REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR: JOHN W. GEARY, of Cumberland co. FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT: HENRY W. WILLIAMS, of Allegheny co.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET. FOR TREASURER: F. K. ARNOLD, of Luthersburg. FOR COMMISSIONER: JOHN MAHAFFEY, of Burnside. FOR AUDITOR: EDWARD McGARVEY, of Karthaus.

EVERY Republican should be at the meeting this evening.

DON'T forget that Asa Packer, the millionaire and Railroad King, is the greatest coal monopolist in Pennsylvania!

GOV. GEARY has granted fewer pardons, and vetoed more special legislation than any Governor who has held the office for thirty years.

WHEN Bigler was Governor he granted 126 pardons a year. Geary has only issued 86, yet the Democrats are howling about the abuse of the pardoning power.

EVERY Democrat, who wishes to hear the great questions involved in the present contest fully and fairly discussed, should attend the Republican meeting this evening.

THERE are three or four Republican papers in the State that had better postpone "washing their dirty linen in public," until after the election. No good can come of it now.

ASA PACKER assisted, in 1864, to frame the infamous surrender platform at Chicago, declaring the war "a failure." How can a loyal man, and especially a soldier, vote for him?

THE Copperhead State Convention of New York last week resolved in favor of the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau, an institution that has been dead for a year past! Smart Democracy!

"NO RIGHTLY, NO VOTE," says the law. The name of every voter must be on the list or he loses his vote. Three days only remain. Go at once to the Assessor and see that your name is on.

THE man who is too careless to go and see that his name is on the list of voters, in time, doesn't deserve to have a vote. We hope no Republican will find himself disfranchised by his own negligence.

ALLEGHENY will give a larger majority for Geary and Williams than she did last year for Gen. Grant. The Republicans are fully alive, and working like beavers. They set a good example to the rest of the State.

If any Mechanic or Workingman wants to know what Asa Packer's sentiment are in regard to liberal wages and the eight hour system, let him inquire of the boatmen who pitched him into the Lehigh river. They know, and they'll tell the truth.

DURING a session of nine months, Packer managed to answer to "roll call," in Congress, just 54 times! For these 54 days he drew from the public treasury $3000—just $55.55 per day! Is it any wonder he is rich? What a gum elastic conscience such a man must have.

ASA PACKER, when in Congress, voted against the payment of the claims of the widows and orphans of Revolutionary soldiers. He cast his vote on the 30th day of July, 1856, and it will be found on page 1326 of the House Journal. How can a soldier support such a man? Is it any wonder that he dodges his taxes?

The Philadelphia Sunday Transcript—a Democratic paper, edited by Green, who was a Pension Agent under Johnson, and Chairman of the late Democratic City Convention—denounces the headquarters of the Packer State Central Committee at the corner of Ninth and Arch Streets, as "a gambling hell." Brief, but very emphatic.

We notice that the Hall organ in Elk county charges the Earleyites with being "disorganizers." This comes with a bad grace from a man (Hall) who a few years ago, if our memory serves us right, convened the county committee of Elk and nominated and supported Dr. Earley in opposition to Dr. Boyer, the regular candidate for Assembly.

The very distinguished Johnny Hall, better known as the "bantling," actually arrived in town yesterday afternoon, to be present at the "skizle" last night. Ashamed of his nocturnal trip last week, he concluded to show himself once more to the untried of Clearfield. And great was the "show" thereof! He spread his tail, rustled his feathers, cackled and—fizzled.

THAT Asa Packer, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is one of the richest men in the State—believed to be worth twenty millions—is known to every voter in the State. He is rich, if his wealth has been acquired in honorable business, it should be no reason why he should not aspire to be Governor of his adopted State. But if that wealth has been wrung from the toil of the poor laborer, or through the greed or selfishness of private or corporate monopoly, a further increased by shirking his honest share of the burdens and taxes incident to civil government, then say his great wealth should be a mill-stone about his neck to drag him down to political perdition and disgrace. And Asa Packer has all of these means to thank that he is now worth his twenty millions!

The historian of the Pennsylvania Reserves says of Geary at Gettysburg, where he commanded the left division of the Twelfth corps, that when he opened fire on the enemy, the rebels responded by a furious charge. With fanatical yell and mad contempt of death during six full hours, the enemy buried his solid masses against the well defended lines. Nothing during the war equalled this six hours of carnage. In front of Geary's division were more rebel dead than the number of the entire list of casualties in the Twelfth corps. While John W. Geary stood upon this bloody field, denouncing his native State against the invasion of a relentless foe, where was Asa Packer? Hob-nobbing with the arch traitor Vallandigham, in his palatial residence, Mauch Chunk. Soldier, for which will you vote?

THE Merchant's Hotel is in the 4th Division of the 6th Ward, in Philadelphia. On the list of voters in that division, at the last election, as returned to the Court of Common Pleas, is the name of "Judge A. Packer." It is No. 50 on the list. This man, whose residence is at Mauch Chunk, where he has a magnificent mansion described by his admirers as "the home of refinement, luxury and ease," voted last fall in Philadelphia, in violation of law, to help carry the city for the Democrats. How much better is he than the New York repeaters and roughs who were brought over for the same purpose? A fraudulent voter a candidate for Governor! What unblushing front! How can any decent man support him?

On the 15th day of December, 1856, Asa Packer voted, in Congress, FOR THE REVIVAL OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE! The record will be found in the House Journal, on page 105. Think of it, reader. A man born in the free State of Connecticut, and living among the eternal mountains of Pennsylvania, in the full blaze of the nineteenth century, deliberately voting for the revival of the most barbarous and inhuman traffic that ever disgraced the annals of the World! And this man has the effrontery to permit himself to be presented as a candidate for Governor! In the name of outraged civilization and insulted liberty, we call upon every decent citizen to repudiate the monster.

MECHANICS and laboring men remember that Packer declined to give a direct answer to the question "Are you in favor of the Eight Hour Law?" That law was passed by a Republican Congress, and enforced in all the National Workshops by President Grant. If Packer had been in favor of it he would have said so. As he equivocated, he must be set down as opposed to it, notwithstanding his profession of friendship for the workingmen. No laboring man can trust him. He is the meanest of all aristocrats—a rich parvenu. He believes that capital should own labor, and would vote for slavery—black or white—tomorrow, if by doing so, he could fasten it upon the working classes.

THE Republicans should remember that in some respects the coming election is one of peculiar importance, and every vote should be polled. For instance, in 1871 the Legislature will have devolved upon itself the duty of apportioning Pennsylvania both for Congressional and Legislative representation. Both of these apportionments have not fallen on the same year since 1801, and will not fall on the same year again until 1841. This consideration is of great political importance, and no Republican is excusable who neglects or refuses to vote the whole ticket. The result is fraught with consequences too grave to be frittered away out of negligence or personal pique.

FROM 1843 to 1848, when Judge Packer was an officer in the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company, he demonstrated his love for workingmen by paying his employees in the Company's scrip at par, and redeeming it at forty per cent discount. The poor men were obliged to submit to this rascous shave, as they could buy nothing with the scrip, and had nothing else to buy with. Thus Packer profited by their necessities to the extent of forty cents on every dollar, and in this way helped to build up his colossal fortune. We are glad to know that the present officers and management of this stanch old company, do business in a different way.—Mauch Chunk Gazette.

THE New York Sun thus speaks of Asa Packer, after commenting upon the interview which its reporter had with the Judge: "On the great and pregnant question of the tariff, finance, negro suffrage, the fifteenth amendment, reconstruction, the eight hour law, and woman's voting, we know just as little of Judge Packer's ideas as we know before." The Sun referring to Judge Packer as a prospective candidate for the Presidency concludes its article thus: "The American people don't want him; and we fancy the majority against him in October will not vary much from 10,000."

ASA PACKER has a record that ought to commend him to the support of all strong Democrats. Checked into the Lehigh in 1843 for cheating his workmen—a pro-slavery Loco-foco in 1855, voting to make Kansas a slave State—a "war-failure" Copperhead in 1864—a tax dodger in 1868—a railroad King worth twenty millions of dollars in 1869, why should they not vote for him? "Sich is Democracy."

THE Democratic party is having the hardest fight of many a year, for the vote of the workingman. They claim his suffrage notwithstanding their leader is an aristocratic millionaire. The laboring classes are asked to bind themselves to a rich and ungenerous master, and are told they will be benefited by it. It is intimated that after Judge Packer gets into office he will do some immensely philanthropic things which will forever make the Pennsylvania workingmen the most comfortable of mortals. This all sounds well, but when we remember that any official act of such a large employer, for the benefit of the miner, the laborer, or any other working man, would take money out of his pocket, we cannot think he would do much. For instance, would Judge Packer lessen his dividends one-half by enforcing the Eight Hour bill? The Judge's regard for the masses began too late in life to develop into a strong love, and we regard all talk on the subject as a direct Democratic bid for votes. If you have always voted the Democratic ticket, think twice before you go to the polls; reason honestly with yourself, without prejudice, and you will cast your ballot for a man who will not be influenced in his official course by a great railway or large capitalists.—Mauch Chunk Gazette.

A SILLY story having been circulated by the Ohio Democratic press that on a certain occasion while in the service General Rosecrans seized General (then Colonel) Hays by the collar and threatened to cut off his shoulder straps, General Rosecrans writes from San Rafael, California, to a friend in Ohio, denouncing the statement as a false calumny, and adding that he never had occasion for aught but commendation of General Hays while in the military service under his (Rosecrans) command. General Rosecrans states, the Governor had both his "respect and esteem as an officer and a public man, and still retains them." Truly, the hero of Stone river is a most unfortunate man for the opposition; he spurs their nomination, ridicules their political pretensions, and now explodes their slanders against the Republican candidate.

The following is from the Elk Gazette. It gives the status of the Hall and Early fight: Democrats, remember that Dr. Early, on the day of the Democratic County Convention, having a majority of the delegates to that Convention, and also at the District Convention at Tionesta, after having received the endorsement of a large majority of the Democracy of Elk County, offered to withdraw his name as a candidate if Mr. Hall would withdraw his, and let the Convention nominate a new man. Dr. Early made this proposition to save a split in the party. Mr. Hall refused, and therefore on him rests the responsibility of the present dissatisfaction in this district. He is the disorganizer!

The Democracy of the South, including some of the ablest of the old leaders, have taken open ground in favor of negro suffrage. They do not fear the ballot in the hands of the freedmen, but recognize it as their right fairly won. It is different with Asa Packer and the Pennsylvania fogies. They oppose the extension of suffrage to the small minority of colored men in this state on the miserable plea of preserving "white supremacy!" What wretched cowards they must be, to fear that a few niggers, with a fair chance in the race for life, will get the better of them? What a poor devil a white man must be, when he is afraid of a nigger?

H. B. SWOOPER, Esq. of this place is announced by the State Central Committee, to speak at the following places: Pittsburg, Monday, Oct. 4th; Beaver, Tuesday, Oct. 5th; New Brighton, Tuesday evening; New Castle, Wednesday, Oct. 6th; Mercer, Thursday, October 7th; Meadville, Friday, Oct. 8th; Erie, Saturday, Oct. 9th; Corry, Saturday evening. He will speak at some point in this county on the night before the election. The place will be announced in due time.

VOTERS should remember that there will be four separate tickets or slips to be voted at the coming October election. One ticket headed "Judiciary," for Judge of the Supreme Court; one headed "State" for Governor; one headed "County," for Representatives and county officers; and one headed "Township," or "Borough," as the case may be, for Justice of the Peace, Boards of Election, Supervisors, etc.

We are reliably informed that $5,000 have been sent to Clearfield by the Mutchler State Committee, for distribution among the faithful. Every Democrat who doesn't get his share of the funds will be cheated. If they don't keep a sharp lookout the whole "pile" will be divided among the Clearfield "ring." Now is the time to call for it—before the election. After you vote you will get no money.

The national debt of Great Britain is $797,031,650. That of France is $566,686,057. Our debt is $200,000,000. Neither Great Britain or France are making any effort to pay their debt, but are simply providing for the payment of the interest. Under Grant's administration we are not only paying the interest, but are reducing the principal at the rate of $100,000,000 per annum.

The Copperhead papers still keep prating about Judge Williams having been in favor of the repudiation of Allegheny county bonds. They know perfectly well that there is not a word of truth in the charge—that the deposed Democrats in Pittsburgh have contradicted it—but they keep on reiterating it, on the principle that "a lie well stuck to is as good as the truth."

In the first four months of Gen. Grant's administration there was a reduction of $4,000,000 in the civil service, $5,000,000 in the navy, and $45,000,000 in the army, and since his inauguration the national debt has been reduced $50,000,000. Acts speak louder than words. What are Democratic professions in the light of these accomplished facts?

A Little of Everything. Get registered. Work as well as vote for the election of Geary and Williams. The miners recognize their friends and will not vote for Packer. Only three more days remain to secure your vote. Go and attend to it. Did Cyrus L. Pershing ever try a cause without assistance? If so, when and where?

The Altoona Vendor, one of the vilest Copperhead sheets in the State, was sold by the Sheriff last week. See that your neighbor's name is in the list of voters? If not, tell him at once, and urge him to attend to it. Johnny Hall belongs to the genus owl—he travels after night. Besides, he is just about "as wise as an owl."

Which smells the worst—that of a "nigger," or of a dirty, filthy, loamy, greasy, New York, Five Points Democrat? Packer is called "Judge." He was never anything but a "side judge" in court, and a judge of good whiskey out of court. Earley is "movin' around." We shouldn't be "setting up" things generally. We shouldn't be surprised if he'll be elected.

George Peabody has made another gift of $400,000 to the Baltimore Institute. He will return to England in October.

How can any holder of a Government bond, vote for a man who will dodge his taxes? It's the meanest kind of swindling.

Johnny Hall "travels by night." Sensible young man. He "loves darkness" rather than light because his deeds are evil! Less than two weeks remain for work. Let Republicans be diligent and earnest in getting out the vote, and all will be well.

The canvass throughout the State is active and earnest. The prospects are bright. Let every man do his duty, and victory is sure. Did Johnny Hall think there were no Democrats in Clearfield worth speaking to? But Wallace, that he "came and went in a night!"

If it had not been for the Democrats in the last Legislature, the Avondale disaster could not have happened. Read the record on our first page. When the distinguished John G. Hall lived in Clearfield he was known as "the strutter." His "strut," as Nabby would say, was "truly magnificent."

Packer is worth only twelve millions. When he was nominated he was said to be worth twenty. Such is the fearful depreciation resulting from Democratic favor.

It is exceedingly doubtful whether Packer will have a majority in his own county of Carbon. The miners absolutely refuse to vote for him, and money can't buy them.

The Secretary of the Treasury has authorized the payment of coupons falling due on the 1st of November, upon a rebate of interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum. Bill McMullin is satisfied with the new city ticket, having got his price. But Green, of the Transcript, still holds out for a higher bid. Go in Green, Asa will "come down."

Our friend, J. Blake Walters, Chairman of the Packers in this county, is afflicted with "White Supremacy" on the brain. "How" "awful," Blake, and it will ease your "calabash." Mutchler has succeeded at last in getting out an "address." It will do no harm and no good, as it is so long, it will take the mass of his party from this until the election to "spell it out."

What important case did Cyrus L. Pershing ever try? What evidence has he ever given of his ability as a lawyer? Who knows anything about it? We "shouldn't really like to know."

Remember that Packer is not a native of our State—that all his interests are identified with New York—and that his election would be hailed by New York as a victory over Pennsylvania.

The only hypothesis upon which the total failure to defend Packer against the charges advanced by the Republican press of the State can be explained, is that there is no defense to make.

Why did Packer vote against George B. Barrett, and in favor of Bell, the known nigger candidate for Judge? Can't somebody talk? Some of Judge Barrett's friends would like to know.

Pennsylvania prefers now, as in times past a Governor born upon her soil. She is not prepared to place in her highest executive office a Connecticut Yankee, even if he is worth $20,000,000.

Johnny Hall, the "bantling," was over too week William, the "rooster," one night last week. Johnny got here about 10 o'clock, P. M., and left at 4 o'clock, A. M. There is evidently "a sore loze."

Packer is too old to make a Governor out of it. It would be cruel to make him run the gamut of hungry Copperheads who would throw the Capital seeking office if he was elected. But it will never happen.

The Hallites here are very scarce. They seem to be confined to Wallace's office and the Court House ring. Many leading Democrats are outspoken in their opposition. Johnny is in bad odor here. Peacock feathers are cheap in Clearfield.

Cyrus L. Pershing has made two political speeches in Clearfield. Both of them were immensely Copperhead—and as shallow as a summer mud-puddle. He is about as fit to Judge of the Supreme Court as a two days old pup is for a watch dog.

The Republican Congress enacted the eight hour law, and President Grant has enforced it in all the Navy Yards and Arsenals, thus setting an example to the States. Gov. Geary is strongly in favor of it, and every laboring man who desires it should vote for him.

The members of the Philadelphia City Committee, in throwing over the ticket nominated by the Convention, and putting one of their own in the field, won't go down with the "ring and bobtail" of the party. It has raised a very extensive breeze, and the pennons Asa is intensely disgusted.

THE two model Copperhead counties in Pennsylvania are Pike and Monroe. The following were their last votes for President: Grant, Seymour, 812 2915. Pike, 879 1313.

Almost four Democrats to one Republican—and rattlesnakes and rocks in a similar proportion. The officers they elect, however, are not models to be copied by "white men" generally. The Democratic Sheriff of Monroe had the hanging of Orme—and the awful, bungling, shocking job he made of it, has been sent all over the nation, to the shame of the whole State. The Democratic coronor of Pike county called the jury in the case of the railway disaster at Mast Hope, and respecting said official, the editor of the Honesdale Citizen, who attended the investigation, publishes that:

"He came to the scene in an almost imbecile condition, interlined where he had no business, made a fool of himself and (so far as he was concerned) a farce of every important duty, and went home in a drunken sleep—an object disgusting to look upon, and annoying to every occupant of the car."

Such are the "model" officers of the "banner" counties! "These be thy gods, O Israel."—Montrose Republican.

The Democratic journals are singing the praises of Packer with an unceasing ardor and unanimity which seem to exclude all consideration of his other qualities, whatever they may be. But why should not Packer be honest? And why should his integrity be proclaimed with such uneasy zeal? After a somewhat similar fashion the people of England have for the past thirty years been rapturously ringing the changes of loyalty over the "virtue" of their sovereign, partly because it is the most conspicuous meritorious quality that sovereign has been proved to possess, and partly because the general deficiency of European monarchs in this respect enables her to shine lustreously by contrast. It may be perfectly true that Mr. Packer is a bright jewel of purity in the dross of Democratic corruption, and it may also be true that his supporters find their excuse for perpetually puffing his uprightness in the fact that he has no other attribute to recommend him; but it will be difficult to convince sensible voters that a wealthy man's reputation for honesty is of itself, and unsubstantiated by other proofs of fitness, a sufficient reason for making him Governor of Pennsylvania.—Tribune.

In 1868, Senator Shumaker, Republican, procured the passage of an Act to incorporate "The Luzerne Asylum for the care of disabled miners and their families." Measures are now being taken to erect the Asylum. The Republican party, it is said, has been, the laboring man's best friend.

THE Democratic press are strong and venomous in their abuse of Geary but there is a perfect dearth in their columns as to the claims, character and ability of their own champion, the "golden calf" Asa. The fact is they know he is sadly deficient in all things but "greenbacks," and the less said of his qualifications the better.

If a Republican State administration can steal seven million dollars and reduce the public debt two millions annually, after having taken off the old Democratic tax on real estate, we are not quite certain that their course is not better than that of the honest Democracy, who stole nothing, but continued to increase the public debt.

THE people should not forget that we have never had a currency so convertible and sound as the greenbacks; that they were opposed by the Democrats from the first, and that if the Democrats succeed we shall be thrown back upon the shimpler and wild-ent notes by which labor was taxed and plundered in every State in the Union.

THE New York Express, (Democratic), speaking of the Packer platform, says: "There is no use trying to race with dead horses. When things die bury them." But the old fogies of Pennsylvania are "wedded to their idols," and dead or alive they can't bear to "bury them out of their sight," however loathsome the stench may be to intelligent Democrats elsewhere.

WILL the Democrat please inform its readers how much taxes, State and local, Judge Packer paid last year on his vast personal estate, and salary? The truth is he paid not one cent, either here or in Philadelphia. His house, land, and other fixtures here, of course, could not be hidden in a Philadelphia tavern, and on these, he, therefore, paid.—Mauch Chunk Gazette.

THE Elk Democrat, Johnny Hall's paper, says there is no issue before the people this fall, and it only supports Packer, because he has more executive ability than Geary! Wonderful Johnny! Then "nigger suffrage" is not an issue after all? How the rest of the Democratic editors do lie! But smart Johnny knows, for didn't he learn from Wallace? Go in "bantling," we'll hold your hat.

Publications. STRUGGLES AND TRIUMPHS; or Forty years' recollections of P. T. Barnum, written by himself.—This work is in press and will be ready for delivery soon.

STRUGGLES AND TRIUMPHS is an epitome of the busy and eventful life of P. T. Barnum as a merchant, manager, banker, lecturer, and successful showman on two continents. It shows him to us at the foot of the ladder, and gives us, with many other narratives, an account of his struggles for a livelihood, his imprisonment and release, his earlier ventures as a showman, his hairbreadth escape, his saving the life of Jas. Gordon Bennett, his brave encounter with Capt. Jenkins of the Cunard steamer, the trap laid for him in Philadelphia, the Jerome Clock Company entanglement and his failure, and the troops of friends to his rescue with offers of unlimited capital. It relates Gen. Tom Thumb's courtship and marriage, showing that it was a real affair of the heart; how Mr. Barnum came to be a lecturer, and his plans of public improvement in Bridgeport. It shows him to us at the top of the ladder, revealing the method of getting there, amusing and delighting the reader at every step of his progress. It records his extensive travels in this country and Europe, with the results of his large acquaintance with men; his reminiscences of Victoria, Louis Philippe, King Leopold of Belgium, Wm. M. Thackeray, Samuel Rodgers, and many other persons of note. New light is thrown upon the character of Jenny Lind, the Swedish Nightingale. The war with Bennett is narrated, and how the Yankee showman was an overmatch for the shrewd Scotchman, the full history of Bennett's purchase of the Museum lease, being now made public. All this forms but a small part of the personal and historical recollections of this autobiography, narrated in Mr. Barnum's unique and felicitous way.

In addition to this, the work contains his celebrated lecture (carefully revised) on the "Art of Money-getting," with the "Rules for Success in Business." This lecture alone is worth to every reader far more than the subscription price of the book. The different chapters are replete with humor, anecdote, and most entertaining narrative. The work is expensively illustrated with spirited engravings in the best style of the art. To those who desire to know something of the public career of the most successful manager in America, to the grave and gay, to young men anxious to succeed in business and in life, to old men, who like the author have done their work, and to all who wish to read a book fresh and spirited in every page, this offers entertainment and instruction beyond any of the recent issues of the press.

LAW OF BUSINESS.—by Theophilus Parsons, L. L. D., Professor of Law, in Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.—Sold by subscription only.—The Law of Business is a new work just published, and is designed for the people as well as the lawyer. It is a practical work such as is needed by everybody, sometime. It is a ready and reliable lawyer, always at hand with advice upon any point which may arise, and serves without fee. It gives a definite and trustworthy answer to nearly every question that can arise in the daily course of business. The farmer can ascertain from it what his rights are, and how to enforce them. The mechanic can secure his wages by consulting this book. The professional lawyer can find an answer to some question in a moment, when it might require a score of other volumes, and hours of time to find the same information.

It contains forms which have been tested in the courts, for making out correctly almost any kind of a document, such as Deeds, Mortgages, Wills, Mechanics' Liens, Notes, Bonds, Leases, Building Specifications, Contracts, Applications for Patents and Pensions, Notices of all kinds, Short or Long Forms, &c. In a word it is just such a book as a thoroughly well-posted lawyer would prepare for the general use of Farmers, Mechanics, Merchants, Landlords, Tenants, Executors, Administrators, Married Women, Guardians, Heirs-at-Law, Apprentices, Miners, Market Men, Widows, Orphans, Justices of Peace, Sheriffs, Constables, Property Holders, Manufacturers, and everybody who wants to save litigation and secure themselves against loss. It is a desirable book for everybody to have, and to keep. It may save many times its cost. It is sold by subscription, and the agent will call on our friends, and we bespeak for him large success. Secure a copy while you can. Charles Hiles, of Curwensville, has been appointed agent for the sale of this work.
