RELIGIOUS. - Divine services will be held next sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows : By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian), in the Court House, mo ning and evening. By Rev. Sembower in the Baptist church in the evening. By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the morning.

"HATTIE"-we will endeavor to publish your communication next week.

THANKS .- Gov. Geary will accept our thanks for an early copy of his message. Our thanks are also due to Hon. T. J McCullough for several public documents.

DR. A. M. HILLS desires us to say, that he will be in Philipsburg during the first week in February, (from the third to the 8th inclusive.) to attend to all calls in Dentistry. Rooms at Lloyd's Hotel. ja15-3t.

WINTER .- The weather has been cold and stormy for some days past. The ground is still covered with snow, but the roads are too rough for good sledding. A few inches of additional snow would, however, put the roads in excellent condition for hauling lumber, etc.

A REVIVAL .- A revival meeting has been in progress in the Lutheran church in Altoona, for some time-Rev. Henry Baker. in charge. One hundred and ninety-one have made a profession of faith in Christ, and unnety-one were admitted to membership, previous to last Sabbath, when fifty more were to be admitted. The interest is unabated.

THE WEEK OF PRAYER. -- The "Week of Prayer" was duly observed in this place, by the members of the several churches. The services were conducted by the Pastors of the Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, and Lutheran congregations, and were well attended by the laity, and others. A spirit of Christian fellowship and Christian love, pervaded the entire series of meetings! and, it is believed, much good will eventuste therefrom.

A NEW LITEBARY ENTERPRISE.-The Philadelphia Sunday Times, Dec. 29th, 1867, says: Great liberality on the part of the publishers.-$100,000 to be awarded to the subscribers .- Novel plan to induce a large circulation. We have been favored with advance sheets of a new monthly Magazine, issued on an entirely new plan by Messrs. Evans & Co., publishers. From our knowledge of the parties engaged in this on January 31, in Chambersburg, of chronic enterprise, we feel justified in asserting that bronchitis. About a year ago he contracted a the undertaking will be a success, and in severe cold while laboring in his charge in all respects satisfactory to the public. In Huntingdon county, which eventuated in addition to the attractions of a fresh and interesting monthly, containing articles from the best authors in this country and Europe, as the title indicates, the publishers draw upon the whole world for topics of interest, and offer as inducements (if such is needed) a "dividend system" of an entirely original character, in which all their patrons will participate. This department is under the personal supervision and exclusive control of Mr. George G. Evans, long, and favora bly known as a gentleman of experience, capability, enterprise and probity. We commend to all a perusal of the "prospectus," wherein the distinctive features of the enterorise are fully set forth, feeling satisfied that the result will be an inchense circulation of their new monthly. "The World at Home." Full particulars are sont free Address Publishers "The World at Home," 814 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa. TEMPERANC MEETING .- We were gratified, on Monday evening, to see so large a turnout to the Temperance Meeting. It indicates that the people are awaking to their best interests, and showing by their prevence at these gatherings that they are anxious to adopt some means by which the monster Intemperance may be driven from our land. We were also present at the childrens' Temperance Meeting, on Sunday afternoon, where impressions were made on the minds of the little one which, we hope, may never be effaced, but may lead them all to grow up good temperance boys and sirls. At both these meetings we were favored with the services of Rev. George D. Chenowith, Cor. Sec. of the Penn'a State Temperance Union, who addressed us on the subject of Temperance. We trust that he may be as successful elsewhere, as he was here, in inducing persons to sign the pledge; and, if he is, we can truly say, that through his influence a rapid stride is being taken, by the people of the State, toward crushing aptcy of the Supreme Court of the United out the terrible evil of intemperance. PENN'A STATE TEMPERANCE CONVEN-TION.-A Convention of the friends of Temperance, will be held in the Court House, in Harrisburg on Tuesday, February 18th, 1868, to continue in session so long as it may find business. Each person attending the Convention, who has purchased a full rate ticket to Harrisburg at any station on either of the Railroads, will, at the Convention.receive a Free Return Ticket. All Churches, Colleges, Academies, and the various Temperance organizations are requested to send delegates, and all other friends of the cause are invited to attend the Convention.

THE TIMBER BUSINESS .- We have but little definite information as to the quantity f timber being taken out, but the indications are that it will fall something short of that of last year. We do not say this for the purpose of stimulating an increase of quantity ; but, on the contrary, to caution our people against overstocking the market. Large quantities, of last year's timber. still remain unseld, and, should the supply equal that of last spring, and money remain as scarce as it is now, a great loss will be experienced by those who can least bear it. Then, we repeat, be cautious as to how much you get out. Better that the supply should be far less than the demand, for, in that event, the prices will remain at a remunerating standard. "A word to the wise is sufficient."
