BARN BURNED. -The barn of John Bailey, in O-ceola, together with all its contents, including a team of horses and other live stock, was burned a short time since.

SEVERAL storekeepers have already sold out, and others wish to retire from business on account of the duliness of the times. Gentlemen, put your goods down low for each. Imitate Mossop, and be -happy.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES. - At the primary election on Saturday last, the following nominations were made by the Democracy of this county: For Sheriff, J. J. Pie; Dist. Attorney, Al. W. Walters; Commissioner, D. Buck ; Jury Commissioner, J. A. Faust ; Auditor, D. A. Wise.

THE FOURTH. - A grand celebration will come off in the grove near New Washington, on July 4th. An oration will be deliv ered on the occasion. A platform will also be erected for the accommodation of all who all. desire to "trip the light funtastic toe," to merry and enlivening music. All are invited to attend.

RAIN.—Some rain fell in this region during the past week, but not sufficient to raise the river to a good rafting stage at this place. We understand that the streams below Clearfield, however, had raised sufficient for rafting purposes, but to what extent timber has been pushed forward we have not learned.

BROKE LOOSE.-We understand that, awing to a rapid rise in the river at Lock | will then stick till it is dry. Haven, over one hundred rafts broke loose ber of raits also went adrift below Lock Haven from the same cause. This will entail a heavy loss on some of our lumbermen, which is much to be regretted.

BARN DESTROYED BY FIRE. - We learn thip was destroyed by fire. A small quan- be sure and have it go. tity of feed and farming implements were also far as is known.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SO-CETY. -The following additions to the rules my have been adopted by the Executive Committee, to which we direct the attention of all interested :

Every person wishing to be enrolled as a member of the Society must apply on or before the 4th day of July, A. D. 1870, and upon payment of one dollar to the Treasu Big Run, Jefferson county, Pa. rer, will receive a certificate of membership containing the name of the applicant.

Every person so enrolled as a member shall, on the presentation of such certificate and payment of one dollar in addition, reserve a ticket which will admit himself, wife, and children under eighteen years of age, during the Fair. Life members of the Society will receive a similar ticket on the trayment of one dollar. All persons must be provided with tickets, either sigued by the President or Chairman of the Executive Committee, to obtain admission. They will be furnished by the reasurer or Secretary, or at the office on the ground. Persons acting as judges are expected to become members of the Soci-

CORNER STONE LAID. - The corner stone of a new M. E. Church, was laid in Philipsburg, Centre county, on Thursday, June 9th, 1870, under the auspices of Moshannon Lodge, No. 391, A. Y. M. A goodly number of the members of neighboring lodges were also present. The concourse of people in attendance was the largest ever assembled in Philipsburg. The proceedings were of a highly interesting character, and passed off to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

MARBLE WORKS .- S. A. Gibson, having recently opened a Marble Yard in this place, is prepared to make all kinds of work, such is Momments, Tombs, Couches, Head and Foot Stones, etc., on short notice and in a CLOSING PRICES OF DEHAVEN & BRO. work manlike manner. Having been engaged in the business for a number of years, Mr. G. flatters himself that he can render satisfaction in regard to work and prices, and solicits a share of public patronage. All orders entrusted to Mr. J. E. Watson, agent. will receive prompt attention.

We would respectfully call the attention of our readers to the card of Straw & Morton, agents for the Singer Sewing Machine and the wonderful Hinkley Kuitting Mathine. The agency for these machines at Pittsburg is the oldest in the United States, naving been established by Mr. Straw neary twenty years ago. The firm is recommended as entirely reliable and anything coming from their establishment may be regarded as the best. A great advantage in purchasing from this house is that they are firmly established and repairs and parts of machines can always be had.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT. - The Philipsburg Journal says : About eleven o'clock on Tuesday, (7th) a distressing accident took place at Way, Foster & Co.'s planing mill, in this place, by which Mr. J. Gorton, an estimable citizen, lost a hand and portion of his arm. At the time of the accident he was engaged at a large moulding machine, and reaching to pick up a splinter, his left hand eaught between two bits, their axes running at right angles-one revolving horizontally and the other vertically-and with great rapidity, most frightfully mangling the hand o the wrist. Medical aid was summoned, and it was decided that amputation was ne essary. Chloroform was administered and he arm taken off just above the wrist.

A NARROW ESCAPE. - The following no ice, relative to the narrow escape of a forner citizen of this place from death in a well, is taken from the Falls City Journal, and will be perused with interest by many of our readers :

"About half past six o'clock on Tuesday evening, (June 7th.) Mr. A. Southard went down into Esquire Frank's well for the purpose of getting a bucket that had been in the water for several days, and when down about twenty feet the well fell in and buried him. Two of Mr. Frank's family were lowering him on the well bucket, and as soon is the wall gave way, gave the alarm, and a large crowd of people were at the scene in a hope of rescue, although his voice could be listinctly heard from below. Judge Dundy and J. G. Good were first to go into the well for the relief of Mr. S., and were, when exhausted, relieved by others. The exsitement was great, as would be naturally expected, but was greatly increased by the presence of his wife and children, who could hear his voice, without hope of ever seeing him alive. All present, were of course, beset by the most terrible apprehensions, though his voice could be heard distinctly urging the workmen to relieve him, still the work went on, and about half past eleven the man was uncovered and drawn, as i were, from the jaws of a terrible death, and restored to his family, having been in the well about five hours. He declares that with the exception of a few ugly bruises, he is unhart; and at the time of going to press is doing finely. Mr. Southard is a relative of Esquire Frank's family, and lately arrived at this place from Pennsylvania, and has purchased a dwelling in town with a view to making it his permanent home.

How to Act in a Post Office. - When you call at the office for your mail, and the postmaster hands it out, ask him if that is DEHAVEN & BRO.,

If you ask for mail, and he tells you there is none, tell him there ought to be, and go home and send the rest of the family around to ask at different times through the day. Don't bring your mail to the office until the mail closes, then curse the postmaster
