Arrives at Tyrone et : : : 2.05 p m. RELIGIOUS. —Divine services will be held next sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: · By Rev. Nixdorff in the Lutheran church morning and evening.

By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian), in the Court House, morning and evening.

By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the morning.

AGENTS WANTED-for the sale of a life of Gen. Grant. See advertisement.

NOTICE. - Read the card of James Mullen, which appears to day in our advertising ADJOURNED.-The Pennsylvania Legislature adjourned on the 14th, after a session of eighty-five days. IN BANKRUPTCY .- W. M. M'Cullough, Esq., has been appointed assignee of E. M'

Masters. See notice. LADIES FRIEND. - The May number of this beautiful and interesting "Friend" is to hand, and is full of good things.

HOOFLAND'S BITTERS .- The advertisement relating to this excellent Bitters will be found in another column: to which we di rect the attention of those afflicted with Liver-complaint, Dyspepsia, etc.

"How modest worth neglected lies" does not apply to the popularity of "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative." Its worth, though modest, is fully appreciated by the millions who use no other preparation. - N. Y. Sunday Times.

BONNETS, HATS, ETC. - We direct attention to the card of Miss Reed, published today. Persons in want of bonnets, hats, trimmings, etc., are requested to call and examine her assortment, which embraces the latest styles. Prices moderate.

RAFTING. - Within the past week, a large number of rafts passed this place on their way to market. An unusual amount of 'stoving' occurred in the mountains, and some very valuable rafts are reported as entire losses to their owners. These losses are not all attributed to mere accident, but, in some cases, as we are informed, to the carelessness and incompetency of the pilots. If this be the fact, we would advise owners of rafis to be more careful in the future as to whom they employ as pilots. It would be better to leave the timber lie, than to entrust its running to inexperienced, incompetent, or care less persons.

EXCELLENT WHITEWASH .- A lady correspondent of the Germantown Telegraph, send the following to the editor of that paper, with the remark that she "has found it to be excellent and the best she ever tried," and wishes others to have the benefit of her experience: "As the house-cleaning time will soon be here, it may not be amiss to say a few words in regard to whitewashing. There are many recipes published, but we believe the following to be the best that can be used: white chalk is the best substitute for lime as a wash. A very fine and brilliant whitewash preparation of chalk is called 'Paris white.' This we buy at the paint stores for three cents a pound, retail. For each sixteen pounds of Paris white we procure half a pound of the white transparent glue, costing twenty-five cents (fifty cents a pound). The sixteen pounds of Paris white are about as much as a person will use in a day. It is prepared as follows: the glue is covered with cold water at night and in the morning is earefully heated, without scorching, until dissolved. The Paris white is stirred in with hot water enough to give it the proper milky consistency for applying to the walls and the dissolved glue is then added and thoroughly mixed. It is then applied with a brush like the common lime whitewash. Except on very dark and smoky walls and ceilings, a single coat is sufficient. It is nearly equal in brilliancy to 'zinc white,' a far more expensive article.'

An Organ "Galloping" into Favor. A most remarkable piece of musical mechanism, in the shape of an organ, representing the vox humana, (human voice,) is creeping or rather galloping into public favor. It is known as the "Burdett Organ," whose tones, no not tones merely or abstractly considered as such, but whose utterances are made to excite almost any emotions of the human heart, whether of joy or of sorrow, at the will of the performer, and cause the listener to wonder how it lives without eating and drinking, like human beings. Those enterprising gentlemen, H. Kleber & Bro., 122 Wood street, Pittsburg. have it for sale, and would be pleased to exhibit to those who desire to witness its powers, the wonderful capacity it possesses to inspire our minds, stir our hearts, and mingle its tender and touching sympathies with those of the human breast. It is said that one gentleman, on visiting this amazing specimen of human invention, for the second time, so far forgot himself that he acttally addressed it-"Good morning Mad-Am!"-Eastern exchange paper. Charch, and by her exemplary walk, the boldness of her profession, and the spiritua ity of her life, gave satisfactory evidence that she was living in close communion with God. Being young, however, and the world presenting so many allurements she was led astray. Becoming burdened with the care of a family, and moving her residence frequently and at short intervals, her Church relations were dissolved. On vals, her Church relations were dissolved. On approaching her last illness, her spiritual sky was clouded. She frequently expressed to her most intimate friends bitter regrets for that course of conduct that had driven the Saviour from her heart, and robbed her of religious enjoyment. Remembering, that "if any one sin, we have an advocate with the Father." she turned with all her heart to Christ, and being encouraged by the counsel and praye s of christian friends around her, was enabled to cast herself entirely upon the her, was enabled to east herself entirely upon the merits of the atonement and realize that the blood of Christ cleanseth from sin and destroys the fear of death. The last week of her life was doubtless the happiest She frequently express-ed herself as desirous to depart, and often prayed for her speedy deliverance from earth. death was truly peaceful and triumphant. She leaves a husband and two small children, with a large circle of relatives and friends, to mourn
