Baptists.—A large number of baptisms took place on Saturday and Sunday last, on their way to the lower markets. The water was rather low for running, and we presume, nearly all tied up at the various landings between here and Lock Haven.

Admitted.—Thos. H. Murray, Esq., who has been a student in the office of H. B. Scoops, Esq., for the last two years, was duly admitted to practice in the several courts of this County, on Monday last. Mr. Murray was examined in open court by Hon. W. A. Wallace, Hon. J. B. McQuinn, and Hon. T. J. McCallough, the Committee appointed, and afterwards by his Honor, Judge Mayer from the Bench. He passed a highly creditable examination, answering the questions asked him promptly and correctly, showing close attention to his text books, and an unusual familiarity with what they contained. Mr. Murray is a young man of fine promise, is an eloquent speaker, and has made for himself, in this community, a high character as a Christian gentleman. He has started well in the race of life and cannot fail to reap many of its richest harvests and rewards.

Burglars Arrested.—Two men were lodged in our county jail, on last Saturday afternoon, who are, without doubt, two of the burglars who robbed the County National Bank, on the morning of the 13th of May. They were arrested south of Bedford, by the deputy Sheriff of that county, while on their way to Cumberland, Maryland, in a stagecoach. The burglars took passage in the coach at Bedford, and after the driver had proceeded over five miles on his way towards Cumberland, his suspicions were aroused that two of his passengers were robbers of our bank. Soon thereafter a young man was passed on the road. The driver halted his team, got off the coach, and called to him to stop, when he approached and requested him to hasten to Bedford and inform the Sheriff of his suspicions. After the driver had returned to the coach, the men now in our jail, asked him why he had halted that man on the road? He replied, that he had forgotten to deliver a letter and was just sending it back. The Sheriff, upon receiving the message sent by the driver, at once sent his deputy in pursuit, who overhauled the coach about fifteen miles south of Bedford. When he reached the coach he demanded the driver to halt, whereupon the burglars jumped out and took to their heels. The deputy Sheriff, driver and passengers at once started in pursuit. The deputy soon overhauled the larger of the two men and ordered him to stop, which he did and demanded the authority for his arrest. The deputy said he had it in his pocket, and putting his hand in his pocket he produced a revolver, which seemed to be satisfactory as he made no further resistance. The other man upon seeing that his comrade had stopped, and was conversing with the deputy, turned and came to his side, and from his looks manifested a disposition to fight, but no further demonstration was made. With the aid of the passengers and driver, the deputy then secured the two and conveyed them to Bedford, and from thence they were brought here by the Sheriff. The man overhauled by the deputy had a first class morocco traveling satchel, but upon examination, it contained nothing but a few trifling articles of wearing apparel. On searching the men, there was found upon them $125 in money and two revolvers. The bonds were found at a stump where they had jumped over the fence after the coach was stopped by the deputy Sheriff—it having been observed that one of them stopped at the stump as he was running past it.

In the evening previous to the day on which these two men left Bedford in the coach, a stranger hired a lively man to take him to Cumberland—paying the lively man an unusually large fee for so doing. On the way he expressed himself as exceedingly anxious to reach Cumberland in time to take the first train west on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, as he had business at Frostburg that required his presence there at the earliest possible moment. Accordingly the driver made the utmost haste to reach the railroad. It is supposed that he was a confederate in the robbery of the County National Bank, and that he had the stolen money in his possession, as only the small sum above stated was found on the men who were lodged in our jail. If so, the recovery of the money is rather problematical. The burglars will be tried in June.

FOR SALE.—His Ten Eyck, of Curwensville, offers his house and lot, and personal property, for sale on June 9th. See advertisement.

COURT.—The May term of our court commenced on Monday afternoon. Judge Mayer arrived here on the train at noon. Considerable business has been transacted thus far.

THE ANNUAL CONVENTION.—The Annual Convention will be held at Williamsport, Pennsylvania, beginning on Tuesday, June 1st, at 10 o'clock, A. M. Arrangements have been made on a liberal scale, to make this the best Sunday-school Convention yet held in Pennsylvania. Sunday-school teachers and superintendents, and clergymen interested in the work, are cordially invited to be present, from all parts of the State. Each Sunday-school is requested to send one or more delegates. In order to secure entertainment, delegates will please notify the committee at Williamsport, of their intention to attend the Convention. Address as early as possible. The prominent Railroad Companies have agreed to make the customary reduction to delegates who pass over their roads. A. UDEGRAFE, Esq., Williamsport, Pa.

CUT THIS OUT AND KEEP IT.—Franklin Dyer, a highly respectable and intelligent farmer of Galena, Kent county, Maryland, gives the following as a sure cure for the bite of a mad dog. As will be seen, he has tested it with the most gratifying results: "Elecampane is a plant well known to most persons, and is to be found in many of our gardens. Immediately after being bit, take one and a half ounces of the root of the plant—the green root is perhaps preferable, but the dried will answer, and was by me—slice or bruise, put into a pint of fresh milk, boil down to half a pint, strain; and when cold drink it, fasting, at least six hours afterwards. The next morning, fast, repeat the dose, using two ounces of the root. On the third morning take another dose, prepared as the last, and this will be sufficient. It is recommended that after each dose nothing be eaten for at least six hours.

"I have a son who was bitten by a mad dog eighteen years ago, and four other children in the neighborhood were also bitten; they took the above dose, and are alive and well to this day. And I have known a number of others who were bitten and applied the same remedy.

"It is supposed that the root contains a principle which, being taken up by the blood in its circulation, counteracts or neutralizes the deadly effects of the virus of hydrophobia.

"I feel so much confidence in this simple remedy that I am willing you should give my name in connection with this statement."

SOMETHING NEW AND BEAUTIFUL! The Photograph Marriage Certificate is truly a thing of rare beauty. It consists of a beautiful engraving with a place on the left to insert the photograph of the Husband, and a place on the right to insert the photograph of the Wife; accompanied with passages of Scripture adopted to each sex, &c.

A Great Remedy for the cure of Throat and Lung Diseases.—Doctor Whistler's Pine Tree Tar Cordial. It is the vital principle of the Pine Tree, obtained by a peculiar process in the distillation of the tar, by which its highest medicinal properties are retained.

It is the only safeguard and reliable remedy which has been prepared from the juice of the Pine Tree. It invigorates the digestive organs and restores the appetite. It strengthens the debilitated system. It purifies and enriches the blood, and expels from the system the corruption which scrofula breeds on the lungs.

It dissolves the mucus or phlegm which stops the air-passages of the lungs. Its healing principle acts upon the irritated surface of the lungs and throat, penetrating to each diseased part, relieving pain and subduing inflammation. It is the result of years of study and experiment, and it is offered to the afflicted, with the positive assurance of its power to cure the most inveterate disease, if the patient has not too long delayed a resort to the means of cure.

Consumption of the Lungs, Croup, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Liver Complaint, Blood and Bleeding Piles, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Diphtheria, &c. &c. are often asked why are not other remedies in the market for Consumption, Coughs, Colds, and other Pulmonary affections equal to Dr. L. Q. Whistler's Pine Tree Cordial. We answer—It cures, not by stopping cough, but by loosening and assisting nature to throw off the unhealthy matter collected about the throat and bronchial tubes, causing irritation and cough.

Most Throat and Lung Remedies are composed of anodynes, which allay the cough for a time, but by their action on the system, become hardened, and the unhealthy fluids coagulate and are retained in the system, causing disease beyond the control of our most eminent physicians.

The Pine Tree Cordial, with its assistants, are preferable, because they remove the cause of irritation, loosen the mucus, and dissolve the bronchial tubes, assist the lungs to act and throw off the unhealthy secretions, and purify the blood, thus restoring the system to its natural state.

Dr. Whistler has on file at his office hundreds and thousands of Certificates from Men and Women of unquestionable character, who were once hopelessly given up to die, but through the Providence of God were completely restored to health by the Pine Tree Tar Cordial. A Physician in attendance who can be consulted by mail, free of charge. Price of Pine Tree Tar Cordial $1.50 per bottle, $1.00 per doz. Sent by Express on receipt of price in advance. L. Q. Whistler, M. D. No. 222 North 24 Street Philadelphia Pa. April 23rd, 1869-Sp.

SPECIAL NOTICE. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup. Scurvy Tonic and Mandrake Pills will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the system, relax the liver and put to work the appetite, become good the food digests and makes good blood, the patient begins to grow in flesh, the diseased matter is cast out, and the patient overgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure the consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, or when the phlegm or mucus is too slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal. To do this, the Scurvy Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood. Liver Complaint is one of the most prominent causes of Consumption. Schenck's Scurvy Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the Scurvy Pills are a powerful cathartic, which purify the bowels, assist the stomach to throw off the gas, and to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into a blood with most fermentation or souring in the stomach. The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is that they try to do too much, they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop the night sweats, to beat the fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, looking up the secretions and eventually the patient dies.
