Republican Meeting.

A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in Curwensville, on Friday evening October 23d, which was presided over by the following officers:

President-Elisha Fenton.

Vice Presidents-Simon Thompson, Jacob Hoover, G. Philip Guelich, Arthur Bell, H. H. Hurd, Wm. Irvin, Sr., Robert M'Naul, Dr. R. V. Spackman, Isaac Kirk, Isaac Thompson, Sr., James Glenn, James Forrest, and John Barclay.

Secretaries-Dr. S. M'Cune, S. J. Row. After the organization of the meeting, II. B. Swoope, Esq., was loudly called for by the assembled multitude. He responded in an appropriate, argumentative and convin- haif cing speech-presenting the issues involved in the Presidential contest in a clear, pointed and concise manner. He was frequently interrupted by bursts of applause, giving evidence that his remarks were appreciated by the large concourse of people present.

Thomas H. Murray, Esq., was the next speaker. His speech was certainly a good one-full of pith and argument-and one that would have done credit to a speaker of riper years and more experience. He was

The stand, which was erected for the occasion, was profusely and beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers, by the ladies of Curwensville, which added much to the interest and success of the meeting. We tender them the thanks of the Republican party of Clearfield county for the aid extended in this respect, and for their presence at the meeting.

The torch light procession was not what we could have wished it, nevertheless it was a very creditable affair, and added greatly to the interest and enthusiasm of the occasion. Altogether the meeting was a grand sucsess, and we anticipate that much good will result therefrom.

FIXED FOR LIFE.-We learn from the Newark Courier that Gen. Geo. B. M'Clellan has at last been settled for life. The executors of the Edwin A. Stevens' estate, have employed him at an annual salary of $10,000 a year, to superintend the completion of the famous Stevens battery at Hopieces of music. The National Republican party of the United The National Republican party of the United States, assembled in national Convention in the city of Chicago on the 20th day of May, 1868, makes the following declaration of principles.

1. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction policy of Congress as evinced by the adoption, in a majority of the States lately in rebellion, of constitutions secur States lately in rebellion, of constitutions secur-ing equal civil and political rights to all, and re-gard it as the duty of the Government to sustain those institutions, and to prevent the people of such States from being remitted to a state of an-archy.

2. The guarantee by Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men at the south was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude and of justice, and must be maintained while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States propquestion of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States

3. We denounce all forms of repudiation as a National crime, and the National honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to all creditors at home and abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the law under which it was contracted.

4. It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

of debt, is to so improve our credit so that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert is threatened or suspected.

7. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy, and the corruptions, which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson, call loudly for radical reform.

8. We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln and regret the accession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidency, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him and the cause he was pledged to support, has usurped high legislative and judicial functions, has refused to execute the laws, has used his high office to induce other officers to ignore and violate the laws, has employed his executive powers to render insecure the property. nore and violate the laws, has employed his exe-cutive powers to render insecure the property, peace liberty and life of the citizen, has abused the pardoning power, has denounced the national legislature as unconstitutional, has persistently and corruptly resisted, by every measure in his power, every proper attempt at the reconstruc-tion of the States lately in rebellion, has perver-ted the public patronage into an engine of whole-sale corruption, and has been justly impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and properly pronounced guilty thereof by the vote of thirty-five Senators.

9. The doctrine of Great Britain and other Euopean powers, that, because a man is once a sul ject, he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States as a relic of the feuda times, not authorized by the law of nations, and at war with our national honor and indepen dence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship. as though they were native-born, and no citizen of the United States, native or naturalized must be liable to arrest and imprisonment by any foreign power for acts done or words spoken in this coun-try and, if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the government to interfere in his be-late war, there were none entitled to more espe-cial honor than the brave soldiers and scamen who endured the hardships of the campaign and cruise, and imperilled their lives in the service of the country. The bounties and pensions pro-vided by law for these brave defenders of the na-tion are obligations. vided by law for these brave defenders of the nation are obligations never to be forgotten. The widows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people—a secred legacy bequeathed to the nation's protecting care

11. Foreign emigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth, development of resources and increase of power to the nation, the sources and increase of power to the internation. should be fostered and encouraged by a liberial highly applauded in the course of his remarks.

Mr. James Ross was then introduced as "Gen.
