

BY S. J. ROW.

CLEARFIELD, PA., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1869.

"That was an impertinent trick of yours," to have a seat," was the laughing reply.

chanics," was the low retort, not so low, however, but what it was heard by the other, whose eye flashed ang rily for the moment.

Presently, however, the ludicrous side of the affair seemed to strike him ; his honest blue eyes twinkled. He lifted up his worn gloves and counted the holes in them : he

"O, we're not so much at odds as might and I'm carpenter," he said, laughing.

tell a man even a disagreeable truth."

Charles gathered himself up in wrathful dignity, and looked from the window. He Traveling far west, queried he of the hon est blue eyes, in a quiet voice, as if nothing had happened, and he would fain make up the loftiest manner he answered.

companion.

young man.

MARTHA WARREN.

"Good bye, Martha. God help you! I shall be back in three days at the farthest.' The hardy White Mountain pioneer, Mark Warren, kissed his young wife, held his two years old boy to his breast for a moment, and then shouldering the sack of corn which was to be converted into meal at the rude mill, forty miles away, trudged on through the wilderness.

Martha Warren stood at the door of the log cottage, gazing out after the retreating form of her husband. An angle of the dense shrubbery hid him from her view, but still she did not return to the solitary kitchen : it looked so dark and lonesome there, she shrack from entering, or perhaps the grand sublimity of the view spread out before her attracted her attention and thrilled her soul with that nameless, unexpected something that we all see when standing thus face to face with the works of His fingers.

The finest and most satisfactory view of the White Mountains is that which presents telf from what is now the town of Bethlehem, on the road to Littleton and Francomin. Mt. Washington, the king among princes, is there seen in its proper place the centre of the "rock-ribbed" rauge-towering, bald, blue and unapproachable.

Far up in a wild clearing, close by the turhid waters of the Ammonoosoc, was the cottage situated-a place wild and ærie enough for the nest of an eagle, but near to the heart of Martha Warren as the home where she had spent the happy days of her young wifehood. When she had turned from many a patrician suitor, in the fair old town of Portsmouth, to join her fortunes with the fall and perfect understanding of the trials that lay before her. She would walk in no path of roses for years to come; much of life must be spent in the eternal solitudes, crying to go home to papa. where silence was broken only by the wild winds of the forest, the skrick of the river, the sharp rocks, or the dismal howl of the red mouthed wolf afar in the wilderness.

The necessary absence of her husband she in this inhospitable clime-Martha paced dreaded most. It was so very gloomy to back and forth the narrow limits of the rock. close up her lonely fireside, with the con- No one came-the faint sun declined-it scionsness that there was no human being woods

tosmed over these primeval hunting grounds. | of an imprisoned earthquake. ev were mostly disposed to be friendly, and all her mad strength in the blow. The frail fabric tottered, and the soft earth gave way, there was a breath of wild suspense, and then the bridge went down with a dull plunge into the waters beneath! The sharp claws of the wolf had already been fixed on the scant vegetation of the rock, and he held on a moment, struggling with ferocious strength to gain a foothold, the next he slid down inthe chasm, uttering a wild howl of disappointed rage.

Martha sank on her knees and offered up fervid prayer of thanksgiving for her escape; but simultaneously with the heartfelt "Amen," there came a dreadful recol lection. The bridge formed the only link between the Pulpit and the main land, and that was severed ! True, she was not more than twenty feet distant from the shores of the river, but she might as well been thousands of miles out in the ocean. The water was deep and it ran with almost inconceivable rapidity, forty or fifty feet below her, over rocks so sharp and jagged that it made her shiver to look over the brink.

Heronly hope was in her husband. Should he return at the expected time they might still be alive; but if, by any accident he be detained beyond the time! She closed her eyes, and besought God for protection and help.

Cold and hungry, and drenched by the mist of the river, Charlie began to cry for home. She could hear anything better than that. She took off her own garments to fold around him, and held him to her breast and sang him the cradle songs which had so often soothed him.

But the fierce howls of the wolves and the sullen thunders of the river, filling his little heart with terror, all the long dark night through, he clung to her neck, sleeplessly by the people where he lives, and might, I

Day dawned at last, the pale sun swimming through the sickly sky, the pallid forecast of a storm. Weak and faint from cold -for summer is no bearer of tropical smiles

There was little to fear from the Indians, foaming milkwhite down the gorge, filling your new suit !" although a few of the scattered tribes yet the air with a shuddering roar, like the peal

A WHOSESOME LESSON.

Charles. "Charles how would you like to go to Allston ?" asked Mr. Lyons one morning. "As it is your vacation, and there are some little matters which you might be able to attend astomshed Charles could find his tongue he to, it would make you a pleasant trip. I met seated himself by his side. Governor Dunlap the other day. He is an old school friend of mine, and he told me said Charles, hotly.

that it would give him great pleasure to entertain you at his house." "I should like it of all things," said Charles, with difficulty keeping down the delight which threatened to send the blood in torrents to his cheeks, for Charles Lyons prided himself upon his coolness. "A gentleman should never show that he is surprised," was his maxim, and above all things he wished to be quoted as a gentlemcn. To be sure he was only seventeen, cast a glance over the somewhat threadbare but he had put off boyish sports and mancoat, and another at the rich clothing of his ners long ago; studied deeply upon the shade of the newest colors in gloves, or the most elegant style of cravats ; was extremely be, if you're a tailor-as I take you to be; particular about the cut of his coat, and would not have worn an unfashionable hat for all the wealth of the universe. I am afraid Charles stood on the extreme verge of dandyism, and that he was in danger of losing whatever of manliness nature had originally imparted to him from the moment polite society. It is not good breeding to he began coaxing the shade of a handsome pair of whiskers, which made him in appearance years older than he really was. "Mr. Dunlap is Governor of the State was angry that a man who appeared as if he now, is he not, father?" asked Charles, were devoted to some menial calling, had placing his cup of coffee carefully back, for the capacity and the audacity to answer him his hand trembled with the excitement as if he considered himself his equal. which the offer had given him. "Yes, one of the best men living. I never met his equal for simple, earnest, highminded manhood. He is nearly worshipped suppose, keep his office for life if he should choose." But it was in a manner forced upon him. I think he cares very little about it." "I'll have those fine shirts done just in

The journey was nearly ended-the cars were within two score miles of their destina-seated themselves in the vacant places.

"Is this seat engaged ?" asked a voice.

Charles looked up. A young man, in a

"It isn't a carpet bag." was the curt re-

"This portmanteau, then ?"

"Have you paid double fare ?"

"Yes, it does."

ioinder.

"I am going to make a visit to Gov. Dunlap ; do you happen to be acquainted with time, then," said Anna Lyons, who was very proud of her brother. "I don't believe him ?" he added, ironically, you'll see any as handsome in Allston, or "O yes, very well; in fact, I have done was night again. A cold fog sank down any other place. It has taken a month's nearer to her than the settlement of Lord's over the meantain, followed by a drizzling hard work just to embroiderd the bosoms, several little jobs for him," was the answer. Hill, ten miles away through the pathless rain, which before morning changed into a and there are only two. I'm so glad they're the blue eyes twinkled faster than ever. "Are you sent by any particular firm ?" perfect deluge. The river rose fearfully, all but finished. How nice you will look in and be friendly.

"I go as his guest, sir" said Charles, haughtily, with a withering glance.

"I shall try to do the family credit." said Charles, swelling with pride, as he rose from "Yon'll, find the old gentleman a little peculiar ; said the closure informant, the table. He did not say that he conferred assuming a manner of marked familiarity. an honor on his father in accepting the op-"He hates snobs, won't wear gloves and portunity, but undoubtedly he felt he did. does his own marketing. I thought it would be no harm to put you on your guard." It took several days to get ready, and "Thank you for nothing," was the insolent reply. "I've no doubt I shall find Goy, "Ah! there you are right," said the plain "Didn't know you were acquainted out young man with the honest blue eyes, not a there," said one of his friends. whit abashed at the retort. "He is a gentleman. I happed to know "O yes; the Governor's an old chum of that. No poor man comes to him and is turned away. He never judges a man by feel as if I did, he being a particular friend the cut of his clothes or the quality of his garof the family. I expect to make some jolly ments. '1 es, we are all proud of our Govnew acquaintances out in Allston, and I unernor, becau e he is a gentleman." This retort made the young exquisite feel daughters. I shan't be slow in getting inunpleasantly warm, but he determined to terested there you may be sure." And Charles felt that he was irresistible, keep up the appearance of extreme annoy ance and did so till the cars stopped at the as he stood before the mirror, critically exvery city in which he was to sojourn.

"That's none of your business," retorted | HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, | GRAPE VINES FOR SALE - All the "Which means no," was the cool rejoin HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC. der; and lifting the handsome article, he THE GREAT REMEDIES swung it in place on the rack, and before the

For all diseases of the Liver. Stomach, or diges tive organs.

Hoofland's German Bitters Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are acdicinally termed. extracts) of Roots. Herbs. and trated, and entirely EI free from alcoholic ad-mixtare of any kind. "Paid my fair young man, and am bound "I'm not used to setting with greasy me

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bit-ters, with the purest quality of Santa, Cruz Rum. Orange. As , making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcohol-

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination f the Bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

They are both equally good, and contain the ame medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach. from a variety of causes, such as "You are impertinent, sir," was the The stomach. from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion. Dyspepsia. Nervous Debility, etc., is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the Stomach, then be comes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several only reply vouchsafed by the indignant "You told me that once before; it strikes me you are not conversant with the rules of or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the flead. Acidity of the Stomach. Nausea, Heartburn, Dirgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach. Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight. Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes. Pain in the Side, Back, "hest, Limbs, etc., Sudden flushes of Heat, Burniag in the Flesh ; Constant imaginings of Evil, and great depression of Spirits.

Charles decided not to answer him. Then the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is as-sured from his inves tigations and inquiries possesses true merit. O is skilfally compound-ed, is free from injurious ingredidents, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connuection we would submit those well-known remedies it occurrred to him that he would put down this impulsive intruder once for all, and in Twenty-two years since they were first intro-duced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly parformed more cures, and benefitted suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

CURWENSVILLE ADVERTISEMENTS.

VOL. 15.-NO. 25.

Concord Cuttings, $1.00 per hundred. Orders solicited as soon as convenient and filled in rotation, by A M. HILLS. S. J. HAYES, SURGEON DENTIST; Office D. off Thompson street, Curwensville, Pa. methecia, and all kinds of modern dental work done. May 15, 1868-9.

A MERICAN HOUSE, Curwensville, Pa. Having taken charge of this well-known Hotel, the undersigned would respectfully solicit a share of the public patronage. Travelers will find the accommodations equal 15 those of any other house in this section. Charges moderate. Dec. 2. 1868-tf. JOHN J. REED, Prop'f.

S. COLE would inform his old cus-J. S. COBR Would inform his old cus-tomers, and the public generally, that he still continues to manufacture BOOTS AND SHOES of the very best French Caif and Kip. at the lowest prices for each or approved country produce. He also manufacture for any post-All work warranted, and perfect satisfaction giv-en. Opposite Draucker's Hotel, Curwensville, Pa. July 29, 1868-19.

CLEARFIELD NURSERY.-ENCOUR ChEASFIELD NURSERY. -- ENCOUR-ace Home INDUSTRY. -- The undersign-ed having established & Närsery, on the Pike, half way between Curwensville and Clearfield Boroughs, is prepared to furnish all kinds of Frui trees, (Standard and dwarf.) Evergreens. Shub bery, Grape Vines, Gooseherry, Lawten Black berry, Strawberry and Raspberry vines. Also Sibrian Crab trees. Quince and early Scarlei Bheu-barb. & Orders promptly attended to. Address Aug 31, 1864. J. D. WRIGHT, Curwensville

SUSQUEHANNA HOUSE. Curwensville, Pa.

EXPRESS AND STAGE OFFICE:

This well-known Hotel, having been re-fitted and re-furnished throughout. Is now open for the accommodation of travelers and the public in general. Charges moderate. WM. M. JEFFRIES.

August 14, 1867-tf. Proprietor

NEW FIRM

Hartsock & Goodwin, One door East of Benjamin Bloom's Hotel, CURWESSVILLE, PA.

Ilaving just received a full and well selected assortment of Dry Goods. Dress Goods. Clothing. Notions. Hats. Caps. Bools. Shoes. Drags Hard-ware. Queensware. Tinware. Cedar and Willow-ware. Broms, Groceries. Flour. Fish, Salt. etc., to which they ask the attention of the public. Our assortment is complete in every department and our prices are moderate, as will be found upon examination by purchasers Goods will be sold cheap for cash, or exchanged for country produce DANIEL HARTSOCK, Peb. 12, 1868. ED GOODWIN.

CIGARS AND TOBACCO. ALWAYS NEW. ADOLPH SCHOLPP.

MANUPACTURER AND WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN CIGARS AND TOBACCOS.

JOHN IRVIN.

Dry Goods; Groceries,

WITHOUT FAIL.

Has just received and opened at the old stand in Cass anoull ... an under ar son very allely lot CASH. His stock consists of

of work or prices. Special attention given to the manufacture of sewed work. French Kip and Calf Skins, of the best quality, always on hand. Give him a call. June 24. +64. HOME INDUSTRY BOOTS AND SHOES Made to Order at the Lowest Rates. The undersigned would respectfully invite the attention of the citizens of Clearfiel 1 and vicinity, to give him a call at his shop on Market St. nearly opposite Hartswick & Irwin's drug store, where he is prepared to make or repair anything

n his line

Clearfield

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise prompiness, strength and neatness, and all work calf skins, superb gaiter tops, &c., that I will finish up at the lowest figures. June 13th, 1866. DANIEL CONNELLY Hoofland's German Bitters, and Hoofland's German Tonic prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, Pa.

CLEARFIELD. PA., Would respectfully announce that he has remov-ed to the large and commodions store-room op posite the residence of H B Swoope, Esq., where bethes energies a general asortment of Tabacao or retail, at reasonable prices. pilin: Samaile, pil Taipila vorobie;or Nerthe Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a dis

Mrs. Warren's kind heart naturally prompted her to many acts of friendship towards them, and an Indian never forgets a benefit. The purple mist cleared away from the scarred forehead of the dominant old mountain; the yellew sun peeped over the rocky wall, and Martha turned away to the performance of her simple domestic duties. The day was a long one, but it was towards evening, and the gloaming comes much sooner in these solitudes than any other places. The sunlight faded out of the unglazed windows. though it would illuminate the distant mountains for sometime yet; and Martha went out in the seanty garden to inhale the odor of the sweet pinks on the meagre root she badbrought from her old home.

The spicy perfume carried her back in memory of those days away in the past.spent with kind friends, and cheered by bright young hopes. But though the thought of home and kindred made her sad, not for a moment did she regret she had chosen it. Absorbed in thought she had not observed the absence of Charlie, her little boy; now she saw with vague uffeasiness that he had left the bed of peppermint where he had een playing, and was not to be seen. She called his name, but only echo and the roar of the swollen river replied. She flew back to the house, the faint hope remaining that he might have returned thither for his pet kitten; but no, the kitten was mewing at the window, but no signs of Charlie.

With frantic haste she searched the clear ing, but without success. Her next thought was the river! Black as the night, save where it was flecked with spots of white foam-it flowed but a few rods before her. She hurried down the brink, calling out, "Charley, Charley !"

The child's voice at some little distance replied. She followed the sound, and to purple twilight sky-standing on the very edge of the huge, detached rock, some ten feet from the shore, out in the sweeping current of the river !

This rock, called by the settlers "The Pulpit," was a good situation for casting fishing lines, and Mark Warren had bridged the with a couple of hewn logs.

Charley had passed over, and now stood over the frail bridge, and the next instant held her child in her arms. Joyful because she had found him uninjured, and mentally eyes froze her with horror to the spot.

Confronting her on the bridge, not six feet distant, was an enormous wolf, gaunt and bony with hunger, his eyes blazing like live fersid breath scorching the very air she their grandchildren the story of Martha breathed.

A low growl of intense satisfaction stirred the air, answered by the growl of fifty more of his kind, belonging to the pack ; in another moment they would be upon her!

Without an instant's thought of the con sequence Martha obeyed her first impulse, tween Scott and sot ? "Just the breadth of and struck the logs with her foot, exercising the table," retorted Sir Walter.

The day that followed was no better, only rain and ashen-white mist-not a ray of subshine.

A new fear rose in the heart of Martha Warren. This turbulent stream must have meantime he made the announcement among swept away the bridge over which her hus- his friends that he was going to stop at band would cross on his return, and he Governor Dunlap's as if it were only an Dunlap a gentleman." would be detained-for days, may be for every day occurrence.

weeks. She gave up all for lost. Strongly and fearfully was she tempted to fold her child in her arms and plunge into the cauldron father's; know him very well, or, rather beneath, and thus end her fear and doubt! It would be better she thought than to suffer that slow, painful death of starvation ! But something held her back-God's curse derstand the Governor has some pretty was upon those who do self murder.

Towards night, a lost robin, beaten about by the storm, stopped to rest a moment on the rock ; Martha seized upon and rent him in twain, with almost savage glee, for her amining the effect of his new embroidered child to devour raw-she, who two days before would have wept at the sight of the wounded sparrow.

effeminate than masculine. Another night and day, like the other, only more intensely agonizing. Martha was sulleuly indifferent now; suffering had palsied every noble feeling, Charlie moaned for supper-too weak and spent to sit up, he was lying on the rock, his head in her lap, his great eyes fixed on her face. She tore open a vein on her arm with her scissors, and made him drink the blood! Anything, she said to herself, to calm the wild, wild yearnings of his eyes. The boy rose-he sat up and peered through the darkness. "Mamma," he said, "papa is coming. I felt him touch me."

She wept at the mockery, and drew the child frantically to her bosom. tice, all.' The night was fair, lit up by a new moon.

Overcome by a deadly exhaustion, against which she could make no resistance, Martha tion when they stoped at a thriving town. her sorrow saw the boy-his golden hair fell into an uneasy slumber, which towards where the many empty seats were soon taken and rosy cheeks clearly defined against the midnight wasbroken by a startling cry. She up. Our hero had passed an uncomfortable sprang to her feet and gazed around her. night, on account of the crowded state of No! her eyes did not deceive her-there the cars. He had just taken down his stylon the shore stood the stalwart form of her ish portmanteau and placed it on the seat be-husband, and he was calling her name with the energy of despair. She could only cry out, "O, Mark, Mark !" and fell senseless to the earth. When she awoke to consciousness, narrow chasm between it and the shore she was lying on her bed in the cottage, sup ported by her husband's arms. It was no rough coat a little worse for weat, a common Allured by some clusters of flaming fire dream. She and her darling boy were not weed growing on the side of the Pulpit, dead. Many weeks passed before she grew and well worn cap on his head, stood with strong again, but Mark tended her as a there, regardless of danger, holding out the mother would an infant, and by the time the foral treasures to his mother. Martha flew autumn frosts fell, she was the blithe Martha

Warren of old. At the time of the freshet, the bridge over the Ammonoosue had indeed been resolving that the logs should be removed swept away, but Mark, impelled by an unto prevent further accident, she turned to controlable fear-almost a presentimenttetrace her steps, but the sight that met her had crossed the river, at the risk of his life, rather than speech. on a rude log raft, and reached home only to find it vacant.

fellow stationed himself against a projection The descendants of Mark Warren and his in the partition, and stood there patiently wife still dwell in the fertile valleys of the charge. "Does this carpet bag belong to you !" he Warren and her child.

A dissipated and unmannerly nobleman, exquisite. presuming upon his "nobility" once asked Sir Walter Scott, who sat opposite to him at a dinner, what the difference was be-shirt front, in which he determined to make "John," cried the rough acquaintance. his debut. He was handsome there was no beckoning to a man who stood beside a denying that, though his beauty was rather plain, handsome carriage, " this gentieman is going to Gov. Dunlap's; then adding a His figure was good and his clothes fitted few words aside he turned to go in another him faultlessly. With his new and elegant direction. John looking like a man who portmanteau strapped upon his shoulders. was forcing himself to wear a serious face. his new and jaunty traveling suit, he felt put Charles into the handsome carriage, and that he could defy and conquer the world. our hero had time only to ask the coachman who that fellow was that spoke to him. Behold him, then, on his journey, the most particular and punctilious of travelers, "A young man as does odd jobs for the looking about him with an air of kingly Governor," was the grinning reply; and condescension, as if he would say, "Pray Charles, juite satisfied that he was right, notice me. I am an altogether unique specienjoyed the admiring glances of the crowd men, perfectly exceptional as to style, dress and was driven off.

Quite at home in the Governor's splendid and address. My destination is the mansion of the chief executive of the State of----. palace-house, Charles had nearly forgoten Ordinary people had better not speak to me his little rencontre by evening. Two pretty unless they wish to be snubbed. Take nodaughters of his host, with their cousin.

made his visit more than agreeable, while the old Governor recalled reminiscences of his college days. Suddenly the door was opened, both sisters sprang forward with the cry "It's our dear old Hall--brother Harry, of whom we have been telling."

Charles stood rooted on the floor. Words cannot express the confusion he felt at the magical glance of that clear blue eye that side him that he might avail himself if possitwinkled as if it wanted to explode in showble of more space. One and another speedily ers of mischievous fun. The blood rusbed to his face and receded again, leaving him quite pale and faint. He felt, indeed, like a very common-place individual, and completely crushed at that. Fortunately the joy wooled comforter about his neck, a shaggy was so universal that he was not narrowly observed.

one hand on the back of the seat specified. "Don't trouble yourself," whispered Har-"Decidedly some low fellow." thought ry, aside, to him. "Nobody need to know Charles, "going up for work ; he looks exthat we have met before. But let me repeat actly like a hand out of employment." to you that I'm a working man, and dolittl "Yes it is." was the quick reply. "You jobs for the Governor," and he turned away had better pass into the next car ; there are | laughing, as he shook poor Charles by th plenty of seats there-for such as you." was hand.

the disdainful addition, conveyed by look It was a good lesson for our young cox comb, and in his heart of hearts he acknow Presently the cars moved on. The young edged it as such. Never again did he judg a man by his outward appearance, and though, let us hope, he always afterward through the mist and gloom, his hot Ammonoosuc, and the old men still tell to for some time. Then he returned to the took a reasonable pride in appearing like gentleman externally, the ideal did not crop out so luxuriantly as before in gloves, shirt asked, fixing a clear, cool, blue eye upon our fronts and gold studs.

> "That man," says Sydney Smith. "is not the discoverer of art who first says the things; but he who says it so long, so loud, and so clearly, that he compels mankind to hear him."

ordered Liver. Stomach, or Intestines DEBILITY.

Resulting from any cause whatever; prostration of the system induced by severe labor, hardships, exposure. fevers, etc.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthed food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly the blood is enjoyed, the stomach algests promptry the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthe science. healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE.

The undersigned, having opened a large and well selected stock of goods, at Baid Hills. Clear-field county, respectfully solicit a share of public And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixer patronage. Their stock embraces Dry Goods, Groceries, Hardware Queensware, Tin-ware, Boots and Shoes, that will instil new 'ife into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youth-ful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give h alth and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well established fact that fully one-half of the female portion of our population are sel-dom in the enjoyment L of good health; or, to use their own expres L sion. "neverfeel well." They are languid devoid of all energy, extreme-ly nervous, and have no appetite. To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is espe cially recommended past summer. a large and commodious store room Thousands of certificates have accumulated i is now engaged in filling it up with a new and select assortment of Fall and Wintergoods, which he offers to the public at prices to suit the times His stock of Mens' and boys clothing is unusual-ly extensive, and is offered to customers at from $10 to $20 for a whole suit. Flour, Salt, and Grothe hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must believed.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARAS-MUS, without fail.

TESTIMONIALS Hon. George W. Woodward, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Penn'a, writes :

Philadelphia. March 16, 1867. "I find 'Hoofland's German Bitters' is good tonic, useful in A diseases of the diges tive organs, and of great benefit in cases of de bility, and want of pervous action in the system Yours truly, GEO. W WOODWARD."

Han James Thompson, Judge of the Supremi Court of Pennsylvania :

"I consider Hoofland's German Bitters' a valu able medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspensia. I can certify this from my experi-JAMES THOMPSON.

From Rev Joseph H. Kennard. D. D., Pastor f the Venth Bantist Church. Phyladelphia

Dr. Jackson-Deat Sit: I have been frequenty requested to connect my name with recommen-tations of different kinds of medicines, but re garding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all N cases declined: but with a clear proof in N various instances and rticularly in my own family, of the usefulness Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters. I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full once from my usual course, to express my fun-conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Lever Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually, I doubt not, it will be very ben eficial to those who suffer from the above causes Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, 8th. bel Coates st.

From Rev. E. D. Fendall, Assistant Editor Christian Chromele, Philadelphia.

of which will be sold LOW FOR CASH. Also, a fine I have derived decided benefit from the

Formerly C. M. JACKSON & Co

Hooffand's German Tonic put up in quart bottles $1 50 per bottle, or balf dozen for $7 50.

For sale by A. I. SHAW Agent Clearfield Pa. April 22, 1868-19.

His cigars are made of the very best material and in style of manufacture will compare with those of any other establishment.

NEW STORE AND SAW MILL

AT BALD HILLS,

Clearfield county.

Hats and Caps. Heady made Clothing, and a gen-eral assortment of Notions, etc. They always keep on hand the best quality of Flour, and a variety of Feed All goods sold cheap for cash, or exchanged for approved country produce.

Having also erected a Steam Saw mill, double Having also erected a Steam Saw mill, double predared to saw all kinds of lumber to order Orders solicited, and punctually filed. F. B. & A. IRWIN.

SOMETHING NEW

IN ANSONVILLE.

Clearfield county, Penn'a

The undersigned having crected, during the Stores and Stove-pipe, a complete assortment; Stoves and Stove-pipe, a heavy stock; Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps in great variety; Ladies' dress goods, furs, and other fancy goods, together with an endless assortment of notions too tedious to enumerate, always on hand, and sor sale very beam.

heap. Prints at 10 cents a yard and other good n proportion. Now is the time to buy. Country produce of every kind, at the highest

IN

THE NEW GOODS AT

CLEARFIELD. PA.,

Having just returned from the eastern cities

we are now opening a full stock of sensonable goods. at our rooms on Second street to which they respectfully invite the attention of the public generally. Our assortment is unsurpassed in this section, and is being sold very low for

DRY GOODS

of the best quality, such as Prints, Delames, Alpa cas. Merinos. Ginghams: Muslins, bleached and unbleached; Drillings Tickings, cotton and wool Flannels, Cassimers, Ladies' Shawle, Coats No.

ias. Hoods, Hoop skirts. Balmorals, &c., &c

G English Concerning Bound SPICES. Citron

G English Currants, Essence Coffee, and Vine gar of the best quality, for sale by Jan 10. HARTSWICK & IRWIN.

cash. The stock consists in part of ent of the best of

K. WRIGHT & SONS.

H. SWAN.

TIME

DURE BUCK LEAD, equal in quality to PURE BUCK LEAD, equal in finite and English white lead; Oils, l'aints and Varnishes of all kinds; Gold leaf in books. and bronzes, for sale by A. I. SHAW.

THE OLD ESTABLISHED FIRM,

J. J. RICHARDSON & CO., 126 Market Street, Philadelphia are the largest Manufacturing Confectioners and Wholesale Deal-ers in Fruits, Nuts, &c., in the United States. March 4, 1868-19.

CLEARFIELD HOUSE.

FRONT STREET, PHILIPSBURG, PA.

direct and personal attention to all our customers or fail to cause them to rejoice over a well fur shed table, with clean rooms and new beds where all may feel at home and the weary be at

est. New stabling attached. Philipsburg, Sep. 2,'68. JAS. H. GALER.

NEW BOOT AND SHOE SHOP

E D W A R D M A C K, Market Street, nearly opposite the residence If. B Swoope. Esq., CLEARFIELD, PA.,

Would respectfully announce to the citizens of Clearfield and vicinity, that he has opened a BOOT AND SHOE SHOP, in the building lately occupied by J L. Cuttle, as a law office and that he is determined not to be outdone either in quality

Orders entrusted to him will be executed with sarranted as represented. I have now on hand a stock of extra french

I will impeach any one who says I fail to give Clearfield, October 23, 1867.

Hardware, Queensware, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps, Rendy He has always on hand a superior article o chewing and smoking tobaccos, to which he di rects the attention of "lovers of the weed." to which he di made Clothing, etc. Merchants and Dealers, throughout the county cupplied at the lowest wholesale prices. Call and examine his stock when you come to June 10, 1868.

The public generally is respectfully favited to give him a call; see his stock and hear his prices, and purchase from him if you find it will be to your advantage, Nov. 15, 1866.

P. KRATZER

Clearfield, Penn's,

Dealer in Dfy Goods, Dress Goods, Millinery Dealer in Dfy Goods, Dress Goods, Millinery Goods, Groceries, Hard-ware, Queens-ware, Stone-ware, Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps. Flour, Bacon, Fish. Salt, etc., is constantly receiving new supplies from the cities, which he will dispose of at the lowest market prices, to customers. Before purchasing elsewhere, examine his stock. Clearfield, August 28, 1867.

NEW SPRING GOODS,

JUST RECEIVED AT

KIRK & SPENCERS.

Lumber City, Ps.,

The undersigned would respectfully inform their customers, and the public in general, that they have just received their Spring stock of goods. consisting of Dry Goods. Groceries, Boots, Shoes, Hats. Caps. Fish, Salt, Flour, Bacon. Nalls, Paints. Oils. Stoneware, Hardware, Queensware, Baskets. Tubs, Churns. Carpet. Oil cloth, and a general variety of such articles as are namally kept in a country store, all of which they will sell CHEAP FOR CASE.

sell CHEAP FOR CASE. They would also direst attention to their large stock of Ready-made Clothing, which they offer for sale at a small advance upon cost.

KIRK & STREEDES. Lumber City. Pa., May 8, 1867. N. B.-We also manufacture to order, and con-stantily keep on hand, a general assortment of Boots and Shoes, for men. wumen and children. KIRK & SPENCER.

F. NAUGLE.

WATCH MAKER,

GRAHAM'S ROW, CLEARFIELD.

The undersigned respectfully informs his old customers and the public, that he has on hand, (and constantly receiving new additions,) a large stock of Clocks, Watches and Jewelry.

CLOCKS, a large variety from the best Man-ufactory, consisting of Eight-day and thirty-hour spring and Weight, and Levers, Time, Strike and Alarm clocks.

WATCHES-a fine assortment. o failver Hunt ing and open case American patent Levers, plain and full jeweled.

GOLD PENS. an elegant assortment, of the best quality. Also, in silver extension and desk bolders SPECTACLES, a large assortment, far and near sight, colored and plain glass. JEWELRY of every variety, from a single piece to a full set. ALSO, a fine assortment of Spoons, Forks, but-ter knives, etc., plated on genuine Alabata.

ALSO, Hair Jewelry, with pure gold mounting, got up to order. Call and see sample book.

All kinds of Clocks. Watches and Jewelry care fully repaired and Warranted A continuance of patronage is solicited. Nov. 28th, 1865. H. F. NAUGLE.

FURS-german fitch setts, french squirrel setts, american squirrel muffs, and lefvictorfnes, sil ver martin setts mink capes and muffs, gents' fur collars, (beaver and mink) at J. P. KRATZER'S.

MARPETS-english brussels. super ingrains U ventians, all word stair, twilled hemp, plain hemp, felt druggett, floor oil cloths. I, 14. 144 2 yards wide, at J. P. KRATZER'S sards wide, at WOOLEN GOODS-Double Shawle W Breakiast Shawia, Hoods, Nubias, Children's Knit Cipes, Scarfs Blankets, 2a., now opening at Oct. 14, 1858 J. P KRATZER'S.

TOBACCO-Cavendish, Navy. Span Bell. Fine Out. Flounder, Congress, Smoking. Segars and Snuff. at J. P. KRATZER'S.

PALMER'S Patent enloading hay-forks, to had at MERRELL & BIGLER'S.

DESSICATED COCOANUTS, for pice, pudding etc . for sale at

M USICAL GOODS. violins flutes fifes elaronets' accordeons. italian strings, guitar strings, clarionet reeds. music paper, instruction books or sale by J. P. KRATZER, agent for Pianos and rgans. January 5, 1869 Boors & SHOES-the chespest in the county ac	Hoofiands German Bitters, and feel it my pijvil	assortment of the best of tle y,	ege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or	MENS' WEAR, he	from diseases arising from derangement of the liver. Yours truly, E D. FENDALL.	consisting of Drawers and Shirts, Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, Handkerchieftt cravats, etc.

x- yl- ge nd rd	CAUTION. Hoofland's German Remedies arecounterfeited See that the sign sture of C. M. JACKSON is on the wrapper of each D bottle. All others are counterfeit Princi D pal Office and Manufac- tory at the German Medicine Store. No. 631 ARCH Street. Philadelphia. Pa.	ALSO, Raft Rope. Dog Rope, Raltina Augurs and Axes. Nails and Spikes. Tinware, Lamps and Lamp wicks and chimneys, etc., etc. ALSO, Queensware. Glassware. Hardware, Groce ries. and spices of all kinds. In short. a general assortment of every thing usually kept in a retail
a op	CHARLES M. EVANS. Proprietor. Formerly C. M. JACKSON & Co.	store. all chesp for cash, or approved country produce. Nov. 28-ja10-no13. WRIGHT & SONS.

Hoofland's German Bitters. - er bottle, Hoofland's German Bitters, half dozen.

Do not forget to examine well the articl buy, in order to get the genuine.

market prices, will be taken in exchange for goods; and even Greenbacks will not be refused for any article in store. Examine mystock before you buy elsewhere. October 30.1867 Philadelphia, April 23, 1866. JUST

