

RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., JAN. 29, 1868.

Tyrone and Clearfield Railroad. Train leaves Tyrone at 9:20 a.m. Arrives at Philadelphia at 11:20 a.m. Train leaves Philadelphia at 2:05 p.m. Arrives at Tyrone at 4:00 p.m.

RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian), in the Court House, morning and evening. By Rev. Sembower in the Baptist church in the evening. By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the morning.

APPEARS—"notice in Bankruptcy," in our advertising columns, to-day.

"TO WATERMEN," is the heading of an advertisement that may be of interest to some of our readers.

FOR SALE—a good two-horse sleigh. For particulars inquire of E. W. Graham, at his store on Market street.

NEW POSTMASTER.—We learn that Mr. O. B. Welch, was appointed Postmaster at Curwensville, in place of T. W. Fleming removed.

THE ROADS, SNOW, ETC.—Since our last issue, some additional snow has fallen, and at present the roads are in excellent condition for traveling and hauling.

DR. A. M. HILLS desires us to say, that he will be in Philadelphia during the first week in February, (from the third to the 8th inclusive,) to attend to all calls in Dentistry. Rooms at Lloyd's Hotel. Jan 15-23.

GODEY.—The February number of Godey is before us, and, as usual, is full of good things. The literary contents are chaste and entertaining, the engravings amusing and instructive, and the fashions beautiful and useful—excellencies, which make it the great favorite of the ladies.

JUST LIKE "EM.—Some infidel sent us a copy of an infidel paper, last week—the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged. However, lest we should know from whence it came, the cowardly sneak cut his name off the margin. But, as we never read such trash, it matters little who sent it.

THANKS.—We tender our thanks to Hon. Jacob M. Campbell, Surveyor General, and Hon. D. B. McCreary, Adjutant General, for copies of their annual reports.

Also, to Hon. T. Nicholson and T. J. McCullough of the House, and Hon. W. A. Wallace of the Senate, for several public documents.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—A man named Yonson, a shingle-maker, left Philadelphia on Friday January 17th partially intoxicated, with a horse and sleigh; and on Saturday the 18th, he was found, in the Allegheny mountains east of Philadelphia, frozen to death. The horse was also dead and stiff. This is a terrible warning to those who are in the habit of indulging freely in intoxicating drinks. An inquest was held on the body, and a verdict in accordance with the above facts rendered by the jury.

JUST SO!—A contemporary says: "The Copperhead politicians are again wearing long faces. The checkmating the Senate has shown Andrew Johnson, and the united front given by the Republicans in Congress satisfies them that there is as much vitality in the Republican Party as ever, and that it is preparing to sweep the country as it did in 1864. Indeed long faced Copperheads are becoming as familiar as during the time Grant was 'tanning their rebel friends down South.'"

"AN OLD BOOK.—Our fellow-townsmen, Mr. D. J. Evans, has shown us a rare and valuable curiosity in the shape of a pamphlet printed by B. Franklin and D. Hall in Philadelphia in 1761."—Evansburg Alleghenian

THE OLDEST BOOK.—The editor of the Raftsmen's Journal has in his library; "The American Instructor; or, Young Man's Best Companion," a book of 378 pages, printed in Philadelphia by B. Franklin and D. Hall, 1748." The book, though minus a number of leaves, is still in the original leather binding. The contents, as well as the typography, are quite a curiosity within themselves, to say nothing of the age of the work.

FRUIT AND ORNAMENTAL TREES.—We ask the attention of our readers to the card of Messrs. John R. & A. Murdoch, of Pittsburgh, to be found in another column. These gentlemen are among the pioneers in the nursery line in the west, and by strict business integrity and personal attention to the interest of their patrons, they now stand at the head of the trade. They have one of the largest and most complete stocks of Fruit and Ornamental Trees, Evergreens, Grape Vines and Roses, to be found west of the mountains. We might also mention that their Green-houses, (five in number,) are well supplied with every variety of choice plants for decorating houses or gardens. They have, at their Seed Store, a great variety of vegetable and flower seeds, all of which they warrant to be fresh and of the finest quality. They will send by mail, free of postage, all orders for seeds to the amount of one dollar or upwards, excepting Peas, Beans and Corn, which are too heavy to be sent in this way. This will be a great convenience to our readers, who have been deterred by heavy express charges from ordering seeds for their gardens. Send for one of their Catalogues and examine it yourselves.

Clippings and Scribblings.

A "tight" place—a drinking saloon. Increasing—the length of the days. What tax does a man pay for his vices? Syntax.

The transfer of Maximilian's corpse cost $240,000. Query?—who took the parson's hat, a short time since?

Still about—the chap that carries a bottle in his pocket. To be changed—Mr. Seward's title, to "Secretary of State."

Chicago is to have a wigwag for the Republican Convention. Fernando Wood is worth $3,000,000—of course we do not mean morally.

Forty-year old brandy is manufactured in New York in three days out of Jamaica rum. A wretched California miner, who has hardly subsisted for years, has just dug out $16,000 in gold.

An old lady in Kansas has such a horror of Trichina that she has forbidden her daughter to read Bacon. Mrs. Marsh, wife of our Minister at Florence, is daily active in works of relief for the wounded Garibaldians.

Brigham Young announces that the spirit of God instructs him to order the saints to leave of drinking tea and coffee. Postmaster Kelley has returned more than three thousand letters addressed to the proprietor of a single gift fraud in New York.

Gen. Grant's platform of principles may be compressed in one strong plank, that the men who run this country should rule it. An exchange tells young ladies who want to get married not to take their mothers with them to carry the bundles when they go shopping.

A man in Illinois last week threw a bucket full of manure at his wife, but hit and plastered another woman, who has sued him for battery. "Mother" said like Partington, "did you know that the iron horse has got but one ear?" "One ear! Merciful gracious, child, what do you mean?" "Why, the engine-ear, to be sure."

Prentiss says that the aristocratic negroes are in a great rage at the preachers who tell them they must be born again. They are afraid that the next time they may be born white men.

The lady who does not provide herself with a good husband, within the next twelve months, will have herself to blame, as she possesses the unquestioned right to ask for such a blessing. This is excellent weather in which to take cold easily. In the language of the divine poet "Some who succeed who never succeed before. And them as loudly sneezed, now sneeze the more."

The prophets who predict that Grant won't be next President because his name doesn't end in "on," should remember how many "ons" he made between Vicksburg and Appomattox Court House.

The Bedford Gazette nominates Edgar Cowan as a candidate for Vice President on the traitor's ticket, Johnson and Cowan! The Republicans would need no stirring up with such a ticket to oppose.

Among the arrivals at the dead letter office recently was a letter containing a diamond ring, valued at fifteen hundred dollars. It was sent to New York from England, but not being inquired for, of course came to the dead letter office. Fortunately, the lady subscribed her full name, and it has been returned to her.

THREE MILL TAX.—Mr. Wm. H. Kemble, State Treasurer, says that if the expenditures be carefully watched by the Legislature, our revenue will be $1,000,000 in excess of our expenditures. Mr. Kemble adds: "This is a much larger revenue than it is necessary or wise to collect, and I therefore recommend the repeal of the three mill tax on personal property, bonds, mortgages and money at interest, except the bonds and mortgages issued by corporations."

"There are many reasons why this tax should be abolished, not the least of which is the utter impossibility of obtaining an equal and just assessment of it. But the principal reason why the tax on bonds and mortgages should be repealed is that it has become a penalty a man pays for being in debt."

"This tax was originally intended as a tax on capital, but it has long since ceased to be paid by the capitalists, and it is now paid by the borrower. Most mortgages are now so drawn as to obligate the borrower to pay the tax."

"On real estate it is taxing the man who is in debt for his property three mills on every dollar he owes on it, whilst he who is able to own his real estate free of debt is entirely free of State tax."

ONLY TWENTY-TWO MILLIONS SAVED BY THE REPUBLICANS.—The Secretary of the Navy, differing from Gen. Grant, asked the trifling sum of forty-seven millions three hundred and seventeen thousand dollars for his next year's expenditure; but the Republican House sternly objecting to the delicate request, the kind Secretary instantly cuts down his demand to twenty-four millions nine hundred and twenty-four thousand dollars, or a little less than one-half. Suppose the House had voted the subsidy, what a rejoicing there would have been in those Copperhead snuggeries, the navy yards of New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Portland, Boston and Norfolk! Gen. Grant did not wait to be instructed to economize. He set the example to Congress himself.

THE NEW TAX BILL.—The Committee on Ways and Means in Congress have had under consideration that part of the new internal tax bill relating to manufactures. While it is certain that they will recommend a general reduction of manufacturers' taxes, there is evidently a disposition on the part of the committee to keep the tax on articles of luxury, such as jewelry, plate, carriages and the like, and also on gas and coal oil. There is a probability that the tax will be removed from raw cotton. The bill will not be reported for several weeks to come.

TALLY ONE FOR HANCOCK.—Gen. Hancock has issued an order, in which he declines to set aside the registration in Texas, on the ground that certain classes had been excluded and others admitted to the registration wrongfully. He will not assume to revise or correct any action of the Boards of Registration in matters which, by the Reconstruction act, are submitted to their judgment and discretion.

While the Copperheads are abusing Congress, it is worth asking what the condition of those bodies would be with every Southern State represented as Maryland, Kentucky, and Delaware are to-day. Repudiation would become the order of the day, or the national debt would be doubled by the repeal of all the laws of reconstruction, including that of suffrage.

The Doylestown Democrat (Copper) in an article on Presidential nominations says: "We must nominate a civilian. We cannot run any man successfully against Gen. Grant on a purely military record, for any officer we might take will be Grant's subordinate, and he would overshadow him by the brilliancy of his services."

HORRIBLE MURDER.—Captain Rohrer, whose father resides in Harrisburg, mysteriously disappeared from Pottsville about two months since. At the time he had two partners, and there were suspicions of foul play, but nothing was known definitely until January 24th, when the father received the sad intelligence that the body of his murdered son was thrown into the Marshfield Coal Slope, which is about five hundred feet deep and filled with water. It is now being pumped out. The son of one of the partners of the deceased divulged the terrible crime. All the parties implicated have been arrested. The motive for the murder is supposed to have been to secure a certain valuable coal lease. The names of the partners are Smith & Albrighton. Captain Rohrer was a young married man of unblemished reputation.

Vallandigham, it is said, does not intend to keep quiet, but intends to fight it out. According to the statement of his friends he has already planned a future campaign, and his objective point is the Speakership of the House of Representatives. He has figured up the election of a Democratic House beyond the probability of a doubt, and expects to be a member of the Forty-first Congress from the Third district of Ohio.

Hon. Thaddeus Stevens has changed his place in the House of Representatives, and generally takes his seat on the right hand of Speaker Colfax, so as to enable him the more conveniently to hear and participate in the proceedings. He is the observed of all observers, and, after Mr. Colfax himself, the object first presented to strangers in the gallery. At present he is unusually bright, cheerful, and confident.

Was ever so pitiable a sight as that of poor old Stanbery, the Attorney General of Andrew Johnson, refusing to appear before the Supreme Court of the United States because he believed important acts of Congress unconstitutional? A fitting successor of Jeremiah S. Black, who is now employed as Stanbery's mouth-piece and is doing the same bad work for Johnson which he did so thoroughly for Buchanan.

The New York Times significantly says: "There is no doubt now that Congress is quite as determined in its purposes as President John-on is in his. It will be thwarted by no agency whatever. And the fact that it has power to carry out and enforce its will is making itself felt in every department of the Government, in a way that will not be fully understood till it has fully completed its work."

A correspondent of the New York Tribune makes the startling revelation that the number of lives lost in the Angola disaster were nearly twice as large as has hitherto been stated, being 68 instead of 39. The Tribune vouches for the veracity of its correspondent.

The rebel city councils of Louisville have passed a series of arrogant resolutions calling upon the Senators and Representatives from Kentucky to insist upon the immediate pardon and return of John C. Breckinridge.

Twenty Indians were naturalized in Topeka, Kansas, at the last term of court there.

MARRIED.—On Tuesday, January 18th, 1868, by Rev. A. W. Guyer, Mr. SAMUEL MILES FULLERTON, of Lawrence township, and Miss SARAH J. OWENS, of Curwensville.

DIED.—On Monday morning, January 27th 1868, Eli Woods, of Lawrence township, aged 39 years.
