

RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL.

CLEARFIELD, PA., MAY 27, 1868.

THE TWO WORKERS.

Two workers in one field Toiled on from day to day, Both had the same hard labor, Both had the same small pay; With the same blue sky above, The same green grass below, One soul was full of love, And one was full of woe.

One leaped up with the light, With the soaring of the lark, One felt it ever night, For his soul was ever dark. One heart was hard as stone, One heart was ever gay, One worked with many a groan, One whistled all the day.

One had a fencer clad cot Beside a merry mill, Wife and children near the spot, Made it sweeter, fairer still. One a wretched hovel had, Full of discord dirt, and din, No wonder he seemed mad, Wife and children starved within.

The Methodist General Conference, now in session at Chicago, may be said to represent the whole Methodist family throughout the world, and is authorized to legislate for that part of it resident in the United States. The Methodist Church, according to the latest official figures attainable, numbers, exclusive of probationers, 3,309,729 members. Of this number 2,497,540 are resident in America, and 2,358,425 are members of the churches represented in the present Conference, and are resident in the United States. The Methodist Church, as is well known, has grown to be one of the most prominent branches in Protestantism throughout the world; the above figures reveal the fact that a great proportion of the members of the Church are resident in this country.

TOO BAD.—Miss Betsy Pearl is "fair, fat and forty," and unmarried. She manages to obtain an honest and comfortable living by keeping a small shop of "notions." She is a spruce old dame, and, among other articles, vends spruce beer. One evening a customer called for a glass of the beverage inquiring at the same time if it was new made beer.

"No," exclaimed a waggish bystander, just as the worthy dame was about to reply in the affirmative; "I can assure you it is 'old maid' beer."

The wag was seen suddenly to leave the lady's premises with a glass flying after him.

A minister of Indianapolis proposes that hereafter, instead of saying, "let us sing the Doxology," the minister shall say, "let us put on our overcoats, adjust our feet, slip on gloves, grab our hats, look to the Lord, and be dismissed."

An old lady, reading an account of a distinguished old lawyer who was said to be the father of the New York bar, exclaimed: "Poor man! he had a dreadful set of children!"

The hog may not be thoroughly posted in arithmetic, but when you come to square root he is there—the hog is.
