CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 10, 1868.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET. FOR PRESIDENT, Gen. ULYSSES S. GRANT, FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Hon. SCHUYLER COLFAX.

The Registry Law. The Pennsylvania Legislature, at its last session, passed a supplementary act to the election laws of this Commonwealth.

The leading Democratic organ—the paper boasting the largest circulation North and South—is disgusting many Southern readers by its baseness of sentiments.

First—Name and occupation of every voter. Second—Ascertain whether he is a housekeeper or not. State where he resides, and in villages, on what Street and No. if any.

Other duties besides the above are to be performed by the County Commissioners, and by the assessors and the election officers.

In Oregon the Democratic Congressman was elected by about 550 majority on an increased vote in the State. Last year the Republican majority was 327.

GRANT'S ACCEPTANCE LETTER.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing on the 2d inst., says: I have heard a story, to-night, relative to the writing of Gen. Grant's letter of acceptance, which may be interesting to the admirers of the General.

Grant and Colfax Ratification meetings have been held all over the country, at which the candidates and platform of the Republican party are endorsed with the greatest enthusiasm.

General McClellan was, on Saturday, rejected in the Senate of the United States as Minister to England.

Hard to Beat. While the small-fry Democratic newspapers, and especially those of the Brick Pomeroy school, are denouncing the Republican candidates, and uttering against them the most glaring falsehoods, the leading minds of the party fully appreciate the strength of the Republican ticket, and the intrinsic value of its candidates.

This is true, and known to be true by all intelligent men. There is not an election district throughout the United States in which the Chicago nominees will not secure Democratic votes, no matter who are the candidates of the Democratic party.

Too Much of it. The leading Democratic organ—the paper boasting the largest circulation North and South—is disgusting many Southern readers by its baseness of sentiments.

No man ever lived, perhaps, who had fewer political friends in the South than Mr. Lincoln; but, notwithstanding this, there was no man whose violent death was more generally lamented among our people.

A NEW DODGE.—The way that Democratic voters are made in Virginia, is very forcibly illustrated by the recent publication of the text of the written contract which the white planters and farmers of that State are found to be generally making with their black laborers and renters, this year.

SO THEN!—Some of the Copperhead papers are claiming the late election in Williamsport as a "Democratic victory." But Col. Tate denies it. He says that Dr. Logan was elected on local issues.

CONVICTED OF FRAUDS.—In the United States Circuit Court, Brooklyn, Friday afternoon, ex-Collector Callioot, convicted of revenue frauds, was sentenced to a fine of $1,000 and two year's imprisonment in the Albany Penitentiary.

Grant and Colfax Ratification meetings have been held all over the country, at which the candidates and platform of the Republican party are endorsed with the greatest enthusiasm.

Gen. Sickles, at the close of his Grant speech at Milwaukee, very appropriately quoted from Tennyson on the duke of Wellington, as follows:

Miles O'Reilly charges the Democratic party with cowardice never before practiced by any political organization, and predicts the falling to pieces of the party before the summer campaign which Grant and Colfax are about to wage against it.

A Little of Everything. Santa Anna is said to be dreadfully poor. Men of extremes—batters and bootmakers. Court commences in this place on Monday next.

The trial of Jeff Davis has been postponed to October. Our Forest county neighbors are erecting a new Court House and Jail.

It is said that hogs are dying in Maryland from the effects of eating locusts. The Boston Journal suggests that Gen. Butler's last hobby is a "Wooley" mule.

Chief Justice Chase is at Richmond, engaged in the trial of cases on the civil docket in the U. S. Court. An exchange tells of a man who stopped his paper on Saturday and died the next day.

George C. Gorham, of California, has been elected Secretary of the U. S. Senate, in place of John W. Forney, resigned. The Fenian arms stored at St. Albans have been secretly spirited away, and so the excitement continues in Canada.

The graves of the Union Soldiers in all the cemeteries throughout the land, were decorated with flowers on Saturday last. Great enthusiasm prevails in California over the nominations of Grant and Colfax.

The Registration law has been fully argued before the Supreme Court at Philadelphia, which adjourned to July 1st, when a decision will be pronounced.

When A. T. Stewart heard of the nomination of Grant and Colfax he got his big flag out which he used to display when there had been a Union victory during the war.

Every member of the Arkansas Legislature now in Session is able to sign his own name. Such an incident has not hitherto occurred within the memory of the oldest inhabitant of the State.

It is said to be a fact that the Postmaster General has lately received letters asking why Petroleum V. Nasby is allowed to remain in his department while bringing odium on the Administration.

A Democratic paper says, the platform of the Republican party may be spelled with five letters—G-R-A-N-T. To which a republican contemporary retorts: Only four are necessary to spell the Democratic—R-A-N-T.

The "Canaan child murderer," Joseph Brown, who murdered a little girl to get her life-insurance of $5,000, and then set fire to his dwelling to cover up the crime, was hanged in Hudson, N. Y., on Saturday, May 30th.

The Presbyterians in Bellefonte seem to be divided in opinion as to the material to be used in erecting a new church—some favor blue stones, others white stones, and a third class for brick.

The Letters of Acceptance. In the brief speech which Gen. Grant made to the Committee that was appointed by the National Republican Convention, to wait upon the candidates and tender the nomination, the General intimated that on a future day he would communicate his views. He has done so in the following:

GEN. GRANT'S LETTER. To Gen. Joseph B. Hawley, President National Union Republican Convention: In formally accepting the nomination of the National Union Republican Convention of the 21st of May, it seems proper that some statement of views beyond the mere acceptance of the nomination should be expressed.

With great respect, your obedient servant, U. S. GRANT. Washington D. C. June 1, 1868.

The following is the reply of Speaker Colfax to the Committee announcing his nomination by the Chicago Convention: SPEAKER COLFAX'S LETTER.

Dear Sir: The platform adopted by the patriotic Convention over which you presided, and the resolutions which so happily supplement it, so entirely agree with my views as to a just national policy that my thanks are due to the delegates and much to the clear and auspicious declaration of principles as for the nomination with which I have been honored, and which I gratefully accept.

THEY VOTE AS THEY FOUGHT.—The Morgantown, West Virginia Post, says: We do not know of a single honorably discharged Union soldier in Morgantown acting or voting with the Copperhead party; while on the other hand there are dozens of honorably discharged Union soldiers acting and voting with the Republican Union party.

THE DEMOCRACY OF OLD BERKS are completely disheartened. The nomination of Grant and Colfax has thrown a wet blanket upon their bright hopes, in that county as well as in all other parts of the country.

our flag could not have been kept flying in the field until the long-hoped for victory came. Without a Republican party the Civil Rights bill—the guarantee of equality under the law to the humble, and the defenseless, as well as to the strong—would not be to-day upon our National Statute book.

Can there be anything more satisfactory of the chances for merit in this country than the way that Grant and Colfax have risen? Only a few years since they were comparatively unknown—one a type, the other of the honorable calling by which Simon Peter is designated in the Sacred Records.

Chances for Greatness. Can there be anything more satisfactory of the chances for merit in this country than the way that Grant and Colfax have risen? Only a few years since they were comparatively unknown—one a type, the other of the honorable calling by which Simon Peter is designated in the Sacred Records.

The Senate very properly holds that the Attorney General's office is not a proper place for a man who declares its legislation to be unconstitutional, and has committed himself to the utmost degree of official opposition to the enforcement of such laws.

GENERAL GRANT'S OPINION OF "COPPERHEADS."—The editor of the New York Evening Post states in that paper that Gen. Grant said not long ago in his hearing: "The rebels were whipped, as it was our duty to do; they fought us bravely, and I, for one, have no spite against them. If they behave themselves I shall think well of them."

It is announced that General McClellan has written a letter in response to a friend, who asked permission to present his name for Presidential nomination at New York, emphatically declining to be a candidate before the Democratic National Convention, and urging the necessity of nominating a new man for the presidency.

It is made from Magnetic Iron—its square, grooved, spiral-twisted and galvanized, and connected with pure copper couplings, rendering it equal to a continuous rod of pure copper, and forming a continuous rod from the point to the ground—the combination of metals forming a galvanic battery in the rod, which remains bright and clean, and will never corrode or rust, thus presenting a neat ornamental appearance on the building, more than its cost as a matter of protection to save nothing about its sure protection against lightning.
