RT. REV. BISHOP KERFOOT will hold service and confirmation in St. Andrews Church, Clearfield, on Sunday, July 12th,

HEIRS WANTED. - The heirs of William J. Hanan, who died in this County some years ago, can learn something to their advantage by applying to H. B. Swoope, Esq., Clearfield, Pa.

1868, at 101 A. M., and 71 P. M.

CHANGE OF FIRM. -By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Joseph R. Irwin has associated with him Ed. Montelius, in the Drug business. Persons wanting anything in their line are requested to give them a call.

THE NEW BRIDGE.-The work on the bridge at the foot of second street has been commenced and is progressing rapidly. It will soon be up, and ready for travel. This is a most important improvement, and will add greatly to the prosperity of our town.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—The Executive Committee of the Clearfield County Agricultural Society, has decided on holding a Fair on the 13th, 14th, 15th and 16th days of October. The premium, list, etc., was received, but was unavoidably crowded out this week. It will appear in our next.

New RAILROAD. - A contract has been entered into with responsible parties to build a railroad from Philipsburg to Morrisdale. The work is to be commenced immediately. It will afford an outlet to the North Eastern part of our County, and will develop some of the very best coal seams in this part of the State.

SonaFountain. -Our enterprising young friend Archy Shaw has procured and set up in his Drug store, a beautiful marble soda fountain, from which issues a most delicious, cool and sparkling beverage, that makes a Archy deserves to be patronized.

RAILROAD TO PUSEYVILLE.—We learn that work was commenced on Monday morning on the railroad from the Moshannon Coal Mines to Pusevville. The distance to complete the road is eight miles. It is to be finished at once and put in running erder, from Osceola to Madera. This will develop a valuable part of our county, and open up a coal field that is sufficient to supply all the markets of the world for years.

THE FOURTH. -- Our National Aniversary was permitted to pass without any general celebration in Clearfield. Some of the young tolks had a pie-nie at Liberty springs, and the still more juvenile America reveled in fire-crackers, chasers, grass-hoppers, and torpedoes. The usual quantity of bad whiskey manifested itself, and a number of individuals left town with bricks in their hats The thermometer stood at 94° in the shade.

THE NORMAL SCHOOL .- The County Superintendant Mr. G. W. Snyder, assisted by Prof. Geist, of Laneaster County, has been conducting a Nermal School in the town hall for some months past. The school has been attended by nearly fifty students, male and female, preparing themselves for teachers. It has been eminently successful. Prof. Geist is an able and competent instructor, and the pupils in attendance have been earnest and indefatigable in their efforts to acquire knowledge. The session will close in about two weeks.

DECLINED. - We learn that David Buck the one armed soldier who was a Democratic candidate for Register and Recorder, has been shoved off the track. David win coon learn, if he has not already discovered it, that a wounded soldier is the very last man who can get an office from the Copperheads. If he had lost this arm in the rebel army, he would have been nominated by acclamation. Especially had he no chance against Lee, whose name alone is a tower of strength with the Democracy. A name so dearly loved by Copperheads and traitors, is sufficient in itself to secure the nomination.

IMPROVEMENT. - The walls of the vestibule and hall in the Court House are being painted. This was much needed as it will preserve the plastering, and hide the vulgar and obscene scribbling with which the buildhad been defaced. We trust the Commissioners will continue the good work by having the Court room frescoed. It is greatly needed, not only as a matter of ornament, but as a remedy for the acoustic defect. The difficulty of hearing in the Court room is caused, in a great measure, by the echo produced by the sudden rebound of the voice from the hard finished and polished walls. If these were painted in colors, the trouble would be, in a great degree, removed. sores on the hands .

WE advise all young people who intend going from home to school, to go to the State Normal School at Edinboro. It is cheap, thorough and practical.

The Normal School is well provided with facilities for preparing teachers. It has a superior set of apparatus. Text books in the common branches are furnished free.

WE CAN assure our readers that Barrett's Vegetable Restorative is a really valuable preparation, and that a trial is all that is needed to convince any one of its excellency. -Pittsburgh Advocate.

WOODRUFF'S BAROMETORS. - Attention directed to the advertisement of these invaluable articles, which will be found in another part of to-day's paper. To the farmer, to whom a knowledge of the comng storm is of immense value, these Barometors, when once tried, will be found indispensable; and as the cost is but trifling we fancy few will be without them. Send

TRUTH. - The only correct way to test the assertions of business men is to give them a trial. Proof conclusive is daily adduced, that Bennett, Blattenberger & Co. make no promises-to break them. The crowds daily waiting, to be waited upon, in their Mammoth Store at Osceola, attest the fact that they sell goods cheaper than any other house in the county. Try their fresh goods

PERSONAL HISTORY OF U. S. GRANT .-By Albert D. Richardson,-This work is authentic, authorized, and approved. Written with the knowledge, consent, and full concurrence of the illustrious General. It differs essentially from the many "Lives of Grant" now appearing before the public, and should by no means be classified with While recording his illustrious achievements both in the Field and Cabinet, it will yet be personal, rather than martial or political, free from military technicalities or partisan coloring, depicting not merely entire life of Grant the man, his daily habits and conversation, his thoughts and his motives, as evinced in his acts and words, under all the many different circumstances of his eventful career, giving, in fact, a full and clear exhibit of the inner, as well as the outer man. It is profusely illustrated and finely printed. ELLIS L. IRWIN, of this

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE 25TH JUDICIAL

I am about to resign the office of Presi dent Judge. Had my personal interests and inclinations been alone consulted, I would man wish his neck was as long as a swan's, have done so at least four years ago. But, my desire to resign, to several of the most to elect a successor at a most unpropitious period. Conceding the force and propriety of the su-gestion, I abandoned my purpose for the time being, though at the sacrifice of my personal wishes. I felt then that my sedentary habits were injuring my health. and that a change to more active pursuits would be greatly to my advantage. Since then the baneful influence of a sedentary life has been gradually growing upon me, until, within a few weeks past my physician has, in kind, but unmistakable language, warned me that if I would escape serious and permanent injury to my health, a change must be made in my manner of life, and that too without delay. This determined me to hesitate no longer, and to give up my

The only question left was, When shall my resignation take effect? In this behalf I determined to act honorably and conscientiously-leaving consequences to fall where they might. A careful consideration of the subject has led me to conclude that it is my duty to resign just now, so as to allow the people to fill the vacancy at the first gener al election that shall occur hereafter. I received my office from the people of the district, and when I can no longer serve therein, a sense of honor and justice prompts me to give back that which was conferred upon me as a sacred trust, immediately to the people from whom I received it, that they may transfer it to a person of their own choice, in the manner provided by the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth. I would be ungrateful indeed, were I to retire from my official position without expressing to you, publicly, my sincere thanks or the uniform kindness with which you have treated me during the whole of my term, and the manner in which my official acts and determinations have been received and sustained by a constituency by far too intelligent to expect in any judicial officer an entire freedom from mistakes in judgment. My frailties and shortcomings have been doubtless not a few, and I have had, therefore great need of the charitable support and indulgence of the people. Of one thing, however, I am certain: That in not a single instance have I ever wilfully erred, or withheld from any man his rights, but have anxiously and earnestly endeavored to do my whole duty. I lay aside the robes of office with a conscience void of offence toward men. In judgment I may have erred

Obituary:

WILLIAM E. MURRAY, the subject of this notice, was born April 1st, 1847, and died May 22d, 1868, at the residence of his father, Alexander Murray, in Girard township, Clearfield county, Pa., in the 22d year of his age. Great respect for his parents and ready compliance with their wishesmanifested by a true appreciation of their kindness and of his indebtedness to them the exploits of Grant the soldier, but the an integrity of purpose and habits of industry and economy, joined with an ardent desire to acquire an education and thus to better quality himself for the stern realities of life, and a naturally affable disposition by which he rapidly gained fast friends-were the prominent traits of his character.

His sickness was severe, and continued two weeks. Though his mind was much afborough, is the authorized agent for its sale, fected by the ravages of his disease (Typhoid fever), he was at all times resigned to the who will call on our citizens and solicit their will of God. A few days before his decease he said "that he was not afraid to die."

Thus has passed away in the flush of earprominent and discreet men of the district, ly manhood one who gave promise of a life without distinction of party, they united in whose career would have honored his pasuggesting that I would be doing injustice rents and his country, and gathered around to my constituents should I resign in the him a host of friends. As we mourn the midst of the excitement that prevailed du- departure of one so young, and are startled ring the war, and thus require the people at this nysterious dispensation of Divine Providence, we look up through our tears to God and read "What thou knowest not now thou shalt know hereafter."

To the sorrowing parents and family, whose generous hospitality I shared during the first days of his sickness and when I learned to feel most deeply for the suffering one, I extend sincere sympathy; gently bidding them look forward to Heaven as the great place where broken families shall come together in a ceaseless union. It is WARRANTED always to remain bright and clean, and will never corrode or rust, thus pre-senting a neat ornamental appearance on the building, worth more than its cost as a matter of ornament, to say nothing about its sure protection against lightning.

To show the popularity of the Galvanized Stal Rod, it is only necessary to say that the propri-etors have pulled off more than one hundred tons of old rusty irons, within twelve months, from colleges, academies, public buildings, barns, etc., and put up the Star Rod in their place. and put up the Star Rod in their place.

As the "STAR" is better and sold at a less price than any other rod, is more durable and more ornamental, persons should consult their own interests and safety to life and property, before they have a rod erected on their buildings.

All that is necessary to convince the public of the superiority of the Star Lightning Rod, is a thorough examination into its construction and scientific combination.

The undersigned, being the Agents for Clearfield county, will put up rods, for all who may desire them, on short notice and reasonable terms. Call and examine them at their store in Clearfield.
