CLEARFIELD, PA., JUNE 29, 1870.

To Farmers.—To insure the safe transmission of money by mail, patrons should register by check a receipt will be enclosed in the first paper after the money comes to hand.

Table with 2 columns: Destination and Time. Includes Penn. R. R.—Summer Arrangement, Accommodation Train, and other schedules.

QUARTERLY MEETING.—The Second Quarterly Meeting for Curwensville M. E. Church, will be held on Saturday and Sunday, July 2nd and 3rd.

"MAKE hay while the sun shines," is a trite old saying; but we hope our farmers have followed the advice during the past week.

ARM BROKE.—One day last week, Eddie, grand-son of Mrs. Walters in this place, fell off a store box and fractured his left arm in two places.

FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the M. E. Church, in Lumber-city, will hold a festival on Saturday, July 24, for the benefit of the church.

The Excursion.—The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, upon the completion of the Tyrone and Clearfield branch, tendered to the citizens of this place an excursion, at any time they would name.

RELIGIOUS.—Divine services will be held next Sabbath, in Clearfield, as follows: By Rev. J. H. M. Cord, in the Methodist church, at 9 o'clock.

On reaching Lock Haven, the excursionists left the train and started for the Fallon and Montour Hotels, preceded by the Music—where accommodations and refreshments were in readiness for their reception.

Under the admirable arrangement of Superintendent J. G. Wilkins, Esq., and Dan. M. Woods, Esq., the despatcher, the party arrived at Lock Haven, at 1:35 p. m. on time.

On reaching Lock Haven, the excursionists left the train and started for the Fallon and Montour Hotels, preceded by the Music—where accommodations and refreshments were in readiness for their reception.

On Saturday morning at 8 o'clock the party left the Herdic House on the return trip, stopping a short time at Lock Haven to once more exchange congratulations with their friends at that place.

On Friday, the excursionists visited the Herdic Park and Trout Ponds, the public buildings in the city, and the extensive lumbering establishments in the vicinity.

Thanks.—The Committee in charge of the recent excursion from Clearfield to Williamsport, take pleasure in recognizing the obligation of themselves and those they represent, to the Penn. R. R. Co. for its generous conduct in tendering to us the facilities for the excursion; to Geo. C. Wilkins, Esq., the efficient Superintendent of the Branches, for the admirable arrangement of Schedule, for the fine coaches furnished us, for his watchful care for our safety, and for his prompt attention to everything in the line of his duty; the company has no more courteous gentleman nor efficient officer in its employ; to D. M. Wood, Esq., the prompt and reliable assistant to Mr. Wilkins, for his vigilance and skill in the performance of his duties in connection with our train, and the comfort and safety with which the trip was conducted under his supervision; to The employees upon the train for respectful demeanor, and unflagging attention to their duties; to The gentlemen and ladies from adjacent villages, who united with us in the excursion to extend the circle of our social intercourse; and to The Clearfield Cornet Band for their hearty and cordial music.

In this attempt to renew and extend the heretofore cordial relations that have existed with our friends and neighbors in the towns of Lock Haven, Bellefonte, and Williamsport, we were cordially met and fraternally welcomed by the estimable citizens of Lock Haven and Bellefonte, and we thank them for their just appreciation of the purposes of our visit and for their noble hospitality.
