RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian), in the Court House, morning and evening. By Rev. Sombower in the Baptist church in the morning. By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the evening.

FOR SALE.—A few copies of "The Tribune Almanac," at this office. Price, 25cts.

DR. A. M. HILLS desires us to say, that he will be in Philadelphia during the first week in February, (from the third to the 8th inclusive,) to attend to all calls in Dentistry. Rooms at Lloyd's Hotel. Jan 15 3c.

ICE.—The present cold snap having had the effect to form most excellent ice on the river, some of our citizens are embracing the opportunity to fill their ice houses. All who desire to have a supply of good ice during the coming summer, should not neglect to obtain it now, as the present is the best of the season—it being clear and free from all foreign matter.

COURT.—The January term of our Courts was held, in this place, during the past week—Hon. G. R. Barrett, presiding. Business was dispatched with considerable celerity, and yet the Court continued in session until late on Saturday night. Judge Barrett acquitted himself, so far as we are aware, to the general satisfaction of all parties concerned in litigation.

THE I. O. of G. T. of Clearfield District, will hold a Quarterly Convention in Curwensville, on Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 4th and 5th, 1868, at 11 o'clock, p. m. Each lodge is entitled to four delegates. Public meetings will be held on the evening of each day. All are invited to attend. Able speakers are expected to be sent by the Grand Lodge. W. R. WHITNEY, D. D.

WINTER.—The weather was very cold during last week, with a fall of a few inches of snow, which had the effect to put the roads in excellent traveling condition. The atmosphere moderating on Monday night snow began to fall, and on Tuesday morning it had reached a depth of one foot, to which several inches was added during the day—a sufficient quantity for all purposes of hauling.

A FINE DELEGATION.—On Monday morning Sheriff Hows started to Allegheny-city, accompanied by four "delegates" to the Western Penitentiary, to wit: Thomas Gordon, Frank Little and S. Bradley, who were convicted on a charge of maiming, by cutting with a knife in a most horrible and fiendish manner, a horse and two mules; and D. H. Paulhamus, who was convicted on a charge of perjury.

THE COUNTY FINANCIAL STATEMENT.—For some years past, there has been more or less complaint as to the indefinite character of the "Receipts and Expenditures" of the county, as published by the County Auditors. The custom has been to present to the tax-payers a number of indefinite debits in the aggregate balanced by a like number of scarcely less indefinite credits, which have proved entirely unsatisfactory to the great mass of people in the county. This being the case, would it not be well to publish a more detailed statement, setting forth distinctly for what objects the funds of the county have been expended? The people seem to demand such an exhibit of the county finances. Then, would it not be prudent for the Auditors to gratify their wishes, even if it should cost a little more to do so? But, the matter is entirely in the hands of the County Auditors, and with their decision the people must be content.

IS IT FAIR?—The general impression is prevalent, that it is the duty of printers to publish all notices and proceedings of what are called "charitable" and "public" objects free of charge, besides contributing their due proportion to defray the expenses of such meetings. Nor is this all. Some of these institutions or associations, when they have work to do, to which pay is attached, they are sure to send it to a city and have it done. Now, is there anything more unjust than such a course—to ask your home printer to do part of your work for nothing, and give the city printer the work to which pay is attached? But you ask, "Is this fair?" We answer, "It is!" We could cite two cases of the kind which occurred recently, were we disposed to do so; but we forbear mentioning them. But now, as a matter of protection to our business, and in justice to those dependent upon our labor for support, we intend to pursue a different course in the future. Hereafter we will charge our usual advertising rates for all calls for political, temperance, school, railroad, or other meetings; and five cents a line for all resolutions or minutes of proceedings connected with such objects—for, if there is any benefit derived from the publication of these matters, they are worth paying for. "The laborer is worthy of his hire" is a Scriptural maxim, and there is no good reason why it should not apply to printers as well as to all other classes of laboring men.

Clippings and Scribbings.

The latest English dish—Fenian broils. Discovered—another tin mountain in Missouri. A successful breeder of short "horns"—the whisky tax. A work of art—a young widow trying to get a husband. An Indian chief named Es-quag-na-be is dead. No wonder. There are six times as many liquor shops as preachers in St. Louis. Rev. Baxter says the Jews are to be restored to Palestine this year.

Why is the letter D like a drunkard's life? Because it always ends bad. A nodd fellow—the chap who sleeps in church on Sunday evenings. Amusing to see a lady with large hoops, walking through twelve inches of snow. Why is the country in winter like the Black Crook? Because there are so many barrels to be seen. A had "sampler"—the fellow who went home intoxicated, the other evening. Pity his children. How to avoid having troubles-me accounts to meet at the end of 1868. Commerce low and pay a you go.

Not to be believed—a wag who has a sweet heart named Liza, for he is always telling Liza about everything. What is the difference between a barber and a mother? One has razors to shave and the other has shavers to raise. The Scientific American classes mosquitoes among our domestic animals. We suggest that fleas and flies be similarly classified. "Ma, if you will give me an apple I will be good." "No, my child, you must not be good for pay—you ought to be good for nothing!"

An exchange says: "It is to us a mystery, which will remain forever unexplained, that so many persons imagine they can write poetry." A line in one of Moore's songs reads thus: "Our coach shall be roses, bespangled with dew." To which a sensible girl replied: "I would give you the rhinoceros, and so it would you." This is leap-year for the ladies. We saw one the other day, leap across one of our alleys. It was a fat indel—and ten feet also. Eight across the alley, and he two she took with her.

"I'm afraid," said a lady to her husband, "that I'm going to have a stiff neck." "Not at all improbable my dear," replied the spouse; "I've seen strong symptoms of it ever since we were married." A man who had filed a petition for divorce was informed by his counsel that his wife had filed a cross petition, as lawyers call it. "A cross petition?" exclaimed the husband, "that's just like her. She never did a good act and that in her life!" In reply to Ike's question of "what Mr. Secondment when he said he wanted St. Thomas for a vacation station?" Mrs. Partridge, (after tubbing her forehead thoughtfully for a moment with the bow of her silver spectacles) replied: "it must be because it shakes so. Isaac, and is therefore a good place to set the ashes!"

Book Notice. THE BLUE COATS, and how they lived. Fought and Died for the Union; with Scenes and Incidents in the Great Rebellion. It is the title of a handsome volume just issued by JONES BROTHERS & Co., Philad. a. P.

There is a certain portion of the War that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events. A part this may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the War. This illustrates the character of our leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war, the author has been engaged in collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form. The volume is profusely illustrated with over 100 engravings, by the first artists, and its contents include reminiscences of camp picket, spy, scout, bivouac, siege, and battle field, with thrilling feats of bravery, wit, drollery, comical and ludicrous adventures, etc., etc. Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art. It is just such a volume as will find numerous purchasers, and just such a one as persons seeking to act as book agents should add to their list.

ANOTHER BIG "FLOP!" W. F. JOHNSON, : : : : J. H. BAILEY. Some two months ago it was formally announced that Pennville was "Right side up." Recent events have proven the announcement premature.
