A Suggestion.—No person visiting Pitts—nakes good blood, the patient begins to grow in flesh the diseased matter ripens in the I ngs.and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in th treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pul-monic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectora-tion for when the phlegm or matter is ripe. 2 slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heat. To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Liver Complaint is one of the most prominent contact with a fence, Mr. W. was thrown out and dragged some distance, but escaped integrated in the dragged some distance, but escaped integrated in the large was demolished.
