictures, to "big" Brother and Sister, who don't disdain to spend an evening over the stories, games, and puzzles. $1.50 for a year's subscription, with a nice premium microscope, jack-knife, book, or paint-box thrown in, is a mere nothing, compared with its interest and value to the family. The music alone, furnished with each number, is worth double the money. Address, W. Jennings Demorest, 473 Broadway, New York.

PITTSBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.—This Institution is one of the best and most popular in Western Pennsylvania—is easy of access from all parts of the country, on account of the many railroads concentrating at Pittsburgh. The Winter session will commence on Monday, December 9th. The buildings are superb and commodious, and the accommodations equal to any Female College in the country. The faculty consists of 22 teachers, five in the musical department. There are pupils at this Institution from eleven States. The facilities for obtaining a thorough, solid, and ornamental education are unsurpassed by those of any Ladies' School in the United States. For full particulars see catalogue, which can be obtained, post-paid, by addressing Rev. J. C. Pershing, Female College, Pittsburg, Pa.

CUTTING TIMBER.—The question is frequently asked: "When is the time to cut timber, so that the worms will not eat it?" The following directions, by one who seems to know, may contain the desired information: "Cut the timber from September to December, and you cannot get a worm into it. October and November are perhaps the best months, and are sure to avoid worms. You cut from March to June and you cannot save the timber from worms or borers. May used to be called 'peeling time,' in my boyhood; and much was then done in procuring bark for tanneries, when the sap is up in the trunk and all the pores are full of sap, whereas in the Fall and early in the Winter these pores are empty—then is the time to cut, and there will be no worms. When you see an ox bow with the bark tight, there are no worms, no powder post, and you cannot separate it from the wood; and what is true of one kind is true of all kinds of timber, and every kind has its peculiar kind of worms. The pine has, I believe, the largest worms; and these worms work many years; have found them alive and at work in white oak spokes that I knew had been in my garret over twelve years, and they were much larger than at first; they did not stop in the sap, but continued in the solid part. I do not think of buying timber unless it is cut in the time above alluded to."

MARRIED.
On Tuesday, Nov. 19th, 1867, at Kyrletown, by Rev. W. O. Wright, Mr. CHRISTIAN M. HENKLEIN, of Karlsruhe, tp., and Miss ANNIE A. REITER, of Covington tp.

We tender the bride and groom our thanks for the "dollar" accompanying the above announcement. May a prosperous journey, illumined with love and joy, be the lot of the happy couple "as down the stream of time they float."

On Thursday, Nov. 21st, 1867, by Rev. W. M. Burchfield, Mr. CHARLES STRONG, and Mrs. MARY J. MORRISON, both of Jordan tp., and Miss MARY M. SCHOFF, of Beccaria tp.

On Thursday, Nov. 21st, 1867, by J. R. Caldwell, Esq., Mr. EDWARD SWARTSWORTH and Miss MARY E. ROWLES, both of Lawrence Township.

DIED.
On Thursday, October 31st, 1867, JOHN MILNE, of Bradford township, aged 84 years, 7 months and 13 days. The deceased was one of the early settlers in this county; was a frugal and industrious man, an affectionate husband, an indulgent parent, a kind neighbor, and beloved by all his acquaintances.

SEWING MACHINES.—Messrs. G. H. Zeigler & Co., Phillipsburg, Centre county, Pa., are agents for the celebrated Singer Sewing Machines. Persons in want of a good machine, should call at Zeigler's Hardware Store, and examine the Singer, which is warranted to give general satisfaction. An assortment always on hand.

THE "KEYSTONE."—A lot of seasonable goods has just been received at the "Keystone Store," on Second St., as will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, and which are offered at prices to "defy competition." Now then, is the time to buy! Go and see the goods, and judge for yourselves of the prices. Messrs. Nivling & Showers will be pleased to have you call, whether you buy or not.

"If music be the food of love, Play on, give me excess of it!" So exclaimed the immortal bard, and who will not give him right? And we would announce to all lovers of music that arrangements have been perfected for a rich Dramatic and Musical treat, to be given at the Court House, on Tuesday evening, December 3d, by those justly celebrated artists, the Davis Troupe, who will appear in a rich selection of Dramatic pieces, laughable farces, comic and sentimental singing, duets, pantomimic scenes, etc. The performances of this company are very highly spoken of as being of a chaste and interesting nature. The management pledges himself that nothing in the entertainment shall be presented that may prove objectionable; and hence we sincerely trust they may be favored with a large and appreciative audience.

CLIPPINGS AND SCRIBBLINGS.
"Coolie labor"—fanning yourself.
"On a boat"—the man who reclines on the bosom of his wife.

"Sopped"—the bones of about 25,000 Kangaroos, at recent hunt in Australia.
"D-lived"—the body of Maximilian, to Admiral Tegethoff. It is much decayed.
"A far-tile race"—running after a beaver hat scudding along before a hurricane.
"Query"—If the Pope leaves Rome what will he follow? A Roman knows, (nose).
"Enlisted"—hundreds of the young aristocracy in France, for the defence of the Pope.

"Creating a sensation"—Carlotta Patti, in Hungary. The Londoner generally like parties.
"A man named Bray," in Skowhegan, weighs 410 pounds, which is a heavy weight for a bray.
"Growing"—in Louisiana, a wax myrtle tree, which yields eight pounds of tallow a day. Doubtful.
"What part of a dog should be named to describe a certain condition of winter weather?" It's nose.
"Arrived"—Charles Dickens, in America, last week. The "Dickens" is now to play, among the bon ton.
"The Iowa State Arsenal," at Des Moines, is built entirely of stone and iron, not a particle of wood being used.

"A Mormon" has been converted to Romanism and has become a priest. What he is to do with the handmaidens of his time of heretical darkness we know not.
"Dr. O. W. Wright," of Indiana, who obtained a divorce because his wife was subject to epilepsy, has married again, and adopted his first wife as his daughter.
"The Erie (Pa.) Gazette" suggests that the church pews in that city be placed upon pivots, so that the occupants will not be obliged to strain their necks every time somebody comes into church.
"The shooting in Kentucky" is said to be unusually fine; partridges, rabbits, deer and bears, are very plentiful. Men, too, are there in large numbers, and a great many of all kinds, are being shot.

"A lady in Wisconsin" plunged into a mill-race to save two boys from drowning. Her ornate floated her, and, clinging to that, the boys were kept above water, and the whole party drifted safely to the shore.
"Rhode Islanders" claim that their State is the most densely populated in the Union. The New York Post says that this may be true, as Rhode Island is such a little State that the people must squeeze close or leave.

An American citizen who still exercises his rights of suffrage in Detroit has been elected to the Dominion Parliament from Essex county, Canada. Measures are now about to be taken to oust him and give his seat to his late rival.
