Court House, morning and evening. By Rev. Sembower in the Baptist church in the evening. By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the morning.

APPEAR-the Sheriff's Sales, Register's Notices, and Tavern Licenses, to-day.

Notice. -Read the advertisement headed "house and lot for sale," published in another column, if you wish to buy property.

THE WEATHER .- During the past eight days, about eighteen inches of snow has fallen in this mountain region, and at present the roads are in good sledding condition.

"KRISMUS KNICK-KNACKS." - Persons wishing to purchase Holliday "Knick-Knacks," are informed that a full supply has been received at Shaws Drug Storesuch as toys, candies, perfumery, &c. Also, an assortment of Diary's for 1868. Call in and examine them.

To LETTER WRITERS .- Persons should remember that letters directed with lead pencil will be sent to the dead letter office hereafter. Many persons are careless enough to write the addresses on their letters in such perishable style as to make it almost impossible for the Postoffice clerks to decipher them; hence this new regulation.

TIMBER HAULING. - The recent fall of snow, and the excellent condition of the oads, has caused quite an activity in the timber-hauling business. As to the quantity of timber made, we have, as yet, no data from which to estimate the amount, but. we believe, it will scarcely be as large as usual-the scarcity of money having a tendency to retard operations.

A New Panacea. -Two old friends, I. and J., met the other day-the one carrying a botrle. Says I: "Halloo J! what have you there?" "Only a little panacea; first rate article; use a good bit of it. To which I. replied: "Well, see here J., you had better be cautious how you use that stuff, as it may turn out to be Snake-I-seeyou a." But J., seemingly, couldn't "see the point," and went on his way rejoicing. Jenkin's Edity. 11 25 B conec.

A Car Joke.-Recently, a Mrs. W. and her little son, called at the Commissioners' office in Clearfield, and claimed a premium on the scalp of a nondescript, which they had killed after a desperate fight. The Commissioners' examined the skin, but were unable to decide the precise character of the animal, notwithstanding its slight resemblance to the wild-cat. After due deliberation they. however, paid the premium of 75 cents aimed; only to discover, afterwards, that was the skin of a large tame tom cat! Vive la Commissioners and the Thomas cat! The cat is dead, but the joke is alive.

A RICH SELL.-A short time since, an lrish woman called upon a merchant in Clearfield, to inquire the the price of pork. and, on being informed it was selling at 12 cents, she departed. A few days ago she eat a hog to the store, and then called for her pay, when she was told it was worth on-10 cents a pound. But she insisted on having 12 cents. The merchant said he could not give more than ten cents, or he would ose money, as in cutting up the hog he ould get but little for the head; in fact, he would take 5 cents a pound for it. She at once replied, "Faith, an' I'll take it at that cents a pound, and then paid her 10 for the hog all round. The Irish woman was a ittle too sharp for the merchant that time she having made eighty-five cents in the head transaction.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, FOR JANUARY .wo finely executed Steel Engravings ead off the January number of this "Queen the Monthlies." One is called "My lousehold," and the young husband cerainly seems to be very well satisfied with s treasurers. The other engraving is a utch Skating Scene, and is very seasonaand appropriate. The colored Double-Page Steel Fashion Plate, is, as usual, unvaled in elegance, and fidelity to the mode. the engraving, "Dogs will be Dogs," is firstrate; and the many illustrations of the Fashas etc., all the ladies will know how to appreciate. The music for this number is The Moonlight Waltz." The literary butter is by Virginia Tonwsend, Elizabeth Prescott-who begins a facinating story, "A Dead Man's Rule" -Florence Per-The distinguished Poetess; Louis Chander Moulton, Margaret Hosmer, Aunt Al-Una Loke, etc., etc. The publishers the sending the December number which is very beautiful one, free to all New Subscriten for 1868. Other great inducements in the way of Premiums, &c., are promised to subscribers, and our readers should send for sample copy, containing all these liberal Ters. Sample copies will be sent for fifleen cents. Price (with engraving) $1,50 a Isar: Four copies (with one engraving) %.00. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.
