CLEARFIELD, PA., DEC. 25, 1867.

Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad. Arrives at Philadelphia at 9:20 a.m. Arrives at Philadelphia at 11:20 a.m. Arrives at Philadelphia at 2:05 p.m. Arrives at Philadelphia at 4:00 p.m.

RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Nixdorf in the Lutheran church in the morning and evening. By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian) in the Court House, morning and evening. By Rev. Sembower in the Baptist church in the morning. By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the evening.

NEWS.—All the Literary papers, Magazines, and "Phunny" stories, for sale by Galin, at the Postoffice.

THANKS.—Hon. S. Cameron, Hon. B. Van-Horn, and Hon. B. F. Butler, will please accept our thanks for the several public documents sent by them.

THE ELECTION.—Our readers will remember that, on Friday next, December 27th, is the day on which the Borough and Township elections are held in this county.

LOST.—Some ten days since, a small "Pocket Ledger." The finder, upon returning the same to Robert Green, or leaving it at the JOURNAL office, will be suitably rewarded.

HARD TO BEAT.—We are informed that, on Wednesday, Dec. 18th, Wm. Ten Eyck, of Curwensville, killed a hog, 21 months old, which weighed 538 pounds, dressed. If any person can beat that, we will gladly chronicle the fact.

NO PAPER NEXT WEEK.—In accordance with our custom, no paper will be issued from this office next week. And, we take this opportunity to extend to all our patrons the compliments of the holiday season, in the hope that they may be blessed with peace and plenty all the days of their lives.

A CHRISTMAS PRESENT.—We hereby tender our grateful thanks to D. Dressler, Esq., of Union township, for a bushel of pound apples, which he presented us a few days since. We hope that he may be blessed with plenty of the "same sort" every year, and that, in the "days of his prosperity," he will always kindly remember us.

THE WEATHER.—During the latter part of last week the air was quite mild, and on Sunday, the 22d, considerable quantities of rain fell. On Monday, however, Old Boreas again came along with his frigid breath, and assumed despotic sway over the aqueous dispensation of the day previous, and now once more holds all our outdoor objects in his icy grasp. But, such is nature, and man must be content therewith. So mote it be!

A CARD.—Our readers will remember that, on Monday, January 13th, the regular term of Court commences in this place. As many of our patrons are still indebted to us, in larger or smaller amounts, we hope they will embrace the opportunity to liquidate their indebtedness, as we need the money due from them. To such 'as have paid us since the commencement of the present volume, we return our sincere thanks for their promptness.

AN ITEM FOR EVERYBODY.—An English medical journal, considered the highest medical authority in the world, gives the following as an infallible cure for small pox and scarlet fever: Sulphate of zinc one grain, foxglove (digitalis) one grain, half a teaspoonful of sugar, mix with two teaspoonfuls of water. Take a spoonful every hour. Either disease will disappear in twelve hours. For a child doses according to age. It states that if countries will compel their doctors to use this, there would be no need of pest houses.

THE PAST AND PRESENT.—Some fifteen months ago, our neighbor Goodlander published a glowing account (written on Oct. 23d by "a white man" at Curwensville) of certain jewelry transactions, which was then and there indulged in by one of "Lincoln's pet lambs," as George familiarly styled him. Now, neighbor, as you prefer to furnish your readers only with the "more substantial" news—such as the above named jewelry transaction—you should again resort to services of "a white man" to enlighten the public on that subject. "Consistency is a jewel," George, you know!

WHERE TO GO!—As the Holidays are here, and many of our readers will desire to buy gifts for their friends, it may be well enough to state where they can find articles suitable for the occasion, to wit: If you want anything in the way of Dry Goods or Fancy articles, go to J. P. Kratzer & Sons, or C. Kratzer & Son's. If you want Toys, Candies, Nuts and Perfumery, go to W. M. & A. I. Shaw's, or Hartwick & Irwin's. If you want Clothing of any kind, go to Frank & Stoughton's, Bridge's, or Reizenstein's. If you want Fancy Goods, Perfumery and Toys, go to Mrs. H. D. Welch & Co's. If you want any kind of Jewelry or Watches, go to H. F. Naugle's. We have little doubt all will be glad to have you call and examine their goods, even if you don't wish to buy.

Clippings and Scribbles.

Plenty—frozen toes, among the-katers.

How to spell Tennessee in three letters: X-e-c.

Has a cold in his head—the Susquehanna river now adays.

A bad leap—to leap into the water headlong, this cold weather.

In a bad fix—the chap who couldn't raise change enough for a smile.

Unsettled—the stomach of the fellow who was on a spree the other night.

Cleared—turkey-bones, during the holidays; providing you have them to clear.

How to be at home in the best society—stay at home—by yourself—if you are conceited.

A foolish man, who died from swallowing a couple of pennies, was overstocked with cents.

Query?—Whose "pet" is in trouble now, George? It ain't one of "Lincoln's pet lambs," is it?

Changeable—greenbacks, sometimes. Very few have changed into our hands recently, however.

Nearly every evil has its compensation. If a man has but one foot, he never treads on his own toes.

"Nominate your poison," is the last expression used in lieu of the matter-of-fact "What will you have to drink?"

The last of the revolutionary soldiers is dead, so that now that struggle has become fully a deed of past generations.

When the ladies of the Court of Sweden got through hugging and kissing Admiral Farragut, they each and all exclaimed: "farry goot!"

What nose is more brilliant than a toper's nose? Why, volca-no's, to be sure. Pat remarks that the chief glow of each comes from the "crater."

Who will dare say that the age of miracles is past when all through the season, in every fishing village on the coasts, fish are killed and afterwards cured?

"Swindling Gift Enterprises," read Joe indignantly. "I don't believe anybody ever swindled a gift enterprise, but I know one of the darned things swindled me out of ten dollars."

When you see a young man and woman walking down the street, leaning against each other like a pair of badly matched oxen, it is a pretty good sign that they are bent on matrimony.

The Waukesha (Wis.) Freeman says that the excessive joy of the Waukesha Democrats over the result of the election in that county is likely to terminate in delirium tremens in some cases.

An ignoramus had been sick, and on recovering, was told by the doctor that he might take a little animal food. "No, sir," said he, "I took your gruel easy enough, but hang me if I can eat your hay and oats."

One of our Illinois exchanges, which has been defeated in its varied attempts to collect its dues, announces its intention to "board round" among its delinquents until accounts are squared. Don't we live in a good time!

A man advertised for a wife, and requested each candidate to enclose her carte de visite. A spirited young lady wrote to the advertiser in the following terms: "Sir, I do not enclose my carte, for, though there is some authority for putting a cart before a horse, I know of none for putting one before an ass."

A Good Subject—the recent jewelry transaction at Curwensville, for our neighbor Goodlander. Are the "Grand Moral Ideas" of the Constable of Clearfield Borough, and his chum, of how to obtain jewelry, the result of the teachings of the "Greeley Reformation"? Do tell, George; the public would like to know!

Rewarded—the Constable of the Borough of Clearfield, by his Democratic friends, for his "Grand Moral Ideas" of how to deal in jewelry. They re-nominated him for Constable on their ticket, on Saturday evening last. His partner should have received the Democratic nomination for Burgess, on the same ticket, by all means. Surely, modern Democracy is a queer institution!

MARRIED: On November 23d, 1867, at the house of Alfred Pearson, by B. A. Weed, Esq., Mr. J. PATRON BARD, of Curwensville, and Miss LOUISA MORGAN, of Clearfield.

We tender our thanks to the happy couple for the "greenback" accompanying the above notice. May love, peace and plenty ever be with them in their journey down life's "ragged stream."

PROSPECTUS FOR 1868. Harrisburg Daily Telegraph—Full Report of Legislative Proceedings—Telegraphic News from all Parts of the World. In 1856, on the 7th day of October, the Daily Telegraph was first projected by the present proprietor, and we need not tell our readers that great doubts existed in the minds of many of our friends of our ability to sustain the same, with the limited means at command, but the Telegraph to-day bears abundant testimony that it is a permanent institution of the Capital city. It is now published twice a day, twice as large as when we started the same, and we should not be surprised if we are compelled again to enlarge it before the close of the present volume. It is now the largest daily published outside of the commercial cities in the State.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE AND CONGRESS. It shall be our aim during the next winter to furnish complete and full reports of the proceedings of the National and State Legislatures, to gether with full telegraphic dispatches from all parts of the world.

TERMS OF THE DAILY. The Daily will be furnished to mail subscribers at the following rates, viz: One copy during the session of the Legis- lature $2 Ten copies during the same period, in one pack 15 One copy daily per year 7 Ten copies, in one pack, for the same pe- riod 60

THE WEEKLY Will be printed, as heretofore, on a large sheet, and not only contain all the important matters published in the daily, but also additional reports of the market, &c., and extended notices of political matters of the State at large. One copy, one year $2 Five copies, one year, in one pack 8 Ten copies, one year, in one pack 15 Twenty copies, one year, in one pack 25 Fifty copies, one year, in one pack 50

We have placed the price of our paper to elude at the very lowest rates; and we hope to receive orders from our friends promptly. Address, Dec. 18, 1867. GEORGE BERGNER
