Democratic Taxation. A recent speech of Judge Scoffeld puts the beauties of Democratic financiering, for taxes and revenue, in a very just light. nothing at all, if they were in power. Instead of collecting the revenues from whisky, tobacco, banks, incomes, and a few articles of luxury as now, they would tax everythe land of the farmer, the workingman's ward, home, the same as the "bloated" income of the millionaire and the profits of "those infernal banks." They would levy their taxes directly, according to the population of the States, and ultimately their taxes would be "direct" in more senses than one. Under Democratic rule, as foreshadowed in the New York platform, every citizen, the poor and the rich alike, would be personally made acquainted with the federal tax-gatherer. With these direct taxes, with opened ports and free trade, with our toiling millions underworked by the oppressed peasantry of Europe, our manufacturers crushed, and the old Democratic doctrine of low wages again in the ascendant, that 'happy' era which a distinguished Democrat sighed for, the period when a "sheep's head and pluck" would be pay enough for the day's labor of any poor man, would at last be inaugurated for a wretched and impoverished land and a peoaristocracies, our modern "Democracy." And what a nice time we should have in in paying our taxes then!

A Word to Republicans.

that the vote of Pennsylvania in October will powerfully effect the November election in every other State in the Union, as well as in our own State. Our political opponents know this as well as we do, and hence they are working assiduously, day and night, to bring out their full vote. Hence we say to the Republicans everywhere throughout the State, no matter how safe. any particular election district or county may be considered, labor earnestly and unceasingly to get out your vote on the Second | rades of the Empire State. Tuesday of October. That is the time when the work must be done, to insure an overwhelming triumph in November. We have the votes to carry Pennsylvania by at least 25,000 majority for Grant and Colfax if we do our whole duty at the State election. Then let every Republican feel as if his country could not do without his vote, and that his neighbor's vote must under no cir-

The October Election.

In a little over one month the election will be here. The contest is an important one, involving the stability and perpetuity of the Union, for should the election be permitted to go by default, and Seymour and Blair be elected, another rebellion is almost morally certain. Are the people willing to risk another probable war? We opine not! Then let every friend of his country, and of peace be vigilant and active. Let every man devote at least a few days to the best interests of his country. See your neighbors, talk with them, and urge them to go with you to the polls on the Second Toesday of October and cast their ballots for HARTHANET and CAMPBELL, the Republican candidates for Auditor General and Surveyor General, and the election of Grant and Colfax in November is a fixed fact, and the threatened new rebellion will be crushed in its incipiency. Then, will you exercise the freeman's privilege, by voting to save your country the horrors of another bloody war? You know you should do this, for it is a duty you owe to yourself, ly for Grant and Colfax. to your family, to your friends, to your neighbors, to humanity, and above all, to your country and the free institutions under which you live, and which you love. Then, Ly all that you hold sacred and dear, we en- Seymour and Blair. treat and urge you not to neglect the freeman's right of voting, and to fearlessly discharge that duty on the side of the Union. and in behalf of peace and national pros-

The Right View.

Since the Vermont election the Herald has taken a new tack and pronounces the Seymour and Blair cause hopeless. - As the first "preliminary skirmish of the great national battle of November," it proves that Seymour and Blair cannot come to time.

"The Democratic party, in its Presidenlial ticket and platform, and by its speakers and newspaper organs, has raised the issue of the unconstitutionality of the pre Congress, and of every Congress and all acts of Congress since the beginning of the war which has made this Presidential contest substantially the contest of 1864 over again. This is the light in which the voters of Vermont viewed the issue, and the verdict, as the Herald wisely concludes, foreshadows that of the country in November.

Township and Borough Officers.

We would remind our Republican friends, that a law was passed last winter, making it the duty of the citizens of the several Town ships and Boroughs, in the County of Clearfield, to elect their Judges, Inspectors, Constables, Assessors, Supervisors, and other local officers, on the Second Tuesday of October herafter. In view of this law our friends should meet at once in their several election districts and nominate candidates for township officers, so that they can have their tickets either written or printed before election day-otherwise they may be without proper officers the coming year. Don't neglect this.

Are you Assessed?

As the election is close at hand, every voter should examine the tax list stuck up by the Assessor in his district to see if his ple fatally deluded by the heresies of that name is thereon. If not found upon such most grasping, selfish and soulless of all list, you must go to the Assessor in person and have your name entered-it having been decided that no assessment is legal except upon the personal application of the voter to be assessed. Let every m n attend to this highly important duty at once, lest Let our friends everywhere bear in mind he should be deprived of his vote at the

"Not fit to Vote."

That the soldiers of the Union army vere not, in the opinion of Horatio Seymour, fit to vote, is proved by his veto of the act of the New York Legislature which provided for their ballots being taken in camp and field. His veto bears date April 24th, 1863. The soldiers of Pennsylvania will certainly resent this insult to their com-

"THE DRIFT OF THE TIDE."

That "tide," of which Wallace spoke, still keeps "drifting" onward in the direction of Grant and Colfax. If it continues at the same rate from now to the election. there will scarcely be a Corporal's guard left to rally in support of Seymour and Blair. We append a few more samples:

The Boston Daily Advertiser has the following letter from a literary gentleman who voted for Douglas and McClellan :

The National Union, published at Cineinnati, edited by Enos B. Reed, Esq., hitherto independent in politics, has hoisted the standard of Grant and Colfax. In the last issue Mr. Reed defines his position:

We ook upon the present campaign as only the war between the North and the South re-'lost cause' is triumphant in the ascendancy of the Democracy. We opposed the South during the war, and we cannot affiliate with We opposed the South rebels now who declare that they are only laboring for the triumph of the South over the North as d to undo all that a four years terrible war accomplished. We can never affiliate with such men as Brick Pomerov and Wade Hampton, representative types Northern traitors and Southern rebels. We do not fight with Frank Blair in his proposed revolutionary project. Henceforth we battle with Grant and Coleax, but shall always speak our mind freely concerning all political parties. We are neither I ide-bound nor party-bound, but shall ever be found ad vocating those men and measures which we believe the best fend to promote the interests of the entire country.

Put that paragraph from the Pittsburg Post of August 30, 1868, in your pocket, reader; refer to it occasionally, when you can find a Democratic "soldier" to talk to, and ask him how that kind of Democratic loyalty suits him.

A HINT TO LADIES .- Woman's chief or nament is her hair. No matter how regu lar the contour of the features may be-how lustrous the eye-how sweet the voice or graceful the form, if the hair be not soft, glos y and beautiful, the chief attraction is wanting. A lady remarkable for the beauty of her hair, remarked in our bearing, the other day, that she owed to the moderate and constant use of "Barrett's Hair Restorative" a deep obligation, for by it she had become locally famous for the abundance and luster of her hair. Using it constantly ourselves we can add our testimony that as a dressing and restorative combined, Bar rett's is superior to any Hair Preparation we have ever used. It is reasonable in price, too, costing only one dollar for a large bottle full of the mixture. - Cin. Sunday Globe.
