RELIGIOUS .- Divine services will be held next sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Nixdorff in the Lutheran church morning and evening. By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian), in the Court House, morning and evening. By Rev. Sembower in the Baptist church in the morning.

By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the evening.

Notice. - Read the advertisement heade "Valuable real estate sale," published in another column.

THE WEATHER.—The atmosphere has been quite cold during the past six or eight days. Some snow fell within the same period, sufficient in quantity to make good

THE COURT HOUSE FENCE.-The new fence around the Court House, was put up during the past week. It is a very substantial, as well as neat affair, and adds much to the appearance of our public buildings.

For SALE .- The Clarion Banner office, Clarion, Pa., with an excellent residence and printing office attached thereto, is offered for sale. The office is complete in all ford township. its departments-type new and patronage good. The entire property will be sold for $3,500—the best bargain offered anywhere. The average earnings amount yearly to from $3,500 to $4,000. Address S. Young, editor.

THE AMERICAN FARMER. - We are in receipt of this excellent agricultural journal for Decmber, which closes the volume for 1667. Each number contains 32 pages, handsomely illustrated, and filled with valuable reading matter for farmers. It is published at $1 per year, and at that low price eaght to be in the hands of every farpart in the country. Now is the time to subscribe for 1868. Address, John Turner. Rochester, N. Y.

THE SIDE-WALKS.-Now, that winter is here, we would remind our readers that there is a Borough ordinance requiring every one to clean the snow off the side-walks in front of their lots and residences. Some persons remove the snow from their premises as a matter of pride, whilst others, who have no regard for the public convenience nor respect for the appearance of their property, suffer it to remain to the annoyance of all passers. We hope, however, that the Borough Fathers will keep their eyes on all delinquents in this respect, and enforce the penalties of the ordinance against all who neglect to comply with its zequirements. So, look out for the fines!

A NEW PAPER. - The State Guard, a new paper, made its appearance at Harrisorg, on the 2d of December. Typograpstilly it looks very neat. It is edited with much ability, and gives evidence of being an excellent newspaper. In politics, it is Republican, and promises to be a zealous advocate of the principles of the party, in whose interest it was started. Its arrangements for telegraphic news seems to be complete. Altogether it will be an excellent ournal for the general reader, and is worthy liberal support. Price-Daily $6 a year : During session of the Legislature $1,50. Weekly $150, a year. Address Dunglison Forney & Kauffman, Harrisburg, Pa.

GODEY FOR JANUARY. - The best number the best Lady's Magazine we have ever en. It is really a gem. A piece of block cinting is produced in this number, espeally for the ladies, that is a novelty in this ountry. It is the figure of a stag, printed eight colors, and is exceedingly beautiil; and we presume could not be purchasin the stores for double the price of the Book. The two steel plates are very fine, the of them contains three distinct picmes. The tinted cut-a speciality of Goley's is sweetly pretty; and the inimitable shion-plate is beyond all praise. But the great feature of this number is Godey's exusion plate of the latest fashions, two feet ing printed on both sides, making four fret-a new thing. There is no magazine hat can get up a fashion equal to Godey. We know that they are true, for we know who it is that gets them up. The reading matter is decidedly good. Marion Harand's story will prove to be the best.

OUR SUNDAY SCHOOL VISITOR, certainly lears the palm of being not only the cheapest and best, but absolutely the handsomest of all the Periodicals for the Young rolks, that we have seen. The January number for 1868, the first number of the TWELFIH VOLUME, is already upon the tale. It is beautifully printed, and embellished with quite a number of fine engravligs; its list of contents is, throughout, a tich feast of good things from some of the lest writers our country affords, and the whole is neatly bound in a tinted cover, printed in color. We advise all the boys and girls to send at once for a sample copy, which will be sent, with full instructions about suberibing or forming clubs for 10 cents, and *inter evenings. Price$1,25 a year or $1,00 clubs. The Publishers also offer most eral Premiums for clubs. Address, J. W. baughaday & Co., Publishers, 424 Walnut and Loren A. Ensworth. Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
