REPUBLICAN CANVASS.

In accordance with the request of Republicans throughout the county, the following meetings will be held, to wit: At GOSHEN, Saturday evening, September 12th. At OSCEOLA, Monday evening, September 14th. At KYLERTOWN, Tuesday evening, September 15th.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

PATCHEVILLE, Sept. 1, 1868. EDITOR JOURNAL: The Republicans of Burnside township assembled at Patchville, on Monday evening, August 31st, as per previous notice. The meeting was organized by electing Mr. D. Kim President, and W. J. N. agent Secretary.

T. H. Murray, Esq., was then called on to address the people. His remarks were able and convincing, and were received with marked attention by the entire audience. After speaking for about one hour, he retired from the stand amidst the shouts of "go on, go on!"

The next speaker was J. H. Fulford, Esq., whose happy hits elicited frequent rounds of applause. His remarks were well timed and to the point. Capt. G. W. Curry, of Philadelphia, was then called upon. His earnest, eloquent, and forcible remarks carried conviction with them, to the minds of all present.

The County Committee deserves great credit for having secured the services of such gentlemanly and talented speakers. They deal in facts alone, and present them in a forcible, logical and truthful manner, without that gossamer and bulging blackguardism which so frequently characterizes political stump speaking.

In point of numbers, and of good order, this meeting is believed to have been the most respectable of the kind ever assembled in the township. At a late hour the meeting adjourned amid enthusiastic cheers for Grant and Colfax.

The Republicans of Burnside are wide awake and active, and will do their whole duty at the fall elections. Yours, W. Y.
