The Negro-the Democracy.

The negro is a man of consequence, says the Harrisburg Telegraph. Upon him, apparently, hangs the life of the Democratic party. Without him it would have no breath left in it-it would die. As long as the "gentleman from Africa" can be kept prominently before the public in political contests, the Democracy may manage to eke out a misthe last stage of consumption for some time, and as soon as the 15th amendment shall have been adopted by three-fourths of the States. and the negro's political status fixed and determined beyond the possibility of change. at least for years to come, we shall expect to see the old, and now tottering party, that has so long kept up its vitality by feeding, as it were, upon the carcass of their sable brethren, go off "to the bad" at a gailoping

There is much truth in the remarks of Senator Morton, of Indiana, made during the discussion of the suffrage amendment. "The Democratic party," he said, "for more than twenty years has lived upon the negro question. It has been its daily food, and if the negro question shall now be withdrawn from polities the Democracy, as a party, will literally starve to death. We need not, therefore, be surprised to find them resisting this constitutional amendment, which will forever withdraw the subject from politics, and will strike down that prejudice to which the Democratic party has appealed for years. The Democratic party has not for years appealed to the reasons of the people, but it has appealed to their prejudices upon the subject of race. It has sought, and to some extent obtained, power upon that subject. It is still tollowing the fortunes of slavery after slavery is dead."

Twenty-four States, including Indiana, have already ratified the amendment to which Mr. Morton referred. Twenty-eight is the number required to make it a part of the fundamental law of the land. Vermont and Rhode Island are sure to give their assent when their Legislatures meet next fall. The act for the reconstruction of Virginia, Mississippi and Texas, requires the ratification of the amendment as preliminary to their full restoration into the Union; and Georgia, when purged of its disqualified Legislative members, will be added to the

Marshal Francisco Serrano, Duke de la Torre, recently chosen Regent of Spain by REPORT OF THE First National Bank the Cortes, took the oath of office yesterday the 18th. The Marshal is well advanced in years, having been born about the beginning of the present century. He acquired a varied military experience in the war of independence, and gradually rose to the highest rank in the army of Spain. In 1843, when he assisted in bringing about the fall of Es partero, he first took a prominent part in the political troubles of the country. After the restoration of the Queen mother to the throne, he entered into a coalition with others to overthrow Olozaga. Soon after the In Atlanta there is a woman who weighs 728 marriage of Queen Isabella, in 1846, he acquired an influence over the royal mind which occasioned differences between the King consort and herself, and caused some scandal. The Ministry of the Duke de Sotomayer, which attempted to destroy his inflaence, was overthrown by him, while that of M. de Salamanca, which he supported, yielded to the storm of public indignation which assailed it. After this Serrano turned liberal, and just before the accession to power of Narvaez, accepted the Captaincy General of Granada. Having been implicated in a rising at Saragossa in 1854, he was exiled, but returned during the revolution of July in that year, and became an active supportes of the O'Donnell and Espatero Cabinet. In the rupture which followed between those two, he sided with the former, and having been nominated Captain-General of New Castile-an appointment which placed Madrid in his powerin the coup d etat of 1855 he played into

The population of Canada appears to be decreasing. In the county of York, in which the important city of Toronto is situated the census returns show that there are now 43,000 souls fewer than there were in 1861. The people emigrate to the United States, because they can do better here than under the Colonial Government. The best remedy for the evil is to transfer the whole country to the United States, and then its the attendants at the Peace Jubilce, at Beston. It inhabitants would not need to abandon is not exactly such a peace jubilee as they pro- their homes in order to enjoy the shelter of Wm. H. Kepner.
