By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian), in the Court House, moining and evening.

By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the evening.

BANK REPORT. -In another column will be found the quarterly statement of the County National Bank, from which we infer it to be in a healthy condition.

IT IS a well-known fact that the Circassian beauties possess magnificent heads of hair. If its possession can lend additional charms to the semi-enlightened ladies of Circassia. hew much more does it adorn the beauty of our highly cultivated American belles. It is easily attained by the use of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorer."- Washington (D.C.) Chronicle.

Do You WANT CLOTHING?-If so, go to Frank & Stoughton's Merchant Tailoring establishment, where you will find as good a selection of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings as can be found in the county. Also, a general variety of furnishing goods. Goods made up to order, in a superior manner, and in accordance with the latest styles. Everybody is invited to call.

FAREWELL SERMON.-Rev. A. H. Sembower preacked his farewell sermon in the Baptist church, in this place, on Snnday evening, April 12th. He goes to Pottsville, Schuylkill county, Pa. Rev. Sembower had many warm personal friends in this community, whose prayers will accompany him to his new field with the hope that God will abundantly bless his labors. So be it!

Snow .- On Thursday last, April 9th, about seven inches of snow fell in this region, to which was added several inches afterwards. But, much of it has already disappeared under the influence of the mild air that prevailed betimes, and so gradually has it passed off as to cause but little rise in the streams. This (Wednesday) morning, however, there is a small flood in the river, and, we presume, a few rafts will start to-day.

NEW STOCK. - We would state for the information of our readers, that H. Bridge has just received and opened a new stock of cloths, casimeres, and vestings (plain and season, to which he directs the attention of the public. His stock is of the best ever brought to the place, and will be made up to order, in the latest styles and most durable manner. All are requested to call and

How to set A HEN. - The Stock Journal GOLD. says: We have found the most convenient way to set hens was to get a common tea chest or box, put a portable slanting roof to it made of a few pieces of board. Cut a hole at one end, like that for a dog kennel. In front of this put a wire pen, or frame made of laths. Provide the hen with food and water daily, and you need not be under suriety about the hen leaving her eggs; she cannot get out, and will return to the eggs. if really broody, in a very short time. When the chickens are hatched, I find these boxes answer every purpose of a pen; only in wet weather, if a shed cannot be had, they must have the frame covered with canvas or boards.

DON'T BUY AN ORGAN Until you have heard that wonderful musical triumph, the Burdett Organ. The performance of even a child on that perfect instrument is more touching and musically entrancing than the fourishes of practiced players upon most other organs. The effects of the vox humana (human voice,) and celestial stops-a ate invention, and found in perfection only in the Burdett Organ-are touching and sympathetic in the extreme, and comparable only to the heart-searching and tremulous tones drawn from their violins by an Ole Bull or a Vieux Temps. The Messrs Kleber & Bro., 122 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa., have the sole agency, and will te glad, no doubt, to show these organ gems Mar. 11-6t. to all who may desire it.

A TIMELY WORK. - It is announced that the house of J. B. Burr & Co., of Hartford have in press a work entitled "Grant as a Soldier and a Statesman," which will be ready for publication, shortly, and will be sold by subscription. The title intimates its contents. It will no doubt be eagerly sought for as soon as it appears. The country is desirous of some accurate account of General Grant's whole course in the field of politics, as well as of battle. Ample means for illustrating his opinions upon the questions of the day, exist in his reports, letters and acts; though this fact is generally lost eight of. If the materials are properly used, will appear that in the field of politics as vell as war, General Grant's forte is action and his "head quarters" always properly loated, -that he is as reliable as a Statsman, is he is as a Soldier. The name of the auther has not yet been announced, but we understand that the work is by one of the ablest and most conscientious literary gentleman of the country, every way fitted for the task, and enjoying peculiar advantages, deriving the most important part of his materials from headquarters.

An Organ "Galloping" into Favor. A most remarkable piece of musical mechanism, in the shape of an organ, representing the vox humana, (human voice,) is creeping or rather galloping into public favor. It is known as the "Burdett Organ," whose tones, no not tones merely or abstractly considered as such, but whose utterances are made to excite almost any emotions of the human heart, whether of joy or of sorrow, at the will of the performer, and cause the listener to wonder how it lives without eating and drinking, like human beings. Those enterprising gentlemen, H. Kleber & Bro., 122 Wood street, Pittsburg. have it for sale, and would be pleased to exhibit to those who desire to witness its powers, the wonderful capacity it possesses to inspire our minds, stir our hearts, and mingle its tender and touching sympathies with those of the human breast. It is said that Elder Milo Andrus, living southwest of Salt Lake (ity, is credited with twenty-two living boys and seventeen girls, five boys and one girl having died, making a total of forty-five. The number of wives not given.

specimen of human invention, for the sec-
