RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows:
By Rev. Nixdorf in the Lutheran church in the morning.
By Rev. Archer (Presbyterian), in the Court House, morning and evening.
By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church, in the evening.
By Rev. Hayes, in the Baptist Church, in the morning.

REPUBLICAN County Convention.

The Republican County Convention will be held in the Court House, in the Borough of Clearfield, on Wednesday evening, the 17th of June, at 7 o'clock.

It is important that every township should be represented. Candidates are to be nominated—Congressional, Senatorial and Representative. Conferees to be selected, and other important business is to be transacted. By order of the County Committee.

H. B. SWOOPÉ, Chairman.

To BLACKSMITHS.—Ed. A. Irwin & Co., at Curwensville, offer a first class Blacksmith Shop for rent. The location is a good one, and an industrious man could secure a large amount of work. Read his advertisement.

DEDICATION.—The Evangelical Lutheran church, in Bloomingville, will be dedicated to the worship of the Triune God on Sunday, June 21st, 1868. Several clergymen from a distance are expected to be in attendance.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—We have been requested to state that a Temperance Meeting will be held in the Court House on Monday evening, June 15th. (Court week.) Mr. Wm. Nicholson, of Philadelphia, will be present to address the meeting.

LADIES' FESTIVAL.—The Ladies of the Presbyterian congregation will hold a Strawberry festival on next Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, in Mr. Weaver's store room—the proceeds to be applied to the furnishing of the new Presbyterian church edifice. All are invited to attend.

THE LAND SALES.—The Treasurer's sale of unseated lands, for the unpaid taxes, took place on Monday last, at the Court House. Nearly all the tracts on which the taxes were not paid, were disposed of—the bidding in many instances being very spirited. The sale was adjourned until the 24th day of August.

"Thou art beautiful, and the dark tresses shade thy forehead meek in glossy curls." To assist nature in the cultivation of glossy curls, or to prevent their falling off, by premature disease of the scalp, resort to that wonderful preparation, "Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative," and see what art can do.—Bangor Democrat.

TOBACCO AND CIGARS.—"Lovers of the weed" will be pleased to learn that A. Schollp has opened out in the large and commodious store room, opposite H. B. Swoopé's residence, a general assortment of the best tobaccos and cigars, where all are invited to call. Merchants and others will also be supplied at wholesale prices. See his advertisement.

LIFE OF GRANT.—The American Publishing Company, at Hartford, have in press "A Personal History of Ulysses S. Grant," by Albert D. Richardson; to which they have added a full page steel engraving of Schuyler Colfax, with a comprehensive sketch of his life, and the doings of the Chicago Convention with illustrations. Sold only by subscription. See Advertisement "agents wanted" in to-days paper.

HOW TO KEEP CIDER FRESH.—A correspondent gives the following method for keeping cider fresh and good, the year round: "Take new-made cider, heat in a tin or other vessel that will not color it, then pour into ordinary fruit cans and seal with common can-wax or cement, or with putty. Our correspondent writes that he put up cider in this way last fall, and after standing six months he opened the cans and found the cider to be just as fresh and delicious as when it came from the press. Lovers of pure 'apple juice' should preserve this recipe for future reference.

HUNTING THE POST OFFICE.—A venerable citizen of Bradford, of the Copperhead persuasion, was in town yesterday, on the hunt of a "Democratic Post Office." Said he, "inquiring at a certain place of business, 'that the only Post Office in town?' 'Yes,' was the answer, 'that is the Post Office.' 'Well,' said he, 'Pete told me to be sure and get into the wrong Post Office, he is going to run for Register and Recorder, and he sent along to get it entered, and told me to be sure and get it in the right place.' 'Oh,' said the gentleman, 'it is the printing office you want—it's up there over Mossop's store—the Copperhead per.' 'Yes, that's the right one,' said he, and off he started to have 'Pete' announced in due form. No wonder 'Democratic' flourishes here like a green bay tree.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that the Executive Committee of the Clearfield County Agricultural Society has determined to hold a Fair on Oct. 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th.

A TIMELY WORK.—Messrs. J. B. Burr & Co. of Hartford, have just issued a work entitled "Grant as a Soldier and a Statesman." The title intimates its contents. It will no doubt be eagerly sought for as soon as it appears. The country is desirous of some accurate account of General Grant's whole course in the field of politics, as well as of battle. Ample means for illustrating his opinions upon the questions of the day, exist in his reports, letters and acts; though this fact is generally lost sight of. The work is sold by subscription only. See advertisement in another column.

"PITHOLE ANGELS."—The Tionesto Bee is responsible for the following:

In a neighboring village lives a family who recently emigrated from Pithole, and contains, among other members, two little girls, Annie and Minnie, aged respectively four and eight years. One night, a short time since, as her mother put Annie to bed, she told her "to be a good little girl, go to sleep and the angels would come and stay with her and watch her all through the night." Little Annie's sleep was as sound as the nature of the case would admit, her tender flesh being a rare feast for the miniature snapping turtles that infested her bed. The next morning when her mother came to take her up she gave the following opinion of the angels: "Mother, I don't like them any more, I don't want them to watch me any more, they bite me so." "Oh, Mother! Mother!" exclaimed Minnie, "I know what kind of angels them is; them's Pithole angels!"
