To LOVERS OF GOOD BREAD, -Everybody loves good bread; but no one can have good bread unless they have good flour from which to make it. For the information of our readers, we would say that E. Perks & Co., at their mills in Philipsburg, are manufacturing expressly for family use, a superior article of flour from the best of wheat. The bread baked from their flour is white and spongy, and keeps moist longer than that made from most of the flour that has been sold in this market for some time past. Having tried Perks & Co's flour, we speak from experience, and cheerfully recommend its use to others.

How to Kill a Town. -The editor of the Dubaque Herald, evidently knows whereo? he speaks; and we would recommend his Expections to the careful consideration of our readers. He says: "If you wish to kill of a town, put up no more buildings than you'are obliged to occupy yourself. If you should happen to have an empty building, and one should want to rent it, ask about hree times its actual value. Look at every two mer with a seowl. Turn a cold shouller to every business man or mechanic seekng a home among you. Go abroad for wires rather than purchase of your own merlints or manufacturers at the same prices. Refuse to advertise, so that a person at a stance will not suppose any business is beas done in the place. A prompt and close bervance of these rules will ruin any town istwo years."
