. Another Fenian Raid. Raftsman's Journal.

On Monday, May 23d, the telegraph flashed throughout the country, with lightning speed, the news that the Fenians were on the march to invade Canada. This news was confirmed on Tuesday, whereupon the President issued the following proclamaion Whereas, It has come to my knowledge that sundry illegal military enterprises and expeditions are being set on foot within the territory and jurisdiction of the United States, with a view to carry on the same from such territory and jurisdiction against the people and district of the Dominion of Canada, within the dominions of her Majes-ty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, with whom the United States are at peace : now, therefore, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do hereby admonish all good citizens of the United States, and all persons within the territory and jurisdiction of the census soon. Let everybody be prethe United States, against aiding, counten-

we now correct, with fuller particulars, as we receive the statement from the lips of Brevet Colonel Merriam, Major of the Twenty-fourth Infantry, who is now in Austin. The Colonel, after four years of military service on the frontiers of Kansas, New Mexico and West Texas, had received leave of absence, and was journeying with his wife and child from El Paso to the Texan They had reached the head of the Consho river, and camped for the night on Sunday, the 24th of April. The river is formed by the junction of the rills of water from several large springs, which have been dammed into ponds by the wild beaver, and are well filled with large fish

The stream is so small here that a man can step across it anywhere. The banks were twenty feet above the bed of the water. Fatigued with the long journey of sixtyeight miles in the previous twenty-four hours without water, the party were pleasantly resting when, early in the evening, Colonel Merriam was roused by the signs of an approaching storm. The tent was fastened and made as secure as possible, and about nine o'clock a hail-storm burst upon them, accompanied by some rain and a strong wind.

The fall of hail was unprecedented, lasting until nearly eleven; the stones being of the size of hens' eggs, and striking the tent and prairie with a noise like near and incessant musketry.

The Colonel, who was not ignorant of the out into the darkness as soon as the storm had ceased, to note what effect had been produced on this rivulet. Here, then, is, if the charge prove true, a man who deliberately contrives that awful calamity, fire on a ship at sea-contrives the possible frightcure the small prize of sixteen hundred dolcarriage. The man was instantly killed, and lars insurance money. He should be tried by a jury of sea captains and sailors. It is a remarkable coincidence that this crime was attempted against the steamer George Washington, while some years since a crime of he same nature was contrived in the shipment of goods on the Mississippi steamer

President Grant acted wisely in putting a veto upon the movement of the Wyoming expedition into the Indian country by the Big Horn Mining and Exploring Association." It is evident from the description of the organization that it is intended to make a formidable raid, which would be certain to provoke retaliation, and thus open up a new eries of Indian hostilities. There will soon be a big talk in the national wigwam, at Washington, between the Great Father and his illustrious sons "Red Cloud," 'Spotted Tail,'' "Yellow Hair," "Swift Bear," and other Indian notabilities now on their way to the Federal City. Let us live in the hope that the calumet of peace will be smoked in good faith on both sides. and that most undesirable and horrible of all conflicts of arms, an Indian war, avoided.

They tell a ridiculous story of a mishap to a fat man at the recent burning of his house at Springfield, Massachusetts. The egress of fatty through the door was cut off by the flames, and a window of narrower limensions than the man was the only way of escape. He put his head out, and into the embrace of a friend, while another friend inside used a broom handle to keep him squirming, by which means he worked his body through. ----
