A EOLD STROKE FOR A WIFE.

It was my first visit North since I had taken up my abode and entered on the practice of my profession in New Orleans.

In the city of New York I had a very dear triend, my old chum and classmate, person I knew in the great metropolis, of course I lost no time in looking him up. Three years had passed since our last was drawn in accordance with your instruc-

At the conclusion of my friend's narrafive, in which, for reasons that may hereafter be developed, I telt a particular interest. I prevailed upon him to accompany me to a place of annusement to which 1 had previously procured tikets.

After a moments pause he seated himself at his desk, and hastily penned a brief note the leaders of the Democratic party in Pennwas outle satisfactory.

"Be so good as to seal and address it," I 2. He did so.

"I will see that it is delivered," I re marked, taking it up and bowing myself out. When I met George Dickson that evening, his old college look had come back. He had great news to tell me. The next thing was to take me to see Julia, and it is need-

A gentleman from the country, stopping at one of our hotels the other day, entered into conversation with one of the boarders.

After a few minutes conversation, the boardor drew out his cigar case, saying, "Will you do," was the reply. The eigar was passed to him; also the one which our boarder was Hacked in the direction indicated, and smoking, for the purpose of affording him means to ignite the fresh weed. Mr. Coun

The State has diluvial renouncing all pretentions to her hand, and we were also satisfied that our citizens had deposits 1,500 feet deep, and granite mounpaid in voluntary contributions to fill up the Union army at least fifty per cent, of the bounty taxes. $93,000,000 Leaving about twenty-six millions yet unprovided for. In the hands of the Repubcan State administration our permanent debt is being paid off at the rate of nearly two millions of dollars a year. It the Re-publicans are let alone, the whole debt will be extinguished in fifteen years at furthest. There is now going the rounds of the Democratic papers a statement copied from a smut machine at Harrisburg, intimating that there is a deficiency in the Auditor General's accounts, during two years of Gov. Geary's administration, of $7,200,000. Our first remark is that if Gov. Geary has paid off nearly two millions a year and yet has stolen seven millions, what shall be said of the thirty years of Domocratic rule in Pennsylvania, when no reduction was ever made on the public debt. Of course, on their own showing they must have annually stolen some six millions. The ridiculousness of this charge is shown by the fact that the entire revenue of the State would not exceed $9,000,000 in these two years, and the annual interest on the debt is nearand a half or two hours ago; and is a mile is two millions. The charge is so ridiculous or a mile and a half or two miles ahead of that it merits no answer. THE QUAKER WAY .- A good story is told by an exchange of a Quaker landlord nt Atlantic City. An urchin of five or six years was seen by him dramming noisily upon a handsome walnut ballustrade. The Friend remonstrated with him without effeet, and then quickly took him up bodily and carried him into the back yard. In a moment the boy's angry mother made her appearance and opened upon the landlord with a torrent of invective, concluding with "I'll leave this house instantly." The Quaker immediately touched a bell and said to the dark skinned waiter who responded to the call, "Leonidas, go up to forty-two and bring this triend's baggage when she tells thee she is ready for thee. If she wants thee to get a carriage for her, or has any other command until she is gone, thee will see them attended to."
