The bill for this increase of pay to the Commissioners of this county was introduced by Mr. McCullough, the member from Clearfield. The Democracy are always harping about the enormous burden of taxes to which the people are subjected. Is this the way to lighten that burden? We refer to this subject for the purpose of showing the difference between the precepts and the practice of a certain class of politicians.

It is admitted on all sides at Washington Dat Secretary Seward's letter destroys the free of the President's allegations against trant. A friend of the President remonstrated with him against sending in Seward's ther, but Mr. Johnson said that Congress could see from the letter the independence that could be placed upon him. In short, the President doesn't like Seward's letter, but it having been written, he could not
