

RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., MAY 13, 1868.

Tyone and Clearfield Railroad. Train leaves Tyone at 9:20 a.m. Arrives at Philipsburg at 11:20 a.m. Train leaves Philipsburg at 2:05 p.m. Arrives at Tyone at 4:00 p.m.

RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. Nixdorf in the Lutheran church morning and evening. By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian) in the Court House, morning and evening. By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the evening. By Rev. Hayes, in the Baptist Church, in the morning.

Don't fail to read the new advertisements.

STORE ROOM FOR RENT.—H. B. Swoope, Esq., offers the store-room, on the lots opposite his residence, for rent.

BUTTER.—Butter is still scarce here and is ten cents per pound higher than in Pittsburg. Who wouldn't live in Clearfield?

FROST.—Within the past week we had several heavy frosts in this county. Whether the fruit sustained any injury or not, in consequence, we have not learned.

NEW HOTEL.—We learn that our enterprising neighbor, Geo. N. Colburn, proprietor of the Clearfield House, has commenced the erection of a large hotel on his lots near the place selected for the Railroad depot. Mr. Colburn could not make a more profitable investment.

DEARTH OF LOCALS.—Things seems to be moving along so quietly in Clearfield, that we have no accidents, catastrophes, startling events, etc., to record. When the local column of a country paper is "short," it speaks well for the peace, quietness, and prosperity of the people.

ANOTHER FLOOD.—The rains last week, caused a rise in the river sufficient to enable the lumbermen to get off the rafts that had been left behind on the former flood. Merchants below, who have not secured their stock, had better take advantage of this, as it will be the last run of the season.

IMPORTANT MATTER.—A town having been laid out on the western side of the river, the next step is to extend the borough limits to include the addition. Indeed, the question of the borough limits needs regulation badly. Nobody seems able to tell exactly what is in the borough, and what is not. The original charter extended from Locust to Cherry street. How the additional lots got in, nobody knows. Something ought to be done about it at once.

NEW GAME LAW.—The last Legislature passed a general game law, applicable alike to all parts of the State. According to its provisions, it is unlawful to shoot, kill, trap, or destroy any blue-bird, swallow, or martin, or other insectivorous bird at any season of the year. Deer, fawn or elk are only to be hunted or killed during the months of September, October and November; wild turkeys, pheasants or rabbits, from September 1st to January 1st; partridges or quails from October 20th to December 20th; woodcock or snipe from September 1st to March 1st. No birds to be trapped or taken by means of nets, or any other method than by shooting, and no eggs to be destroyed. Penalty, a fine not exceeding $25 for each offence, with costs, and imprisonment not exceeding thirty days.

JURY LIST.—Below we give the names of the Jurors drawn for May term 1868: Beccaria—Stewart Cowen, jr. Bloom—G. P. Bloom, Harvey Marshall, jr. Boggs—Roland Faust, Charles Sloan. Mossop vs. Leonard, E. & Co.

Let it be always remembered that "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" is not a dye: that it does not color the scalp, but by its remarkable life-giving properties restores the hair to its original lustre and beauty.—Detroit Tribune.

REMOVED.—We have been requested to state that John McQuiklin, Licensed Auctioneer, has removed to New Washington, in this county. John is a jolly fellow, and a good Auctioneer. Persons in want of his services will hereafter address him at the above named place.

The Democratic Foot Ball. It is very puzzling to know what the Democratic party is going to do about negro suffrage. "Resolved," says the last Democratic State Convention of Ohio, "that we are opposed both in principle and policy to negro suffrage." "Resolved," on the other hand, says the last Democratic State Convention of South Carolina, (of all the States in the Union!) "that we declare our willingness, when we have the power, to grant colored citizens, with proper qualifications as to property and intelligence, the right of suffrage." "Resolved," again, say the Democrats of Illinois, in State Convention assembled, "that the right of suffrage shall be limited to the white race in this country." Still again, the scene changes to Georgia, where according to an enthusiastic letter written by B. H. Hill, a leading Democrat, "a very large torchlight procession of Democratic Niggers are marching through the streets." "Proclaim it," cries the joyful Mr. Hill, "throughout upper Georgia, that everything is safe!"—Examiner.

An Important Lesson. One of the singular results of progress is the fact that improved farms are cheaper in the Eastern States, than in the West. This is accounted for by the fact that the spirit of speculation in the East, years ago, drove the active portion of the laboring community to the West. The landed lords of the East had imbibed the notion that they could monopolize all around them, but in their greed they drove labor from their midst, until they now find themselves without the population from whose productive toil the rich are made richer and localities enhanced in value. The lesson of the East is a salutary one. Of all lands in the world, the United States are the least adapted for a landed aristocracy, and the community which cheapens its lands is sure to become permanently prosperous and able to withstand all rivalry, because it will retain in its midst men of energy and small means, who are, after all, the real sources of solid prosperity.

The Washington Intelligencer remarks that "beyond the shores of time a disclosure will be made of these impeachers" who signed the letter indorsing General Butler's opinion of Judge Black's Alta Vela claim. It occurs to us that the period designated by the Intelligencer for the fearful disclosure will be too late to be of much advantage to the President or of much interest to the public.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. THE GREAT REMEDY FOR ALL DISEASES OF THE LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

Hoofland's German Bitters. It is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medicinally termed, extracts) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation of the highest concentration, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the great quantity of the Best of French Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcohol admixture, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. Those who have no objection to the combination of the Bitters, as stated, will use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the difference between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous debility, &c., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing so closely as it does with the Stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases: Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Dignost for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering of the Heart, Headache, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, best, Limbs, etc. Sudden flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Irritability of the Liver, and great Irritability of the Stomach. The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit. It is his duty, therefore, to be free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit those well-known remedies: Hoofland's German Bitters and Hoofland's German Tonic, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, Pa.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have cured thousands of more cases, and benefitted suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic, Nervous Debility, Chron. F. le Diarrhoea, Diseases of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

Resulting from any cause whatever; prostration of the system, induced by severe labor, hardships, exposure, fevers, etc.

There is no medicine so well adapted to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow fever, the jaundice, the eye, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE. And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant evils, first in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, a salutar effect will be witnessed in their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, "never feel well." They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite. To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN. Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those that will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS. Hon. George W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Penn'a., writes: Philadelphia, March 16, 1867. "I find Hoofland's German Bitters a good tonic, useful in all diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility, and want of nervous action in the system. Yours truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."

Hon. James Thompson, Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, writes: Philadelphia, April 23, 1866. "I consider Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

From Rev. Joseph H. Kennard, D. D., Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia. Dr. Jackson, Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as one of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, 8th bet Coates st.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall, Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia. I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as most valuable tonic to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.

CAUTION. Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. See that the signature of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each bottle. All others are counterfeits. Principal Office and Manufactory at the German Medicine Store, No. 631 ARCH Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
