NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, Gen. ULYSSES S. GRANT, FOR VICE PRESIDENT, Hon. SCHUYLER COLFAX.

FOR SENATOR GENERAL, Gen. JOHN F. HARRISETT, OF Mont'g'y.

FOR CONGRESS, GLENNI W. SCOFIELD, of Warren Co.

REPUBLICAN DISTRICT TICKET. SENATORIAL ELECTORS. MORRISON COATES, of Philadelphia.

REPRESENTATIVE ELECTORS. 1 Wm. H. Barnes, 13 Samuel Knorr, 2 Wm. J. Pullock, 14 H. P. Waggoner, 3 Richard Wiley, 15 Chas. H. Muller, 4 George W. Hill, 16 George W. Elser, 5 Watson P. McGill, 17 John Stewart, 6 Philip H. Bingham, 18 A. C. Howard, 7 Frank Hooper, 19 James Hill, 8 Isaac Eckert, 20 Henry C. Johnson, 9 Morris Hooper, 21 J. K. Ewing, 10 David M. Rank, 22 Wm. Trew, 11 Wm. Davis, 23 A. M. Crawford, 12 Winthrop W. Ketchum, 24 J. S. Rutan.

BOTH REBELS.—Seymour was in favor of the last rebellion. Frank Blair, having got on the wrong side by accident, wants to organize another, that he too may be recognized as a rebel.

Hon. G. W. Scofield. All the Counties in the district having instructed for Hon. G. W. Scofield for Congress, we place his name in the list of candidates.

A Second Rebellion. At the Democratic ratification meeting in Richmond, Virginia, Gov. Vance, of North Carolina, a delegate to the New York Convention, said: "My idea is that what the Confederacy fought for will be won by the election of Seymour and Blair."

In a False Position. Horatio Seymour in the last of his long series of declinations said: "Permit me to say that now, after all that has taken place, I could not be nominated without placing myself and the great Democratic party of the nation in a false position."

The Judgeship. The Copperheads are getting into a muddle about Judge McEnally's successor.

HARMONY RESTORED.—We are pleased to see that our friends in Philadelphia have settled their troubles, and that Mr. Mann and Mr. Hazlehurst have both withdrawn from the contest for the office of District Attorney.

New Paper.—We find among our exchanges this week, a new paper called the "Pensylvania Plaindealer," published at Punksutawey, Jefferson County.

When they have settled the matter and decided who is to be their candidate, it will be time enough for us to inquire whether or not we will make a nomination.

"Sweet William's" Address.

The astute William, "by order of the Democratic State Committee," is out in another characteristic address. William affects the Napoleonic style of writing, and what his laconic paragraphs lack in grammar, terseness, and sense, they fortunately (to use a Celtic expression) make up in brevity. William evidently handles the pen very much as a bear would a dancing needle.

What They Mean. "Let us have peace," says Gen. Grant in his letter of acceptance, and to this the whole Republican party gives a hearty assent.

A Little of Everything. The unusual drought is withering up the vegetation. "Will thou?" said the Convention to Seymour, and he wilted.
