REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR : JOHN W. GEARY, of Cumberland co. POR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT: HENRY W. WILLIAMS, of Allegheny co.

A Noble Life.

On the 28th June, 1861, at the very be ginning of the late war for the preservation of the Union, John W. Geary was mustered into the service as a Colonel. On the 25th April 1862, he was promoted to Brigadier General, and on the 12th January, 1865. was made Major General. He was wounded at Bolivar, Cedar Mountain and Chancel lorsville. To the present day he carries rebel lead in his body. He has been Mayor of San Francisco, Governor of Kansas, Military Governor of Savannah, and Governor of Penasylvania. He discharged the responsible duties of each and all of these positions with honor to himself, and credit to his native State. Few Pennsylvanians have ever made a nobler record. The people read it with pride, and will re-elect him in October by an overwhelming majority.

NOT OUR DAD .- The Walker party in Virginia repudiate the idea of their triumph being called a Democratic victory. The "Richmond Enquirer." the old Democratic organ, speaks thus: "The democratic papers at the North committed a very grave error in a cribing this great victory to the 'Virginia Democracy.' There has been no such party in this State for eight years, and its very bones have rotted and now crumble at the touch. No resurrectionary process could bring that party to life, and its ashes lie mingled with, and undistinguished from, that of the old Whig party."

Packer's Fraud.

The following article, from the Mauch Chunk Gazette, reveals more of Packer than is to be learned from Democratic biog raphies. Is a man who would be guilty of so contemptible a dodge, fit for Governor? Read it and then answer: "The impression has gone out through the papers of the State that Judge Packer's residence is in this county. This is a mistake. It is true he has a splendid mansion here, that his family reside in it, and that he regards it as his home, but in 1867 he took up his legal residence in the Sixth Ward, Philadelphia, by having himself assessed and his taxes paid there. He did this to avoid giving Carbon county the benefit of the revenue it was entitled to derive from the legal taxation on his vast estate. The County Commissioners and Borough Councils, however, succeeded by legal process in collecting the taxes for that year, which had been assessed here, but which he hoped to be able to transfer to Philadelphia. Since then Mr. Packer has lived here just as he has done for the last twenty-five years, and has utterly refused to contribute by his taxes to the support of our schools, our almshouse, our roads, and our borough-dodging the question by a neminal residence in a distant city. This procedure, which perhaps his friends can reconcile with that "honor" of which we hear so much in connection with his private character, evinees a spirit of petty spite and a lack of local pride that the people of this county do not palliate or forgive. Mr. Packer still delights to be recognized as the head and front of the extensive interests of Carbon county and the Lehigh Valley. The foundation of his colossal fortune was laid on its soil and all his enterprises are located. And yet by a legal subterfuge a trick he defrauds the county of taxes which rightfully belong to its treasury, and leaves its pubhe institutions to the care of citizens of less ability but greater merit, by turning over his taxes to a county a hundred miles away.

It may be urged that he has a right to select his residence wherever he may see fit. So he has, and if he pays taxes where he honestly resides we shall have no fault to find. But for him to retain his actual abode here and yet pretend to reside in Philadelphia, for the purpose we have stated, is simply insufferable, and we protest against his claiming to be "o" Carbon county" so long as he refuses to pay his taxes within her limits."

A Needed Reform.

We have long experienced the evils of the system adopted in our Legislature, of turning everything that relates to a county or district to its immediate representatives. The result is that Republicans in minority counties, might just as well be Democrats. The Compublican Legislatures. They are compelled to work twice as hard as the Republicans of the majority counties for the success of the party, and when they go to Harrisburg for needed local legislation they cannot get it. EDITOR RAFTSMAN'S JOURNAL: - Dear

Sir. I see by the papers from Pennsylvania that the recent election in Virginia is considered a Republican triumph. This is the impression the rebels would like to make on the minds of the northern loyalists, and would like them to labor under this false impression until after the State is admitted, and the control of her destinies is placed in their hands. But, let me tell you, this election is up, immediately after the State is admitted, in the following manner: As soon after admission as they may consider it safe to do so. they will disfranchise all the negroes and a few whites by altering the Constitution so as to require a property qualification for voters. This will not conflict with the Constitution of the United States, and by this means they will put the negro out of their way. They claim that he has no right to vote, neither is he capable of it, because he votes, or is inclined to vote, as loval men vote. I would like to have all our Senators and Congressmen informed of the deep and well laid scheme of the rebels to get a Constitu tion of their own making, for it is very evident they intend to do so. I have been in the State almost eighteen months, and during this time the rebel papers have been filled with comments against the Constitution, and every man in this county who has said anything concerning it has protested against it. They were scarcely able to call forth language sufficiently abusive and wicked to express their abhorrence of the "carpet bagger's Constitution." This course was continued until the President's proclamation came out, when they began to get quiet and say, "vote for the expurgated Constitution and against the two clauses submitted to a separate vote." The reason of this sudden change is this: A party of rebels were in Washington conterring with the President, and advising him to submit certain clauses to a separate yote, which clauses were very obnoxious to the good citizens of Virginia, &c. -at the same time stating that the Constitution would be received by Virginians without those clauses. about four in number. It would have been useless for them to advise the President, had they been opposed to the whole Constitution, or had they expressed their opposition to it in the presence of the President-as he would no longer listen to them on the subject. This fact they were well aware of and to effect their deceptive purpose they assured him that they would see that the Constitution was adopted. &c. After this they returned to Virginia, and set about altering their honest and original course to meet the acknowledgments they made at Washington. Now mark; it was their intention to vote appeal to Republican members, they are squarely against the Constitution, and to lessly handling a pistol. . . . By adopting Walker as their candidate, all persons out of the State would believe they had given up the old rebel spirit and were now Republicans, &c. This is what they wanted. The rebel Colonel, who was sure of being nominated as the Conservative candidate, was then dropped, which greatly displeased him; and as he was an editor of a rebel sheet, he would not change the ticket in his paper. So it read up to election day, "against" the Constitution and "against" the two clauses, while the rebel ticket was printed to read, "For the Constitution and against the two clauses." The Constitution provides for its amendment, after its adoption and the State's admission. In my next I will endeavor to show wherein Congress erred.
