ABANDONING AN OLD CUSTOM.-The latest story of progress in Hindostan has a certain grim picturesqueness which is almost humor. The great festival of Juggernaut was held at Serampore in July. We all know what this used to be-for is it not in all the story books and pictorial geographics?-the priests upon the platforms of the huge cars dancing and shoutinghundreds of worshipers pulling at the ropes and crazy devotees flinging themselves beneath the wheels. This year the crowd attracted by the speciacle was small. The ears were dragged a short distance, by hired men, and then left half in a muddy ditch, with the idols still in them, and the flags flying. When the priests urged the people to pull, the irreverent populace cried out. 'Why don't you come down and pull yourhurt, and only three men got drunk.

Onethird of the whole number of patients in the institution acquired a taste for strong drink in the social circle; the other two-thirds became drunk from constitutional tendencies, inducing insanity in some, and reckless disregard of moral obligations in others. Of the first class, twenty-two were cured; of whole had the benefit of Christian and temperance training, while only twenty-three had been neglected. From this it would seem that the temperance question requires to be considered in a variety of aspects, and that almost every subject affecting human interests deserves careful attention.

"Are those bells ringing for fire?" inquired Simon of Tiberias. "No, indeed," without any pattern. I thought differently, great was the reaction that I felt as though answered Tibe, "they have plenty of fire,

The rebels in Vir giuis control the Legislature-at least they elected a large majority of its members and intend to ratify the amendment, in case they get their seats, in order to gain admission; also to cause Congress to believe they are loyal and acting in good faith. Every loyal Legisalture in the Union will ratify it. so, if Congress had not required these Legislatures to ratify, they would have had a criterian by which to judge of the loyalty State were allowed to vote for or against a of them. As it is they have stripped themconvention to frame a Constitution for the selves of every means of judging of the complexion of these three rebel States. I am of the opinion that the provisions of the last Reconstruction Act will deal a terrible blow against the Republican party in 1872, A CURIOSITY. - The Marion county Democrat man has been shown a curiosity which was found in a coal bank near Knoxville. "It is a kettle, probably of iron or some other hard substance, but from long rusting, it has become like stone. It was encased in a bed of slate stone, just above the coal bed, twenty six feet below the surface. There were three of these vessels together. but two of them were broken in getting them out of the stone bed with which they were surrounded. They are of cone shape, with a small knob on the cover. It is of course impossible to say who placed these vessels where they were found. Doubtless persons thousands of years ago used them, and time in its course has left these mementoes of a forgotten people.'

To KEEP ICE FROM MELTING .- How to preserve ice for a considerable length of time for domestic purposes and especially the sick room, is told by an exchange. Make two bags of stout woolen fabric; the outer bag should be made at least two inches wider each way than the inner one. After placing one bag inside the other, stuff feathers between the two, and sew the bags together at the top. Put a block of ice into a bag of this description, and it will be preserved for nearly a week, when under exposure, it will melt in less than an hour.
