A SNAKE IN THE GLASS : A HOMILY.

Come listen awhile to me, my lad, Come listen to me for a spell; Let that terrible drum For a moment be dumb, For your uncle is going to tell What befell

A youth who loved liquor too well. A clever young man was he, my lad, And with beauty uncommonly blest, Ere with brandy and wine He began to decline,

And behaved like a person possessed; 1 protest The temperance plan is the best. One evening he went to a tavern, my lad,

He went to a tavern one night, And drinking too much, Rum, brandy, and such, The chap got exceedingly "tight;" And was quite,

What your aunt would entitle, a fright. The fellow fell into a mooze, my lad, Tis a horrible slumber he takes-He trembles with fear,

And acts very queer; My eyes! how he shivers and shakes When he wakes, And raves about horrid great snakes 'Tis a warning to you and me, my lad,

A particular caution to all-Though no one can see The viper but he-To hear the poor lunatic bawl, "How they crawl All over the floor and the wall!"

Next morning he took to his bed, my lad, Next morning he took to his bed; And he never got up, To dine or to sup, Though properly physiced and bled;

And I read Next day the poor fellow was dead. You've heard of the snake in the grass, my lad Of the viper concealed in the grass; But now you must know, Man's deadliest foe,

Is a snake of a different class; 'Tis the viper that lurks in the glass. A warning to you and to me, my lad; A very imperative call-

Of liquor keep clear, Don't drink even beer, If you'd shun all occasion to fall; If at all, Pray take it uncommonly small.

And if you are partial to snakes, my had, (A passion I think very low,) Don't enter to see 'em, The Devil's Museum! Tis very much better to go, (That's so!)

And visit a regular show.

They would also announce that they have just laugh as merily as when we sat besides opened

Thus shall we all, now in active life, pass away. Our children crowd close behind us. and they will soon be gone.
