RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows:
By Rev. Nixdorf in the Lutheran church morning and evening.
By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian) in the Court House, morning and evening.
By Rev. Sembover in the Baptist church in the evening.
By Rev. Guver in the Methodist church, in the morning.

HOLIDAY "FIXINGS." at J. P. Kratzers. See advertisement in another column.

PREACHING.—Divine services will be held in the Lutheran church, every evening during the week.

VENDUE.—In another column will be found a notice of the sale of household goods by Patrick Gallagher.

THE N. Y. TRIBUNE.—In another column we publish the prospectus of the Tribune, to which we direct the attention of our readers.

THE CONCERT.—The Davis Troupe performed in this place last evening (Tuesday) and, we learn, gave general satisfaction. In fact, some of their performances are spoken of as being unsurpassed by those of any other troupes now in the country.

EARLY RISING.—The only way to form the habit of early rising is to jump out of bed the moment you awake. The man who hesitates when called, is lost. The mind should be made up in a minute, for early rising is one of those subjects that admits of no turning over.

THANKSGIVING.—The observance of thanksgiving day was not so general in this place, as heretofore. Why, we cannot say. Divine services were held in several of the churches, but the attendance was rather limited. This is to be regretted. People should at least devote a part of such days to the service of God, and give thanks for the blessings bestowed upon them.

NEW COUNTY.—Tyrene, it seems, is "spreading" itself to such an extent, as to induce the people of that place to believe they are really in want of a county seat, and, accordingly, are making a move for a new county out of parts of Clearfield, Centre, Huntingdon and Blair. Well, let them go ahead, but we presume they'll find out in due time that they have undertaken a job of exceedingly doubtful consummation.

COLD AND SNOW.—For five or six days past the atmosphere has been quite frigid in this mountain region. The mill-dam here, we are informed, is frozen over. Some snow has also fallen at intervals—covering the ground to the depth of about three inches, on Monday morning. But, notwithstanding the wintry appearance of our out-door, we still anticipate some mild and wet weather; otherwise, there would be an unprecedented scarcity of water throughout the country, as, even now, many of the springs and wells are failing to flow their accustomed supply.

A DISGRACEFUL FIGHT.—On Monday evening, Dec. 24, a disgraceful riot and fight took place in our borough, the circumstances of which, as we are informed, are as follows: Two Irishmen, named Sweeney and Peck, got into a fight, the former of whom (Sweeney) was urged on by several others, as backers. At this juncture, a stranger spoke up and advised no interference, when Feeney, one of the backers of Sweeney, struck the stranger, and a fight was the result. A number of citizens observing the altercation run to the spot with the intention of parting the combatants, but were prevented from doing so by Simon and Kennan, the other backers of Sweeney, and friends of Feeney. The Sheriff being informed of the riot, came up just as the fight was ended, and arrested Feeney. Such disgraceful and brutal proceedings should be punished with the severest penalties of the law, and it is only to be regretted that the whole party was not arrested and bound over for their appearance at Court.

Spurious twenty-five cent notes are in circulation. They are the best executed of this denomination yet manufactured, and are calculated to deceive the most careful money-takers. The bogus money may be known by the paper being a trifle thicker than the genuine, and the green on the back somewhat lighter. The vignette of Fessenden is, at first glance, fully as correct as that in the genuine, but a close scrutiny shows that it is a good wood-cut, and not a steel engraving.

A very distinct shock of an earthquake was felt at Salt Lake City on the Nov. 3d. No damage was done. In view of the distinct promises concerning the fate of iniquitous holes as Mormondom, the inhabitants there would do well to heed this admonition and "free from the wrath to come."

One Hermann Schwartz arrived at Richmond, Virginia, the other day, from the wilderness, and attempted to pass a twenty-dollar Confederate note, not knowing, it is said, that the war was over.

Clippings and Scribbles.

Down—the price of pork and beef.
In demand—good butter and eggs.
Ditto—greenbacks, grain and gobs.
A beauty—the chap who carries a flask in his coat pocket.

Progressing—a protracted meeting in the Lutheran Church.
Shot—a large lynx in Renzeler county, New York, last week.

Very Polite—the fellow who was bowing to a sign-post the other night.
A tumbler—the lady who fell on the pavement, on Monday last.

Suspended—building operations, in this place, on account of the cold weather.
Prevailing—scarlet-rash, to some extent, in this borough. No fatalities, however.

Why is an old man like an Indian matriarch? Because it keeps the wig warm.
A man in Memphis is named Africa Bailey. Wonder if his children are all little Africans?

"One-Mule-Town" is the unique designation of a place in Shasta county, California.
A man in Hartford, out of spite to his wife, sat down on a red hot stove; he stuck and she left.

Rats have destroyed the great Swiss cheese at the Exhibition. Rats were not on show, they sat inside and ate.
A swan was recently shot in Kentucky measuring eight feet six inches from tip to tip, and weighing fifty-four pounds.

The flavor of ducks is said to be much finer if they are stewed alive. What? Stew 'em alive? Never heard of such doings before.

The Island of Tortugas was washed over by a heavy sea during the late hurricane. That can hardly be the Dry Tortugas now.

We understand that the great cheese at the great Exhibition, fell in being carried out and was broken. How have the mice fared?

Dr. Hall says: "To be a great orator, a peerless beauty, or a star of social circles, whether a man or woman, is the next door to being lost."

A Scotch gamekeeper has shot a golden eagle, and the party talk of it. We know a man with a pocket full of money mentions the fact.

The Prince of Wales, during his six weeks sojourn in Germany, lost some twenty thousand pounds at the gambling tables of Wiesbaden and Homburg.

A New York paper thinks that it is all very well to talk of self-made men, but they are just as often badly made as those who didn't make themselves.

To see a man with a red swollen proboscis, is often not so much of a sign that he has had his nose punched, as that considerable punch has passed just beneath it.

The Penobscot river has closed earlier this season than it has for fifty years. Is it not remarkable how many peculiarities of weather and temperature occurred fifty years ago?

The editor of the Savannah Republican pronounces the prize fight "the twin sister of universal suffrage." Why? Because the ballot and the bruise both attain their ends by boxing.

Gen. Zachary Taylor, his wife, and Old Whiskey, are all buried a few miles from Louisville, without a stone or cross, or sculptured thing to tell the passing traveler that he treads near hallowed ground.

Of all the pars dextera things, we think a stove is the most so. Because to keep it hot you must keep it "cooled." And the more it is "cooled" the hotter it grows. This is a "grate" joke; those things are "barred."

MARRIED:
On November 21st, 1867, by Rev. W. R. Whitney, at the house of Abraham Spencer, in Penn. tp., Mr. THOMAS L. MARTIN, of Little Rock, Arkansas, and Miss MARY E. SPENCER, of Penn. tp., Clearfield co., Pa.
