RELIGIOUS .- Divine services will be held pert sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows; By Rev. Nixdorff in the Lutheran church in the morning and evening.

Rev. Archer (Presbyterian), in the Court House, mo ning and evening. By Rev. Guyer in the Methodist church,

By Rev. Hayes, in the Baptist Church, in the morning.

Young persons going from home to school will find a good school at Edinboro.

THE NEW HOTEL, -Mr. Colburn's new hotel, at the depot, is up, and will soon be under roof. It is a commodious, and will be, when finished, a very handsome building. It is to be completed this fall.

ALMOST COMPLETED. -The large Steam Saw mill, at the Southern end of town, is almost completed. The machinery has arrived and is in position. A few more steam whistles will make our town a noisy place.

DEAD .- John Q. Adams, of Julian Furnace, in Centre, county, died on Thursday last. He was nearly eighty years of age. He was well known in this and Centre counnes. He was a brother of David Adams, St., of Clearfield Bridge.

NARROW ESCAPE -- John Low, of Woodward township, made a narrow escape from death on Wednesday last. He was felling a tree, and by some accident, it foll on him. breaking several of his ribs and otherwise duplicity has disgusted him. iniming him. He is rapidly recovering.

TRAGEDY AT ALTOONA .- On Saturday hern Miss Seibert was shot by her lover. me Merklein, who then shot himself, producing instant death. The lady was not dangerously wounded, and will recover. The affair productd great excitement in Altoona.

THE MAIL ROUTES .- The changes made meently by the Post Office Department, in the mail routes in this county, suit nobody. Our subscribers are complaining that they do not get their papers. It is not our fault -they are regularly placed in the Post Office. The whole thing seems to have got Grant, into an inextricable muddle.

A BUSY SUMMER.-All our earpenters and builders are over-run with work. New buildings are being finished in the modern plate of hash. style, handsomely painted, and surrounded The New Bedford Mercury states that at with neat and convenient appurtenances.

From every point of the compass comes the information of Democrats throwing overboard the New York ticket and platform. If it goes on at this rate for a short time there will not be a corporal's guard left. The following are a few instances : The Tipton Times, the most influential Democratic paper in Eigth Indiana District, repudiates both candidates and platform. Gen. Rosecrans is in Chicago and says he 'washes his hands of the Democratic Con- JF.WEAVER vention. The Hon. J. W. Gordon, a prominent Democrat of Indianapolis, has publiely announced himself for Grant and Colfax. The Huntington Globe (War Democrat) hoists the names of Grant and Colfax and the whole Republican ticket. The Bedford correspondent of the Philadelphia Press, writing from the springs, states that Justice Grier, now among the visitors at that famous watering place, regards Grant's election as morally certain. John Morissey, who, with all his drawtacks, is a man of his word, has bolted Sevmour and is going for Grant. Seymour'

The Boston Journal says : A prominent member of the Democratic party said, last night, "I have talked to over a hundred Democrats this afternoon and evening, and they all think as I do-that no honest man can vote for Seymour and no white man for Sash, Doors, Blinds, Brackets, and Frank Blair. The Ogdensburg Journal says : A gentleman of this town, heretofore one of the strongest Democrats in Election District No. 1. declared, in our presence, on Wednesday, his determination to vote for General Grant. He says there is no use in trying to disguise the fact that the people are for the hero of Vicksburg, Fort Donelson and Richmond.
